Berger Paints India Limited Earnings Update Call Q3 FY17 February 13th , 2017

Q3 FY17 Performance

GROWTH (%) -Standalone Q3 FY17

GROWTH (%) -Standalone YTD DEC FY17

Financial Results – Standalone Q3 FY17

- Decorative business showed a reasonable improvement over Q3 FY 16 in spite of the impact of demonetization in November 2016 and the effect of price decrease in February FY 16
- General Industrial / Automotive business lines registered modest growth for the quarter
- Protective Coatings business line also registered subdued growth for the quarter
- Material cost % was marginally higher over Q3 FY 16 because of the denominator effect of decorative price decrease in February FY 16 as well as the increasing price effect of certain raw materials
- Lower PBDIT margin was mainly on account of increasing RM price trend, impact of price decrease in February 2016 and one off increase in overheads
- Reduction in finance cost for the quarter was due to lower debt levels and softening of interest rates

Financial Results- Consolidated: Q3 FY17

- Company's wholly owned subsidiary BJN Nepal showed robust performance both in top line & profitability
- Company's Polish subsidiary BOLIX S.A continued to show improved performance on both top line and profitability
- Company's JV with Becker Coatings which is consolidated under equity method, showed impressive performance

Industry Outlook

- Decorative paint segment is expected to look up post recovery from the effect of demonetization
- Infrastructure segment is expected to improve on the back of higher government spending as mentioned in the Budget proposal
- Margins expected to recover riding on decorative price increases with effect from 1st March 2017
- Upward trend of some key raw materials and potential exchange volatility in USD/INR remain a concern
