Press Release

Monarch Network Capital Limited announces Successful Closure of Third Alternative Investment Fund, MNCL Capital Compounder Fund 2, raising Rs 729 crore.

Monarch Network Capital Limited is pleased to announce the triumphant closure of its third Alternative Investment Fund, MNCL Capital Compounder Fund 2, raising Rs 729 crore from esteemed clients, including high-net-worth individuals, family offices, and corporations. This milestone showcases our ability to attract a diverse and sophisticated clientele and our dedication to providing unique and rigorous investment strategies.

Key Highlights of MNCL Capital Compounder Fund 2:

- Strong Investor Loyalty: An impressive 85% of the fund's participants were repeat investors from our earlier funds, showcasing their faith in our proven investment approaches.
- Direct Client Relationships: Notably, 95% of the capital raised stemmed from direct client connections, underscoring the depth and strength of our relationships.

Our collective Assets Under Management (AUM) stands at Rs1,000 crore plus, with plans to expand this to Rs 1,500 crore within the current fiscal year. As part of our growth strategy, we will launch a Portfolio Management Service (PMS) within this period.

"We are elated to announce the successful closure of MNCL Capital Compounder Fund 2, a clear testament to our steadfast commitment to delivering superior value to our investors. The robust participation of our clients reflects the solid relationships we've cultivated over the years. Our focus remains on achieving our AUM targets while introducing innovative products such as our forthcoming PMS to better serve our clients." - Gaurav Bhandari, CEO of Monarch Network Capital Limited.
