OVERVIEW OF PACKAGING INDUSTRY IN INDIA

Overall packaging industry in India is projected to be Rs. 2,150 - 2,200 billion for fiscal 2023

The polymer packaging industry contributes substantially to the GDP growth in India and at the same time support the consumer-led industries such as FMCG and pharma, key sectors for growth in India, with reliable of packaging solutions.

SHREE RAMA MULTI-TECH LIMITED

The Indian packaging industry's market size at Rs 2,150-2,200 billion in fiscal 2023, growing at CAGR 7% from fiscal 2017-22. Polymer packaging, which form nearly 60-65% of the industry by revenue, grew 6% during the period FY17-22. The paper packaging segment also witnessed a strong 12% CAGR revenue growth. On the other hand, metal and glass packaging witnessed a 3% and 8% growth, respectively during fiscal 2017-2022. Demand for packaging segments comes from food packaging and pharma segments.

Over fiscals 2022-2027, we expect the industry to log 7-8% CAGR on the back of healthy volume growth driven by polymer, paper and metals packaging segments. The pharmaceutical, industry chemical, food product, and personal care sectors are expected to be the key growth drivers. Fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) companies' increasing focus on innovative packaging solutions that offer scope for enhanced aesthetic value and extended shelf life will also propel demand.

Polymers have emerged as the most preferred packaging material with 60-65% share in overall packaging. The segment has clocked 6% CAGR between fiscal 2017-2022, following paper packaging, which saw higher 12% CAGR. Metal packaging witnessed 8% CAGR during the period and glass 3% CAGR.

In terms of end-user industries, the pharma and food product segments witnessed a strong 12% and 7% CAGR during the period of fiscal 2017-2022, driving demand for packaging. The personal care (3% CAGR) and industry chemical segments 4% CAGR also supported the overall industry demand. Traditionally, robust growth in demand for FMCG products has been the key driver for the packaging sector. FMCG companies' focus on rural markets has boosted demand for polymer packaging, especially for pouches and sachets.

Flexible packaging comprises BOPP, HDPE, and PP bags and rigid packaging includes HDPE containers, PP containers and jars, and PET bottles. There has been a significant shift in preference from rigid to flexible packaging owing to convenience of use and lower cost. Introduction of new solutions such as laminated pouches and sachets has helped increase the share of flexible packaging over time.

Over the next three fiscals, the rigid packaging segment's revenue is expected to log higher growth rate than of flexible packaging, largely backed by volume growth and demand from food products and FMCG sectors. Growth in flexible packaging is expected to be slightly higher than rigid packaging, driven by increased use of BOPP in the form of pouches and sachets to package food products, personal care products, etc.

The Key growth drivers for packaging industry are i) Growth prospects of end-user sectors, ii) Increasing rural demand for small packaged goods, iii) Expected growth in organized retail and e-commerce industry iv) Better affordability levels, health-conscious nature of consumers, v) Growing population of working women, changing lifestyle a key factor and vi) Demand for innovative product solutions and sustainable packaging.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Your Directors have pleasure in presenting this Management Discussion and Analysis Report for the year ended on March 31, 2023.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS:

Overall packaging industry in India is projected to be Rs. 2,150 - 2,200 billion for fiscal 2023

The polymer packaging industry contributes substantially to the GDP growth in India and at the same time support the consumer-led industries such as FMCG and pharma, key sectors for growth in India, with reliable of packaging solutions.

Packaging industry to grow moderately in medium term:

CRISIL projects the Indian packaging industry's market size at Rs 2,150-2,200 billion in fiscal 2023, growing at CAGR ~7% from fiscal 2017-22. Polymer packaging, which form nearly 60-65% of the industry by revenue, grew ~6% during the period FY17-22. The paper packaging segment also witnessed a strong ~12% CAGR revenue growth. On the other hand, metal and glass packaging witnessed a ~3% and ~8% growth, respectively during fiscal 2017-2022. Demand for packaging segments comes from food packaging and pharma segments

Growth in consumer segments to drive packaging industry:

Over fiscals 2022-2027 we expect the industry to log 7-8% CAGR on the back of healthy volume growth driven by polymer, paper and metals packaging segments. The pharmaceutical, industry chemical, food product, and personal care sectors are expected to be the key growth drivers. Fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) companies' increasing focus on innovative packaging solutions that offer scope for enhanced aesthetic value and extended shelf life will also propel demand.

Polymers form more than half of packaging material:

Polymers have emerged as the most preferred packaging material with 60-65% share in overall packaging. The segment has clocked ~6% CAGR between fiscal 2017-2022, following paper packaging, which saw higher ~12% CAGR. Metal packaging witnessed ~8% CAGR during the period and glass ~3% CAGR.

In terms of end-user industries, the pharma and food product segments witnessed a strong ~12% and ~7% CAGR during the period of fiscal 2017-2022, driving demand for packaging. The personal care (~3% CAGR) and industry chemical segments ~4% CAGR also supported the overall industry demand. Traditionally, robust growth in demand for FMCG products has been the key driver for the packaging sector. FMCG companies' focus on rural markets has boosted demand for polymer packaging, especially for pouches and sachets.

SRMTL'S PERFORMANCE AS INDUSTRY:

SRMTL is an ISO 9001:2015, ISO 15378:2017 and DMF-type III certified Company engaged in providing primary packaging solution. We currently manufacture a wide and diverse range of packaging products such as laminated tubes ("Lami Tubes"), tube laminates and flexible laminates. Our products are primarily used for oral care, pharmaceuticals, cosmetics and fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) sectors. Our products are available in different sizes, diameters and circular shape as per the specifications of our customers.

Your company's major product is laminated tubes and laminates, which is used for packing products in paste or gel form. Production related to Tubes was increased by 1.57 % as compared to last year.

The key growth driver for the year was tube laminate with 15.87 % growth in production as compared to last year. The numbers of key customers have been tapped for this segment which can give impressive growth in the coming year.

SEGMENT-WISE/ PRODUCT WISE PERFORMANCE:

The Company closed the year at higher level in laminated tubes. This is because of robust orders of Laminates from domestic and export market.

OPPORTUNITIES, THREATS AND RISK PERCEPTION:

Laminated tubes are estimated to clock 10-11% CAGR over fiscals 2022-2027, led by volume growth in personal care categories – pharma, cosmetics and new food segment

The industry is expected to grow faster going ahead driven by rapid growth in consumption of personal care products – pharma, cosmetics and new food segment. Laminated tubes are expected to clock a CAGR of 10-11% over fiscals 2022-2027, driven by increase in volume sales of personal care categories and higher penetration in the India metro and non-metro markets, increase in value addition and design aspects of tubes for attractive marketing, and moderate increase in raw material prices. The change in mix towards high value tube offerings in personal care and beauty category will drive value growth for the industry. Over the next five years, extruded mono-layer and aluminium tubes are also likely to be substituted by laminate tubes, especially in the skin care and pharma/healthcare segments. The key growth trends expected to drive sales and realisations of tube manufacturers are as follows:

- Continued shift to ABL tubes in the pharma segment for OTC ointments/ gels and prescription cream-based skin application medicine
- Growth in end-user segments and rise in share of personal care categories in tubes, driven by sales of lip care, eye care, hand creams, face care and OTC ointments/ gels and prescription cream-based skin application medicine
- Growing concerns over package sustainability and costs are also likely to facilitate substitution of bottles by tubes in personal care products
- Increase in exports potential and consumption in the European, Middle East and Africa markets. Middle east and African markets have low penetration of production facilities which creates potential for exports
- Shift from conventional oral care to beauty and pharmaceutical products, demanding high packaging protection and value addition
- Increase in demand for sophisticated and attractive designs and prints on tubes leading to rise in realisations

Challenges and risks in laminated tubes packaging

Acute competition: Competition is considerable for domestic medium and small-scale players in the flexible packaging space. Large and established players enjoy superior positioning owing to innovative products and better service offerings, in terms of design. Rising cost pressures because of several tube manufacturers in the space and standard low-cost offerings will ensure acute competition in the industry. Also, there is competition from unorganised manufacturers owing to the low entry barriers. However, manufacturers can reduce competitive intensity by focusing of research and development of innovative products and introducing better design features.

Furthermore, the ability to provide new products in line with customers' changing requirement will provide an edge over competitors. In fact, the industry is undergoing rapid changes, in terms of product innovation and offerings. But this lower lifecycle of product design has further increased competition, and, hence, the need is for constant innovation and improvement of the production facilities to manufacture new structure or laminates effectively. Traditional rigid packaging users are also shifting to flexible packaging mainly because flexible packages are aesthetically attractive, cost-effective and sturdy

- Volatility in raw material prices: Polymer and aluminium foils are the key raw materials. As raw material accounts of 60-65% of the product value, it plays a critical role in determining profitability. Given that polymer is a crude oil-derivate, it is subject to high volatility in prices. With current high crude prices, going forward crude oil prices will is expected to see downward correction. The risk of loss or decline in realisations from decline in prices is a key monitor able for the company.
- Backward integration by customers: Currently, laminated tubes are primarily directly delivered to end-use customers. But, any backward integration by customers and the development of in-house tube-making facilities will lower realisation for the laminated tube industry.
- Lack of access to advanced technology: Consumer goods companies are on a constant lookout for ways to cater to consumers' evolving needs and make use of attractive packaging to sale product in a highly competitive market. They tend to rely on flexible packaging companies to innovate and attract more customers. At times, the flexible packaging industry may find it difficult to keep pace with these fast-changing demands. Furthermore, flexible packaging companies have to make constant technology upgrades from product quality and printing capabilities to meet these demands, which would require huge capital investments.

Due to increasing focus on maximising output and capacity utilisation, there is minimal focus on research and development by small and mid-sized players. Most of the technical components in domestic machinery are imported from Japan, the US and Europe, which leads to a much higher capex to set up a plant.

- Increased demand for sustainable packaging: Clients, especially established brands look for sustainable solutions for packaging with minimum impact on environment. Players are innovating to include paper board based tubes, sugar care paper tubes, post-consumer recycled (PCR) tubes made with recycled plastic offering same barrier properties. Separation of laminates for recycling poses challenge and substantial efforts for recycling. Thus demand for sustainable packaging, drives players to constantly innovate and offer better packaging solution to clients without impact the feel, look and protection offered by the tubes.

- Large capital expenditure (capex): The packaging industry requires significant capital to enable investments in plant and machinery, technology and research to enable innovation of new products.
- Working capital cycle: Poor bargaining power increases their debtor and inventory cycles, which drives up working capital requirements, thus hampering companies' credit profile.
- Impact on tourism: Travel-tubes sales were impacted on account of slowdown in travel and tourism industry and macro-economic impact from covid pandemic.

RISK AND CONCERNS:

Challenges and risks in flexible packaging

- Environmental issues: As it is widely known and already highlighted in this report, plastic poses environmental concerns. The Indian packaging industry uses more than 50% of the plastic produced in the country. This has resulted in increased legislation and regulations to minimise the environmental impact of packaging materials. Companies, especially in the flexible and rigid plastic space, are being targeted by regulators, as these are seen to have maximum impact on the environment. For example, in February 2011, the Supreme Court of India banned the usage of flexible plastics for tobacco products. Government of India also notified the Plastic Waste Management Amendment Rules, 2021, prohibiting identified single use plastic items by 2022. Thickness of plastic carry bags increased from 50 to 75 microns from 30th September, 2021 and to 120 microns with effect from the 31st December, 2022.
- High input costs: Raw materials account for 70-80% of the total cost for a packaging player. The ability of players to pass on the rise in input prices is limited as the industry is highly fragmented. At the same time, a decline in input price has to be passed on to the customers. In many cases, raw materials are imported, which exposes packaging players to volatility in exchange rates.
- Large capital expenditure (capex): The packaging industry requires significant capital to enable investments in plant and machinery, technology and research to enable innovation of new products.
- Lack of technology: Due to increasing focus on maximising output and capacity utilisation, there is minimal focus on research and development by small and mid-sized players. Most of the technical components in domestic machinery are imported from Japan, the US and Europe, which leads to a much higher capex to set up a plant.
- Rapid technological changes: Consumer packaged goods (CPG) companies are on a constant lookout for ways to cater to consumers' evolving needs. They tend to rely on flexible packaging companies to innovate and attract more customers. At times, the flexible packaging industry may find it difficult to keep pace with these fast-changing demands. Furthermore, flexible packaging companies have to make constant technology upgrades to meet these demands, which would require huge capital investments.
- Working capital cycle : Poor bargaining power increases their debtor and inventory cycles, which drives up working capital requirements, thus hampering companies' credit profile.
- Regulatory constraints: Due to stringent government regulations, changing consumer preferences, and environmental pressures, manufacturers are steering their strategies toward circularity and leveraged new plastic technologies to develop recyclable and sustainable solutions that include specific properties such as oxygen, moisture, light, puncture, and chemical resistance, and easy-tear propagation. Key focus areas for manufacturers include the development of alternative bioplastics solutions such as polybutylene succinate and biopolypropylene, along with the price and disposal of bioplastics.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK:

Growth drivers in flexible packaging

- Growth in organised retail: India is emerging as the most favoured destination in the world for organised retail. Also, e-commerce has been expanding rapidly, leading to a revolution in the retail industry. Retailers are now leveraging digital retail channels, thereby enabling wider reach to customers with less amount of money spent on real estate. Therefore, organised retail and boom in e-commerce offer huge potential for growth of retailing in India, which, in turn, is pushing growth of the flexible packaging sector.
- Increase in packaged branded food products: Packaged branded food products have been increasing rapidly, for which flexible packaging is preferred. The ready-to-eat food product industry is expected to witness 20-22% growth going ahead.
- Increasing use of small packets: With a view to attract smaller consumers, FMCG companies market their products (largely food and personal care) in small packets. As a result, ready-to-eat foods, biscuits, shampoo, and other FMCG categories have witnessed increase in consumption in rural areas and smaller cities, which has further lifted demand for packaging materials.
- Shift in consumer preferences: Rising consumer demand for lightweight, convenient, durable, tamperproof, and aesthetic packaging has also been a big boost for flexible packaging. Further, improved barrier property parameters and superior functionality give flexible packaging an edge over other packaging materials.
- Innovation led by high competition and demanding consumers: The industry is increasingly becoming technologically advanced and creating new-age products to cater to different requirements of customers.

These innovated and value-added products help players differentiate themselves amid high competition in the industry. Players are offerings and innovating new designs, sustainable and recyclable packaging solutions to the market as per customer demand driving growth for the industry.

- Sustainability: Shifting demographics and consumer preferences are driving the demand for more sustainable solutions in flexible packaging. Huge sustainable benefits are responsible for shifting demand from rigid to flexible packaging. Focus is also on more cost-effective and technologically feasible recyclable packaging solutions.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Information other than Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the Other Information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report (including annexures thereto), but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively or ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matter

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements of Shree Rama Multi-Tech Limited (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2023 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing as specified under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting with reference to standalone financial statements.

Annual Report 2022-23

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to standalone financial statements

A company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purpose in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company, (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company, and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Standalone Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statement, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies of procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were operating effectively as on March 31, 2023, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal controls stated in the Guidance Note issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

On the basis of the financial ratios, ageing and expected dates of realization of financial assets and payment of financial liabilities, other information accompanying the financial statements and our knowledge of the Board of Directors and Management plans and based on our examination of the evidence supporting the assumptions, nothing has come to our attention, which causes us to believe that any material uncertainty exists as on the date of the audit report indicating that Company is not capable of meeting its liabilities existing at the date of balance sheet as and when they fall due within a period of one year from the balance sheet date. We, however, state that this is not an assurance as to the future viability of the Company. We further state that our reporting is based on the facts up to the date of the audit report and we neither give any guarantee nor any assurance that all liabilities falling due within a period of one year from the balance sheet date, will get discharged by the Company as and when they fall due.

- xx. The Company was not having net worth of rupees five hundred crore or more, or turnover of rupees one thousand crore or more or a net profit of rupees five crore or more during the immediately preceding financial year and hence, provisions of Section 135 of the Act are not applicable to the Company during the year. The Financial Statements were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution of the directors on May 29, 2023.

[B] Significant Accounting Policies:

a) Basis of preparation

(i) Compliance with Ind AS

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') as notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 read with Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 and presentation requirements of Division II of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 (as amended from time to time).

(ii) Historical cost convention

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following:

- 1) certain financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value;
- 2) defined benefit plans - plan assets measured at fair value;
- 3) assets held for sale – measured at lower of carrying amount of fair value less cost to sell

(iii) Current non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle (twelve months) and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Act.

(iv) Functional currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is Company's functional and presentation currency

(v) Rounding of amounts

All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest lakh as per the requirement of Schedule III, unless otherwise stated.

b) Key accounting estimates and judgments

The estimates and judgments used in the preparation of the financial statements are continuously evaluated by the company and are based on historical experience and various other assumptions and factors (including expectations of future events) that the company believes to be reasonable under the existing circumstances. Differences between actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/materialized.

The said estimates are based on the facts and events, that existed as at the reporting date, or that occurred after that date but provide additional evidence about conditions existing as at the reporting date.

c) Fair value measurement

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are measured at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

All financial instruments are initially recognized and subsequently re-measured at fair value as described below:

- 1) The fair value of investment in quoted equity shares and mutual funds is measured at quoted price or NAV respectively.
- 2) Financial instruments with fixed and variable interest rates are evaluated by the Company based on parameters such as interest rates and individual credit worthiness of the counterparty. Based on the evaluation, allowances are taken to account for the expected losses of these receivables.
- 3) The fair value of forward foreign exchange contracts and currency swaps is determined using forward exchange rates and yield curves at the balance sheet date.

The company uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair values of financial instruments by valuation technique:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs other than the quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Inputs are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

At each reporting date, the management analyses the movements in the values of assets and liabilities which are required to be re-measured or re-assessed as per the Company's accounting policies. For this analysis, the management verifies the major inputs applied in the latest valuation by agreeing the information in the valuation computation to contracts and other relevant documents.

The management, in conjunction with the Company's external valuers, wherever required, also compares the change in the fair value of each asset and liability with relevant external sources to determine whether the change is reasonable on yearly basis.

SHREE RAMA MULTI-TECH LIMITED

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy, as explained above.

d) Property, plant and equipment

Freehold land is carried at cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of recoverable taxes, less depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Such cost includes Purchase price, borrowing cost and other cost that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

All expenditure incurred towards fixed assets including expenditure incurred during construction / new projects are accumulated and shown as capital work in progress and not depreciated until such assets are ready for commercial use.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Depreciation is provided on a Straight Line Method over the estimated useful lives of assets.

The Company depreciates its property, plant and equipment over the useful life in the manner prescribed in Schedule II to the Act, and management believe that useful life of assets are same as those prescribed in Schedule II to the Act, except for certain plant and machinery which based on an independent technical evaluation, life has been estimated as 20 years (on multiple shift basis) and for cylinders life has been estimated as 5 years, which is different from that prescribed in Schedule II to the Act.

Useful life considered for calculation of depreciation for various assets class are as follows-

Class of Assets	Estimated useful life
Buildings	30/60 years
Plant & Equipment	5/15/20 years
Electric Installation	10 years
Furniture & Fixtures	10 years
Office Equipment	3/5/6 years
Vehicles	8/10 years

The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset. The assets residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

e) Intangible Assets

Computer software are stated at cost, less accumulated amortisation and impairments, if any.

Amortisation method and useful life

The Company amortizes computer software using the straight-line method over the period of 3 years. Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

f) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, cash at bank, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

g) Inventories

Items of inventories of Raw Material, Finished goods, Spares and Stores, Packing Material & Fuel are valued at lower of cost or net realizable value except waste which is valued at estimated net realizable value. Cost of inventories comprise of cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs including manufacturing overheads incurred in bringing them to their respective present location and condition. Cost is determined on weighted average method.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Obsolete, slow-moving and defective inventories are identified by management and wherever necessary, provision is created for such inventories.

h) Financial instruments

i. Recognition and initial measurement

All financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial asset or financial liability is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at the transaction price determined under Ind AS 115.

ii. Classification and subsequent measurement

Financial assets

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as measured at

- amortized cost;
- Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI) – equity investment; or
- Fair Value Through Profit and Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

A financial asset is measured at amortized cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Company may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in OCI. (designated as FVOCI – equity investment). This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortized cost or FVOCI as described above are measured at FVTPL. This includes all derivative financial assets. On initial recognition, the Company may irrevocably designate a financial asset that otherwise meets the requirements to be measured at amortized cost or at FVOCI or at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch that would otherwise arise.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortized cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading, or it is a derivative or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognized in profit or loss. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on de-recognition is also recognized in profit or loss

iii. De-recognition

Financial assets

The company de-recognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the company neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the company enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognized on its balance sheet, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognized.

Financial liabilities

The company de-recognizes a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged or cancelled, or expire. The company also de-recognizes a financial liability when its terms are modified and the cash flows under the modified terms are substantially different. In this case, a new financial liability based on the modified terms is recognized at fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished and the new financial liability with modified terms is recognized in profit or loss.

iv. Off-setting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

i) Segment Reporting:

The Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) examines the Company's performance from business and geographic perspective. In accordance with Ind AS-108 - Operating Segments, evaluation by the CODM and based on the nature of activities performed by the Company, which primarily relate to Packaging solution provider, the Company does not operate in more than one business segment.

j) Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognized at net of transaction costs incurred and measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Preference shares, which are mandatorily redeemable on a specific date are classified as liabilities.

k) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

l) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

Contingent Liabilities are disclosed in respect of possible obligations that arise from past events but their existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or where any present obligation cannot be measured in terms of future outflow of resources or where a reliable estimate of the obligation cannot be made. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

m) Revenue recognition

The Company recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the Company and specific criteria have been met for each of the Company's activities as described below.

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control of the products being sold is transferred to our customers and there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in our contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on customer terms.

Sales Return

The Company recognises provision for sales return, on the basis of mutual satisfaction which is measured at the Sales value excluding taxes & duties.

Other operating revenue:

Export Incentives under various schemes are accounted in the year in which right to receive is irrevocably established.

Other revenue:

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable rate of interest.

Interest received on delayed payment is accounted on receipt basis.

Revenue in respect of insurance/other claims etc, is recognized only when it is reasonably certain that the ultimate collection will be made.

Dividends

Dividends are generally recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss only when the right to receive payment is established.

n) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

(ii) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

The liabilities for earned leave and sick leave that are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months are measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method.

(iii) Post-employment obligations

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

- (a) defined benefit plans such as gratuity; and
- (b) defined contribution plans such as provident fund.

Gratuity obligations

The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet.

Defined Contribution Plans

Defined Contribution Plans such as Provident Fund, etc., are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Company before the normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Company recognises termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Company can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the Company recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of Ind AS 37 and involves the payment of terminations benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to present value.

o) Foreign currency translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are recognised at the prevailing exchange rates on the transaction dates. Realised gains and losses on settlement of foreign currency transactions are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities at the year-end are translated at the year-end exchange rates and the resultant exchange differences are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are stated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions.

p) Leases

As a Lessee

At inception of a contract, the Company assesses whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Company recognises a Right-of-Use (ROU) asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The ROU asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payment made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct cost incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentive received.

The ROU asset is subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the ROU asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful lives of ROU assets are determined on the same basis as those of Property, Plant and Equipment. In addition, the ROU asset is periodically reduced by impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for certain remeasurements of the lease liability.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the Company's incremental borrowing rate. Generally, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Company has elected not to recognise right-to-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term lease that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. The Company recognise the lease payments associated with these leases as an expenses on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

q) Taxes

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statement. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax assets is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses, only if, it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are off set where the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively

Minimum Alternate Tax credit is recognised as deferred tax asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. Such asset is reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and the carrying amount of the MAT credit asset is written down to the extent there is no longer a convincing evidence to the effect that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

r) Earnings Per Share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Company
- weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

s) Cash Flow Statement

The Cash Flow statement is prepared by the "Indirect method" set out in Ind AS-7 on "Cash Flow Statement" and presents the cash flows by operating, investing and financing activities of the Company.

t) Impairment of Assets:

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that a non-financial asset may be impaired based on internal/external factors. An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of asset exceeds its recoverable Value. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in earlier accounting period is reversed if there has been a change in the estimate of recoverable amount. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

u) Assets held for Sale:

Non-current assets held for sale are measured at the lower of its carrying value or fair value less costs to sell. Non-current assets held for sale are not depreciated or amortized. Assets and liabilities classified as held for sale are presented separately in the balance sheet.

v) Exceptional items

Exceptional items are disclosed separately in the financial statements where it is necessary to do so to provide further understanding of the financial performance of the company. These are material items of income or expense that have to be shown separately due to their nature or incidence.

w) Recent Pronouncement

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs has vide notification dated March 31, 2023 notified Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023 (the 'Rules') which amends certain accounting standards, and are effective April 1, 2023. The Rules predominantly amends Ind AS 1 – "Presentation of financial statements" and Ind AS 12 – "Income taxes", whereas the other amendments notified by these rules are primarily in the nature of clarifications. As per the Management's assessment, these amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the Company in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

43. Financial Instruments - Fair Values & Risk Management

Accounting Classifications & Fair Value Measurements

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are measured at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

The fair value of investment in quoted equity shares and mutual funds is measured at quoted price or NAV.

Fair values of cash and short term deposits, trade and other short term receivables, trade payables, other current liabilities, short term loans from banks and other financial institutions approximate their carrying amounts largely due to short-term maturities of these instruments.

SHREE RAMA MULTI-TECH LIMITED

Financial instruments with fixed and variable interest rates are evaluated by the Company based on parameters such as interest rates and individual credit worthiness of the counterparty. Based on the evaluation, allowances are taken to account for the expected losses of these receivables.

The company uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair values of financial instruments by valuation technique:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs other than the quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 : Input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.
