TMC, AAP reject seat-sharing in Bengal, Punjab for LS polls

ARCHIS MOHAN
New Delhi, 24 January

On Wednesday, two vital constituents of the Indian National Developmental Inclusive Alliance (INDIA) bloc, the Trinamool Congress (TMC) and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), ruled out any seat-sharing with the Congress for the 2024 Lok Sabha (LS) polls in the two states they rule, West Bengal and Punjab, respectively.

The development had the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) pointing to the fragility of the 28-party Opposition alliance and evidence of the Congress' unwillingness to respect its regional allies.

The Congress termed TMC's exit from the discussions on seat-sharing a "speed breaker" in a long journey, asserting that talks in other states were on course and underlined that the TMC shared its commitment to fight the BJP.

However, there were concerns about the viability of the alliance with regional parties becoming more assertive, even suggesting to the Congress, as the TMC did, that it should contest at most 300 of the 543 seats, leaving aside the rest for the regional parties. It said the regional parties could contest seats they thought were winnable if the Congress didn't discuss their demands.

The constituents of the INDIA bloc were expected to contest against each other in Kerala, but two more states, Bengal and Punjab, have now been added to the list.

Seat-sharing talks have progressed smoothly in Bihar. Discussions are at a critical juncture between the constituents of the Maha Vikas Aghadi in Maharashtra and the Congress and Samajwadi Party in Uttar Pradesh.

In Kolkata on Wednesday, West Bengal Chief Minister (CM) Mamata Banerjee, who heads the state's ruling TMC, rejected any seat adjustment with the Congress on the 42 LS seats in her state. A little later, in Chandigarh, Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann said the AAP would contest all 13 seats in the state, ruling out any seat-sharing adjustment with the Congress in the state. Punjab's Congress unit had also opposed any truck with the AAP in the state.

WEST BENGAL CM MAMATA BANERJEE ANNOUNCED HER PARTY'S DECISION ON THE EVE OF CONGRESS LEADER RAHUL GANDHI'S BHARAT JODO NYAY YATRA ENTRY INTO BENGAL

PUNJAB CM BHAGWANT MANN SAID AAP WOULD CONTEST ALL 13 SEATS. THIS COMES AMID SEAT-SHARING TALKS BETWEEN AAP AND CONGRESS IN SEVERAL STATES

'INDIA bloc was never meant to work'

With INDIA bloc constituents TMC and AAP announcing they would not align with ally Congress in West Bengal and Punjab, respectively, for the upcoming Lok Sabha polls, the AIADMK in Tamil Nadu on Wednesday said the multi-party alliance was never meant to work due to the members' different ideologies. PTI

Mamata announced her party's decision on the eve of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra entry into Bengal, and a day after, the Congress leader insisted that he had cordial relations with the feisty Bengal leader. The Bengal CM also claimed that the Congress lacked the courtesy of sharing its plans for the yatra in Bengal, while the Congress insisted that the party extended an invite to her on January 13.

According to sources, the final straw for Mamata was the Congress' Bengal leadership inviting the Communist Party of India (Marxist), or CPI(M), to join the yatra in Bengal.

Congress' Bengal leaders such as Deepa

Dasmuni accused Mamata of trying to help the BJP. The TMC was unwilling to give more than two seats to the Congress, the party's sitting seats against its demand of eight to 14 seats, which the TMC suspected it would hand over to the CPI(M). In 2019, the TMC won 22, BJP 18, and Congress two in Bengal.

As for the AAP, sources said the two parties will likely agree on a seat adjustment formula for Delhi's seven seats. The Congress is unwilling to accede to AAP's desire to contest seats as part of its alliance with the Congress in Haryana and Gujarat. However, the AAP has already announced its candidate for the Bharuch seat in Gujarat. Sources said an AAP-Congress alliance, that is, between the no. 1 and 2 parties, respectively, to fight the no. 3 and 4 parties, the Akalis and BJP, was illogical.

Modi-Macron discussion to focus on bolstering defence and nuclear ties

SUBHAYAN CHAKRABORTY
New Delhi, 24 January

Ramping up collaboration in the areas of defence, climate change, trade and mobility of students will be the focus of in-depth talks between Prime Minister Narendra Modi and French President Emmanuel Macron in Jaipur on Thursday, according to the French embassy here.

President Macron starts his two-day trip to India from Jaipur on Thursday and will be the chief guest at the Republic Day celebrations on January 26.

Set to be held on Thursday evening in Jaipur, the discussions between Modi and Macron will consolidate the ambitious renewal of the France-India strategic partnership that both countries had announced through the 'Horizon 2047 Roadmap' in July during Modi's visit to Paris, the embassy said on Wednesday.

The French president will be accompanied by a ministerial delegation comprising Foreign Minister Stephane Sejourne, Defence Minister Sebastien Lecornu and Minister for Culture Rachida Dati. A business delegation comprising French majors, and small and medium enterprises will also be part of the delegation. Several eminent French personalities, including European Space Agency astronaut Thomas Pesquet are also expected, the embassy said.

Signed to mark the 25th anniversary of the India-France strategic partnership, the roadmap outlines a closer bilateral partnership for the next 25 years. The embassy said both leaders will review the partnership and finalise new initiatives under the three pillars of the roadmap.

The three pillars broadly focus on defence, climate change and development issues, and people-to-people ties. France is particularly keen to discuss greater mobility of Indian students, and seeks to welcome 30,000 Indian students by 2030. France is also offering a five-year Schengen visa to Indian students who have a master's degree or above, and have spent at least one semester studying in France. The country processed close to 4,000 Indian student visas in the first semester of 2023.

Defence industrial road map

Officials recently told Business Standard the visit could finally see a formal defence industrial roadmap being adopted by the two countries.

A long-term buyer of defence equipment from Russia, New Delhi has turned towards other players such as France and Israel to modernise its arsenal in recent years. India ordered a batch of 36 Rafale multi-role fighter jets from France in 2016, which were delivered between July 2020 and April 2022.

Manufactured by Dassault Aviation, the jets have garnered support from the Indian Air Force, despite the controversy over their selection and purchase. In July, the government gave initial approval for an order of 26 additional Rafale jets for the Indian Navy and six Scorpene submarines.

Nuclear cooperation

The talks are also set to touch upon the two nation's increasingly strong civil nuclear partnerships. On Wednesday, Electricite de France SA (EDF) and the Department of Atomic Energy are likely to complete a preliminary agreement to collaborate on the largely unproven technology. EDF's Chief Executive Officer Luc Remont is part of the delegation traveling with Macron, the embassy said.

In July, both countries agreed to speed up talks on the Jaitapur nuclear plant project. With an installed capacity of 9.6 GigaWatt electrical, the proposed plant in Maharashtra's Ratnagiri district would be the most powerful nuclear power plant globally. It would meet the annual consumption needs of 70 million households, and restrict an estimated 80 million tonnes of CO2 emissions annually.
