POWER TRANSMISSION INFRASTRUCTURE developer and solutions provider Sterlite Power Transmission on Friday said it has decided to demerge electricity transmission infrastructure business spread across India and Brazil.

The demerged Sterlite Power Transmission Ltd (SPTL) entity will continue to hold the global products and specialised EPC (engineering, procurement and construction) services business as well as the convergence - fiberco business, a company statement said.

SPTL announced the strategic decision to demerge its power transmission infrastructure business (build, operate and transfer model) spread across India and Brazil.

This move comes as part of the company's intent to create 'pure play' business verticals based on end-customer base, investor class and returns.

Pratik Agrawal, Managing Director, SPTL, said in the statement, "The demerger will enable both entities to create independent capital structures, unlock value and attract investors suitable for the disentity. We are confident that the US, it stated.

STRATEGIC MOVE

- SPTL announced the strategic decision to demerge its power transmission infrastructure business spread across India and Brazil
- Both SPTL and SGL5 will have independent boards and focused executive management teams this will bring substantial value for our shareholders and help us in creating two world class business entities." Globally, it stated, the power transmission network is expected to double in the next eight years to meet aggressive renewable energy additions. The demand for power prod ucts is expected to remain strong over the medium term amid aggressive global capex earmarked for renewables capacity addition, T&D (transmission and distribution) expansion, benefits from 'China+1' theme and tinct growth profiles for each favourable tariff structures in

'70-hour work week violates labour laws'

A 70-HOUR WORK week could raise compliance issues as it violates labour laws, a senior official of staffing company TeamLease said on Friday. "If somebody is spending 70 hours (in office), they are going beyond 9 hours. There is a fundamental disconnect, when you are an employee, labour law allows you to work nince hours," vice president and business head for Team-Lease Degree Apprenticeship Dhriti Prasanna Mahanta said.

Former Infosys CEO N R Narayana Murthy had recently advocated for a 70-hour work week, drawing reactions from across the spectrum. The cost of employment, if a 70-hour work week is made possible, will also increase, and in a lot of places you are not allowed to pay overtime, he said. He said this works for entrepreneurs and self-motivated persons but can't be accepted due to labour law compliance norms in place.
