ON PATH TO PROFITABILITY Simpl trims around 15% of workforce

ANES HUSSAIN
Bengaluru, May 8

BUY NOW PAY Later (BNPL) fintech platform Simpl has let go of around 15% of its employees in a significant workforce reduction exercise.

Sources privy to the development have revealed that the company has laid off at least 100 employees across various departments, with focus on higher-paying roles such as engineering and product functions.

Nityanand Sharma, the company's founder and CEO, conducted a brief all-hands town hall meeting on Wednesday morning, where he addressed the layoffs, expressing regret for the decision and assuring support for those impacted, including outplacement assistance, said a person affected by the latest trim.

Before the latest downsizing, Simpl employed around 650 individuals, encompassing core operations, interns and call center agents.

100 STAFFERS HIT

■ Around 100 of 650 employees laid off, some after spending a month at organisation

■ Focus was on higher-paying roles such as engineering and product functions

■ This marks the second consecutive year of layoffs for the startup

This marks the second consecutive year of layoffs for the startup, which let go of approximately 160-170 employees in March 2023.

Notably, the latest round has also affected some recently-hired employees, with some having spent only one or half months with the company, sources added.

Sonata Software likely to see subdued FY25

PADMINI DHURVARAJ
Bengaluru, May 8

SONATA SOFTWARE WILL likely see a subdued FY25 due to a slowdown seen in its subsidiary, Quant Systems, and continued delay in the deal ramp-ups, the company's CFO Jagannathan Chakravarthi Narasimhan told FE.

"So for the year (FY25), they (Quant) still are confident that later part of the year, they will grow. But in Q1, we are not sure what kind of growth will be coming in. Later part means, July to September and October to December will be a good quarter for them. But not very clear about April to June quarter. Hence, we said there will be a softness in growth for us."

Additionally, he said that even if Quant Systems "takes off in July to September quarter", there are still uncertainties in the large deals conversion as with the current uncertainties, large deals are taking nine to 12 months to close compared to the previous six months. "Hence, we said there can be a softness in the first two quarters of the year.

JAGANNATHAN CHAKRAVARTHI NARASIMHAN, CFO, SONATA SOFTWARE

IN THE SECOND QUARTER OF THE YEAR, WE EXPECT GROWTH TO RESUME

And in the second quarter of the year, we expect that growth to resume," the CFO said.

Despite these immediate challenges, Sonata Software remains hopeful, anticipating a double-digit growth in FY25. Narasimhan elaborated, "We expect growth to resume back in the second half of FY25. The pipeline is very strong, and if we convert this into new large deals, it will definitely help us to achieve double-digit growth."

In the fourth quarter of FY24, Sonata Software reported a 14.53% increase in revenue from operations at ₹2,191.6 crore, up from ₹1,913.5 crore in the same period last year. However, net profit declined by 3% year-on-year to ₹110.4 crore, from ₹113.8 crore. The CFO attributed this mixed performance to several factors impacting the business.

"The slowdown at Quant Systems and the postponement in a large deal were significant contributors to this quarter's performance. We were expecting a large deal to come in Q4, and based on customer confirmation, we deployed people on-site from January. Unfortunately, due to changes in leadership and management at the customer's end, the deal was delayed, leading to unutilised resources and impacting our margins," Narasimhan said.

PVR rolls out luxury formats

GEETA NAIR
Pune, May 8

THE INDIAN FILM industry has bounced back in terms of volumes, with the box-office numbers reaching ₹12,000 crore compared to the ₹10,000-11,000 crore pre-Covid levels, Ajay Bijli, managing director, PVR INOX, said.

A total of 900 million tickets were sold in the two years after Covid-19 in the country. India has recovered much better than any other country, and it was the only country in the world where box office collections exceeded pre-Covid collections, Bijli said.

AJAY BIJLI, MD, PVR INOX

WE HAVEN'T GONE BACK TO PRE-COVID LEVELS IN TERMS OF VOLUMES, BUT IN TERMS OF VALUE, WE HAVE

"We have not gone back to pre-Covid levels in terms of volumes, but in terms of value, we have," Bijli said. It is a cyclical phenomenon and not a structural one, so the industry would bounce back, he added.

Bijli was in Pune to unveil PVR INOX's super-premium format, Director's Cut cinema and ICE theatres at the KOPA Mall in Pune. This will be a seven-screen multiplex and for the first time, house two luxury cinema formats, five Director's Cut auditoriums and one immersive ICE theatre, in a multiplex.

The premium screen account for 14% of all the screens in the country and the company was aspiring to grow this to 20%.

Veg thali stayed flat in April, non-veg costlier

The cost of household vegetarian thali was flat in April on month, due to a 4% decline in onion prices coupled with 3% decline in fuel cost, reports Sandip Das. Non-vegetarian thali last month got costlier by 3% due to a 4% increase in prices of broilers, data from Crisil showed. However, the cost of veg thalis rose by 8% in April on year because of an increase in prices of onion, tomato and pulse while prices of non-veg thali declined by 4% on year due to softening of broiler meat prices, Crisil stated.

Google launches Wallet app

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, May 8

GOOGLE ON WEDNESDAY launched its Wallet app - a single destination to store key documents such as boarding pass, loyalty cards, event tickets, etc.

The company has brought Google Wallet to India two years after its launch in the US, and will operate it alongside its payment app Google Pay, it said. According to Google, currently users store documents physically or even in case those documents such as tickets, passes, etc, are saved on phones, it takes a lot of time to find them out at the time it is required. Through Wallet, such services will become digitised, and there will be a quick access to everyday essentials, Google said. For example, users booking movie tickets on an app will be able to save the tickets in their Google Wallet. Similarly for flight tickets, once a ticket is saved in the wallet, users will also get details about any change of gate or delay in flights, etc. "We've focused on making sure the journey from paper to digital is seamless," said Ram Papatla, general manager & India engineering lead, Android at Google.

The app will be for non-payment uses. It will offer single destination to store documents like boarding pass, event tickets, etc.

"Wallet is specifically tailored for non-payment use cases. Google Pay is our primary payments use case and it solves all payment needs in India," Papatla added.

Federal Bank mulls submitting co-branded card plan soon

SACHIN KUMAR
Mumbai, May 8

FEDERAL BANK EXPECTS to submit its plan to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) soon, detailing the corrective actions the bank has taken in response to concerns raised by the banking regulator about its co-branded cards. The private lender does not expect any significant impact of RBI's action on its fee income due to RBI's order to issue new co-branded cards, according to Shalini Warriar, executive director, Federal Bank.

"We are in the process of working through the details of what RBI has asked us to look at," Warriar told analysts in earnings call.

"We have worked through most of the details that need to be done. In the next few days, we will be going back to RBI and presenting our plan, indicating where the corrections have been made," she added.
