Amravati riots: Ex-BJP minister among 14 held

SRPF, 5,000 police personnel, deployed to maintain peace

SANJAY JOG

Police have so far arrested 14 BJP leaders, including former minister Anil Bonde, civic body group leader Tushar Bharati and Amravati district unit chief Nivedita Chaudhari, who had participated in the bandh on Nov 13, which later turned violent. They have been produced in court; meanwhile, arrests in the case continue.

Amravati Dist Guardian Minister Yashomati Thakur, without naming the BJP, warned that those involved in disturbing communal harmony and peace would not be spared. She said that nearly 5,000 police personnel and four companies of state reserve police force had been deployed in Amravati to maintain law and order.

Minority Affairs Minister Nawab Malik alleged that the

It is unfortunate that while the Maharashtra government is doing a good job, the bandh decision was taken by some parties which wanted to disturb the peace.

SHARAD PAWAR

BJP and its leaders, including Bonde, hatched the plot to incite riots to destabilise the MVA govt, as their previous attempts to do so have failed. Malik claimed that the BJP had allegedly sent money and liquor to Amravati to carry out its plan. He said the BJP's plan did not work, as the rest of Maharashtra realised it in advance.

NCP chief Sharad Pawar also alleged that some parties were working to jeopardise peace and harmony, with an eye on assembly elections in some states.

"It is unfortunate that while the state govt is doing a good job, the bandh decision was taken by some political parties which wanted to disturb the peace," he noted.

Malik said police had registered cases against those involved in stone-pelting on them during a bandh called revealed the BJP's plot and now, action has been initiated," he claimed.

"Money was sent from Mumbai to provoke the riots, which was distributed by BJP leaders to people in Amravati. When the BJP has exhausted all options, it resorts to riots. The people of the state are fully aware and will never accept such politics. We condemn such destructive politics and the BJP should not engage in such politics," Malik said.

Meanwhile, the Nagpur police have issued prohibitory orders, to avoid any untoward incident.

DOOR-TO-DOOR RATION: SC refuses to interfere with Delhi HC order

NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Monday refused to interfere with Delhi High Court's interim order on door-to-door supply of food grains by the Delhi government.

The Delhi High Court had on September 27 cleared the way for the implementation of the door-step delivery of ration scheme, against which the Centre moved the Supreme Court.

The Delhi government assured the Supreme Court that it will not implement its door-to-door ration delivery scheme till the Delhi High Court takes up the main petition pending there against the validity of the scheme on Nov 22.

The Delhi government also brought on record that its scheme is "fully compatible with one nation one ration card scheme". A bench headed by justice

L. Nageswara Rao and comprising justice B.R. Gawai queried Senior advocate Abhishek Manu Singhvi, representing the Delhi government: "Have you started implementing the scheme (doorstep delivery of ration)?" Singhvi submitted that 90 per cent of the citizens have applied for this scheme - 69 lakh people out of 72 lakh have been registered. Singhvi added that these days Amazon is making home deliveries, food is being delivered at home, and also liquor; therefore there is nothing wrong in delivery of food grains at the doors of poor people under PDS.

He added that there are lobbies, which do not want the Delhi government to fill the leakage in the system.

The bench queried, "Has the Delhi government implemented the scheme?" Singhvi replied, "Not started in full swing, preparations are going on".

HC adjourns Nandigram recounting case till Dec 1

ARITRA SINGHA

Calcutta High Court on Monday adjourned the hearing for Nandigram vote-counting case to December 1.

Notably, in this matter the High Court has asked the Leader of Opposition Suwendu Adhikari to file a written response by November 29. It can be recalled that in July, the Trinamool Congress had moved in Calcutta High Court demanding re-counting of the Nandigram Assembly seat where BJP leader Suwendu Adhikari defeated TMC Supremo Mamata Banerjee by almost 2000 votes.

Initially the case was given to the single bench of Justice Kaushik Chanda but crying foul against Justice Chanda on July 13, TMC had appealed to change the judge as according to TMC Justice Chanda is a member of the BJP. Ahead of quitting the case, Justice Chanda had fined the West Bengal Chief Minister of rupees five lakh rupees.

After Justice Kaushik Chanda recused himself from this case, the matter was allotted to the Bench of Justice Sampa Sarkar of Calcutta High Court.

It is pertinent to mention that after TMC demanded recounting in Nandigram poll results, several BJP leaders also had moved the High Court demanding recounting in their constituencies.

After the TMC had won the four bypolls and two polls recently, West Bengal Transport Minister Firhad Hakim claimed that if there is recounting in Nandigram then the TMC Supremo would defeat Suwendu by several thousand votes.

Ker HC dismisses plea claiming Narayanan influenced CBI probe by land deals

KOCHI: The Kerala High Court on Monday dismissed the plea of a former police officer, accused of falsely implicating Nambi Narayanan in a spying case in 1994, who had alleged that the ex-ISRO scientist influenced the CBI probe against him back then.

ISRO CASE

Former Police officer S Vijayan had alleged that Narayanan influenced the CBI probe by entering into land deals worth crores with the then investigating officials of the agency. Justice R Narayana Pisharadi dismissed Vijayan's plea. The detailed order is awaited. Vijayan, along with 17 other former Kerala police and IB officials, is facing a CBI probe for allegedly falsely implicating Narayanan and some others in the 1994 spying case.

Vijayan had argued before the high court that he had placed before the trial court encumbrance certificates of several acres of land in the Tirunelveli district which show Narayanan or his son as power of attorney holders. These lands were sold to the CBI officials, Vijayan had alleged and contended that this material was sufficient for the trial court to order an investigation under the Prevention of Corruption Act against the scientist and the agency officials.

The HC hc, however, had said that encumbrance certificates do not prove sale of land and asked Vijayan to show the actual sale deeds. The HC also said sanction to prosecute would also be required for the trial court to order an investigation. Vijayan and 3 others were granted anticipatory bail by the HC in August in the CBI's conspiracy case against them.
