Apart from these, an amount of Rs.3,75,000/- is also proposed to be paid upfront to other operational creditors under the plan. It is stated in Form H that the average liquidation value is ₹110 crores.

On behalf of the dissenting financial creditors, it was submitted that the plan is not complying the requirements of Section 30(2)(b) read with Regulation 38(1)(b), as amended. However, on the other hand, the Resolution Professional and the Resolution Applicant submitted that the plan read with the addendums was approved by the COC on 18.05.2019 and since Section 30(2)(b) was amended on 16.08.2019 and that the corresponding Regulation 38(1)(b) was amended w.e.f. 28.11.2019, the said amendments have no application and hence, the plan shall be treated to be in consonance and in accordance with the requirements of the IBC. They further submitted that, however vide the addendum dated 09.10.2019, (Diary No. 5594 dated 15.10.2019) and the reply of the Resolution Applicant vide Diary No. 232/4 dated 17.09.2020, in terms of the orders/observations of this Adjudicating Authority dated 19.08.2019, the Resolution Applicant provided payment to the dissenting financial creditors, in the following manner:-

Particulars	As per earlier plan			As per revised plan			Remarks Calculations
	Upfront	Deferred	Total	Upfront	Deferred	Total
Dissenting Creditors	12.65	88.35	101	3.58	27.58	31.17	28.33% of ₹110 Cr. (₹31,16,70,700)

Other Creditors				9.07	63.32	72.38	71.6663% of ₹101 Cr. (₹72,38,29,630)
Total amount	12.65	88.35	101	12.65	90.90	103.55

It is further submitted that the contention with regard to priority in payment to the dissenting financial creditors over other financial creditors is not tenable since the amendments are subsequent to the approval of the plan.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Rahul Jain vs. Rave Scans Pvt. Ltd. & others – CA No. 7940 of 2019 dated 08.11.2019, while dealing with Regulation 38(1)(c) and in the identical circumstances observed as under:-

“Given that the resolution process began well before the amended regulation came into force and the resolution plan was prepared and approved before that event, the wide observations of the NCLAT, requiring the appellant to match the pay out (offered to other financial creditors) to Hero was not justified.”

In this view of the matter the contention made on behalf of the dissenting financial creditors is rejected.

Section 30(2)(c)(d) & (e): In Part II, Clause 4 of the resolution plan (Pg. 67 of Dy. period when the Bailor Bailee Agreement was in subsistence (prior to the initiation of the CIRP of the corporate debtor and immediately thereafter) have been borne out of the interim finance provided by the lenders of the corporate debtor as CIRP costs during the CIRP of the corporate debtor. Therefore, the dues amounting to ₹2.3 crores payable by Orbit Lifesciences Private Limited should be utilised towards CIRP costs. It is further submitted that in case the above stated amount of ₹2.3 crore is not utilised towards CIRP costs, the same may be considered to be distributed in the manner and in the order of priority as provided under Section 53 of the Code, which deals with distribution of proceeds from the sale of assets in the event of liquidation of the corporate debtor.

Also, it was stated that the non-grant of Conditions Precedent and Relief and Concessions sought under the scheme shall not affect the implementation of the resolution plan by the resolution applicant. Copy of the affidavit of the resolution applicant is attached as Annexure -1 (Dy. No. 1590) and copy of board resolution dated 13.02.2020 is attached as Annexure -1 (Dy. No. 1591)
