SC stays Centre's notification establishing 'Fact Checking Unit'

THE WAIT. 'Rollout has to wait till judge of Bombay HC takes a call on validity of intermediary guideline clauses'

Krishnadas Rajagopal

The Supreme Court on Thursday stayed a government notification of March 20 establishing the Press Information Bureau's Fact Checking Unit (PIB FCU) to act as a "deterrent" against the creation and dissemination of fake news or misinformation regarding the "business" of the Centre.

The order was passed by a three-judge Bench headed by Chief Justice of India DY Chandrachud on petitions filed by the Editors Guild of India and stand-up comedian Kunal Kamra.

The Bench said the implementation of the March 20, 2024 notification would remain stayed until a third judge of the

NOTIFICATION

The case had gone to the third judge of the High Court following a split verdict by a Division

The notification was issued by the Centre after the third judge found no reason to stay Rule 3 on March 11.

The apex court did not comment on the merits or legality of Rule 3(1)(b)(v), saying the impact of the provision on the fundamental rights to free speech and expression would be analysed by the High Court.

Appearing for Kamra, senior advocate Darius Khambata said the establishment of the FCU would result in "every social media intermediary pulling down content for consequences".

"This will set a deep chilling effect on free speech," he Khambata said the Centre setting up a FCU to protect the 'business" of the Centre was like "Ceasar judging Caesar".

asked. He said individuals need more protection from fake content than the state.

Khambata informed the Bench that the Centre had assured the High Court on April 27 last year that it would not implement Rule 3 till a final decision was taken by the court. He pointed to the timing of the issuance of the March 20 notification barely days before the Lok Sabha polls were due to start.

Advocate Shadan Farasat, for the Editors Guild, said the implementation of the FCU run by the government would ensure that only the Centre would have monopoly over the truth.

"There will be a singularity of truth,"he said.

in the past when fake news had proliferated on social media, causing harm and even violence.

He said the statutory mechanism was found inadequate to combat the viral dissemination of false content.

Kamra, in his petition, argued that the sweep of the Rule operated to "muzzle speech against the Central government".

"By threatening intermediaries with the loss of their statutory safe harbour should they fail to take down content that the Central government's FCU identifies as fake, false or misleading, the Rule coerces intermediaries to execute a regime of self-interested censorship of online content relating to the business of the Central government," the petition argued.

Kejriwal arrested in Delhi excise policy case

Our Bureau New Delhi

Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal was on Thursday arrested from his residence by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) after the Supreme Court refused to grant him relief against the agency's coercive action against him in the Delhi excise policy money laundering case.

A team of ED landed at the CM residence in the evening when Kejriwal lost first legal battle of seeking protection from the Delhi High Court against the ED's move. The ED had issued nine summons to him seeking his presence in the Delhi excise case. Kejriwal skipped each of the summons on the grounds that they were illegal and meant to arrest him to stop the AAP leader from electioneering in the Lok Sabha polls.

Against that, the AAP leader moved Supreme Court late in the evening seeking an urgent hearing against the Delhi High Court's double bench refusing to give him relief in liquorgate. "We have heard both sides and we are not inclined at this stage (to grant protection). The respondent is at liberty to file reply," a High Court bench of Justices Suresh Kumar Kait and Manoj Jain said while posting Kejriwal's application challenging summons issued by the ED for hearing on Fri-

Appearing for the ED, Additional Solicitor General S V Raju, however, said "It is already over. The time is over. He is not attending". Kejriwal had moved petition, stating that he was willing to join the probe but the court should direct the ED not to arrest him since summons were illegal.

The apex court too did not intervene against the Delhi High court order.
