Financial Results – Consolidated Q1 FY17

- Company's wholly owned subsidiary BJN Nepal showed robust performance on the back of recovery -
 - post-earthquake
 - from lifting of transport blockade
- Company's Polish subsidiary BOLIX S.A showed improved performance on both top line and profitability. Currency impact was negligible in this quarter
 - BOLIX has recently opened a new subsidiary, SOLTHERM UK, to distribute ETICS (External Thermal Insulation & Composite Systems) products in the UK
- The topline number excludes JVs Berger Becker Coatings Private Limited & BNB Coatings India Private Limited, which were earlier included on a proportionate consolidation basis. All comparable numbers in the published results have been revised accordingly

Industry Outlook

- Decorative paint demand looks encouraging as a result of better rainfall this year as compared to past two years as well as the expected impact of seventh pay commission payout
- General Industrial and Automotive segment expected to sustain recovery
- Volatility in crude prices and USD/INR rates remain a concern
