Pu R.Lalramnghaka takes oath as new Chairman of MPSC

AIZAWL, MAY 20/--/Pu R.Lalramnghaka, a retired IAS officer, was sworn in as the new Chairman of Mizoram Public Service Commission (MPSC) at a swearing-in ceremony held at Durbar Hall, Raj Bhavan, Aizawl this forenoon.

The proceeding for oath-taking commenced with Dr Renu Sharma, Chief Secretary who read the warrant of appointment by the Governor. At the ceremony, Governor Hari Babu Kambhampati administered the Oath of Office, Allegiance and Secrecy to Pu R.Lalramnghaka. Chief Minister Pu Laldhuma led the attendance of the high dignitaries. Speaker Pu Lalbiakzama, Pu K.Sapdanga, Home Minister and other dignitaries including Pu Zoramhanga, Former Chief Minister, were among those in attendance at the swearing-in programme.

Pu R.Lalramnghaka holds the degree of B.Sc (Agri). He joined the Mizoram Civil Service in 1991. He was then promoted to Indian Administrative Service (IAS) of AGMUT Cadre in 2009. Pu R. Lalramnghaka has a diverse and progressive career path within the Mizoram government. He held important posts under the Government in various capacities - Director, SIRD, D.C. Kolasib, Jt.Secy, LR&S/LAD, Director, LR&S, Director, FCS&CA & Addl. Secretary, LR&S, Secretary, LR&S/LAD, DC, Aizawl, Secretary, Health & Family Welfare Department, Commerce & Industries Department, and

Department of Personnel & Administrative Reforms. The variety and progressive nature of his postings suggest a well-rounded and capable officer who has been entrusted with key responsibilities by the Mizoram government. Before he was appointed Chairman of MPSC, he held the post of Secretary, General Administration Department & Public Works Department. (DIPR)

Lok Sabha, 2025 assembly polls will unveil Bihar's political landscape: Book

NEW DELHI, MAY 20/--/ Bihar has been the only state in the Hindi heartland where the BJP hasn't ever been able to secure a majority on its own but the 2024 Lok Sabha and the assembly elections next year will unveil the political landscape of the state, says a new book. In "Broken Promises: Caste, Crime and Politics in Bihar", Mrityunjay Sharma tells the story of Bihar's plunge into an abyss of crime, corruption and economic ruin during the tumultuous decade of the 1990s, often referred to as the 'jungle raj' years. Sharma traces the post-

Independence socio-politics of Bihar and the momentous events leading up to the '90s - the unravelling of long-standing Congress governments, the rise of OBC assertion with Lohiaite politics, the JP movement that put the spotlight on young leaders like Lalu Yadav and Nitish Kumar, Karpooi Thakur's reservation formula, the rise of Naxal movements and the entry of socialist governments.

The author says Bihar is the only state in the Hindi heartland where the BJP hasn't ever been able to secure a majority on its own.

"While in Uttar Pradesh, which at many levels seems similar to Bihar, the BJP has been able to secure decisive mandates in successive elections. The Hindu consolidation that seems to work well in Uttar Pradesh seems to bow down to caste considerations in Bihar," he says. He argues that the current uncertainty surrounding Nitish's future leaves Bihar at a crucial political crossroads. "The 2024 general elections and 2025 state elections will unveil the political landscape of Bihar, a region that has never succumbed to political complacency," Sharma says. According to him, Nitish has long been twisting and turning to find a comfortable footing in Bihar and national politics and his political challenges seemed no less than his administrative challenges. He says Nitish strongly believed in the political dictum that you have to be in power first to be able to do anything good. "It may be the inclination to this principle that led him to concentrate power in himself and thus avoid any dangers to his party and government," the author claims. In a state where every regional party associated itself with a particular caste, such as the RJD with Yadavs, the LJP with Paswans, and the JMM with adhivasis, Nitish took all possible measures not to be perceived as a Kurmi-centric party, the book, published by Westland, says. Even later, the new party entrants in Bihar politics such as the RLSP (Rashtriya Lok Samta Party), the VIP (Vikassheel Insaan Party) and the HAM (Hindustani Awam Morcha) would identify themselves with the specific castes of Kushwaha, Mallah and Musahar respectively, it says. Sharma also writes that Nitish slowly reined in the influence of strong personalities within the party, thus reducing the scope for multiple power centres. "Unlike its predecessors, the JD(U) never suffered a split and was hardly affected when even significant names such as its Samata Party-founding partner George Fernandes or JD(U)-founding leader Sharad Yadav were shunted out.

"Nitish became both the president of the party as well as the leader of house legislators. Ironically in this case, he followed all other regional parties in making the JD(U) an individual-centric party. He also made sure that the individual was him," he adds. The author says that coalitions have rarely had such longevity as has been seen in Bihar. "Coalitions are delicately balanced partnerships and depend on a number of factors, such as the relative strengths of parties, overlap and contrast in messaging and vote banks, the electoral advantages of going alone versus as a coalition, and personal equations between senior leaders of the coalition," he writes. (PTI)

15 postal ballots of service voters arrive at Pakyong

PAKYONG, MAY 20/--/ Fifteen additional Postal Ballot of Service Voters were received from the Post Office in Pakyong today.

All the postal ballots were handed over to Mahendra Chettri, SDM (HQ), by an official from the Pakyong Post Office in the presence of election agents representing various political parties.

The ballots were then sorted according to their respective Assembly Constituencies (AC) and dates of receipt, in adherence to the regulations of the Election Commission of India (ECI). All the sorted ballots were stored and sealed in the strong room set up at DAC Pakyong. The entire process was videographed as per norms.

It may be mentioned that a total of 324 service Postal Ballots have been received so far in respect of the five Assembly Constituencies under the district. (IPR)

Audio books can stimulate a child's interest in reading: Ruskin Bond

NEW DELHI, MAY 19/--/ Audio books can inculcate story listening habits in children and gradually attract them to reading books, says legendary author Ruskin Bond who turned 90 Sunday. To commemorate the day, audiobook platform Audible has brought out a keepsake edition with 25 of his popular stories. Titled "All Time Favourites for Children", the stories have been curated and selected by the author himself. The narration is by Anuj Datta. Bond said audiobooks can be like oral storytelling and stimulate a child's interest in reading.

"Sometimes a child is reluctant to make the effort to start reading a book. If it's the being read to them, either the book is on audio or somebody is reading from one, it helps to create interest. Once that interest develops, the young reader very often will go on to reading books on his or her own," Bond told PTI. "I would call it a stimulus, a catalyst for the whole art of reading," he added.

Talking about his childhood, Bond said he began to read at a pretty young age. "My father used to tell me stories mostly about history. I was an early reader but some kids are not. They come a bit late to books. So, audiobooks fit in very well there in their early years," he said. The stories in the new audiobook include "Goldfish Don't Bark", "Boy Scouts Forever", "The Black Cat", "Grandfather Fights an Ostrich", "A Bicycle Ride with Uncle Ken", "The Woman on Platform 8" and "The Parrot Who Wouldn't Talk". Bond had previously narrated many of his stories. (PTI)
