Mettle v/s Mantle of a Legacy & Leadership

Legacy often encompasses in itself, heritage and bequest of a legend, and all the glory and hence the dichotomy is not the legacy itself, but the way to carry it forward. Sangeetha Sundaramoorthy, Managing Director, Lotus Eye Hospital and Managing Trustee, Lotus Vision Research Trust is the emerging “young entrepreneur” from Coimbatore who has just taken the reign as the new lead.

“Lotus” has been a common household name across South, synonymous with its founder Dr. S.K. Sundaramoorthy and his leadership. Therefore, the sudden passing of the founder last year, created a mammoth vacuum that needed attention and healing. Though the passing away of the founder was tough but Sangeetha Sundaramoorthy was determined to step up to the pedestal, as life was beckoning and time was now.

Sangeetha has always been enthralled with the business and its activities at core from the very beginning, but to lead from the front was a challenge, she was willing to accept. At present the mantle of the trust and the hospital is under her capable leadership and vision. With more modernistic, distinct approach, Sangeetha Sundaramoorthy is prying the brand away from the cacophony of “the usual” to more holistic and rewarding.

Sangeetha embodies the bold and brave, as one need to be in the field monopolized by men and patriarchy. Her forethought is passionate and resonates with the demand of the modern consumer and stakeholder. The next few years will be a testament of her mettle and metal in this field of business and entrepreneurship. Meanwhile on a relaxing day chances are you will find her unwinding with a great classic and the occasional succumbing to her sweet tooth.
