BUSINESS UPDATE

Business outlook:

Our Joint Venture company providing Concrete Weight Coating has started on a strong note by booking its maiden order from a renowned North American Oil & Gas major. We are enhancing pipe bending technology & coating operations to further strengthen our overall capabilities and value proposition to customers.

Despite general slowdown in oil & gas sector, some large projects may soon get decided. We, owing to our technical superiority, have a good chance to get a fair share of these projects. This coupled with a buoyant domestic market provides a positive long-term outlook.

Despite challenges in raw material availability, conducive regulatory environment coupled with higher volumes has benefitted Plate & Coil Mill operations and we maintain a positive outlook for this year.
