BILKIS BANO CASE

Niece's wedding, second convict moves HC for parole

SOHINI GHOSH

AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 16

AFTER THE Gujarat High Court granted parole to a convict in the Bilkis Bano gangrape case on February 5 following the death of his father-in-law, a second convict in the case, Ramesh Chandana, on Friday moved the court seeking parole to attend his niece's wedding.

The plea comes less than a month since Chandana and 10 other convicts in the case surrendered at the Godhra sub-iail on January 21 following the order of the Supreme Court. On February 5, the HC had allowed convict Pradip Modhiya parole from February 7 to 11.

Chandana's lawyer Khushbu Vyas submitted before the court of Justice Divyesh Joshi that wedding festivities will begin from March 5. The court went on to instruct the registry "to verify and list this matter before the appropriate court".

According to the Gujarat government's affidavit before the Supreme Court in October 2022, Chandana was out of jail for 1,576 days (1,198 days of parole and 378 days of furlough) - the maximum among the 11 convicts in the case - during the period of his incarceration since

Details of his leaves show that between January and June 2015, a 14-day furlough had turned to 136 days of leave owing to Chandana surrendering late by 122 days.

Chandana and 10 other life term convicts in the Bilkis Bano case had surrendered shortly before midnight on January 21, after the SC on January 8 annulled the remission and premature release granted to them by the Gujarat government on August

The Gujarat government had released the convicts as per its 1992 remission policy, based on a May 2022 SC order in a petition filed by one of the convicts, Radheshyam Shah. Bano had challenged the state government's decision before the SC.

Bano was 21 years old and five months pregnant when she was gangraped while fleeing with her family from Randhikpur during the 2002 Gujarat riots. Fourteen 14 members of her family, including her three-year-old daughter, were

3 workers die of asphyxiation while trying to 'reopen' coal mine, 2 held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 16

THREE PEOPLE, including the 'owner and custodian of a plot' where a coal mine is located, have been booked for culpable homicide not amounting to murder after three labourers died of asphyxiation while digging a well to reopen the mine in Devpara village of Muli taluka in Surendranagar district Thursday.

Three other labourers who fell unconscious were rushed to a hospital and are stable now, Dharmendrasinh Chudasma, police inspector at Muli Police Station where an FIR has been lodged, told The Indian Express.

Two accused — identified as Satvir Karpada and Ranjit Dangar - were arrested Thursday and produced before the magisterial court Friday evening. The court's rejected the police's request for a three-day remand and the duo were sent to judicial custody. The third accused — the owner of the land — is vet to be identified. The arrested duo are residents of Ramparda village in Surendranagar. The deceased have been identified as Sarfubhai Harjibhai, Ramdev Rawat and Chandusinh

According to the FIR based on complaint by Harjibhai's brother-in-law Kadarbhai Behrambhai Merat – a migrant labourer from Rajasthan, the six workers were promised food and a daily wage of Rs 500 for digging the coal mine in the vicinity of Devpara village. They started drilling on February 14 using a spinning machine to clear out the well.

Merat told the police that when he left for lunch around 2 pm Thursday, Chandusinh, Ramdev and another worker Jivansinh were inside the well. However, when he returned around 3 pm and called out to them, there was no answer. "Then Sarfubhai climbed inside. Still there was no response until the rope began to shake. The bucket appeared heavy, and we pulled out a partially conscious Jivansinh who said that some "poisonous gas" had leaked inside the mine," Merat stated.

He then went down the well to pull out his brother-in-law and the two other men who were unconscious. However, he also became unconscious and couldn't bring them up. Soon, another worker named Jeevan Singh tied a mask around his face and rescued the three labourers from the well.

Karpada and Dangar took all the labourers to the nearest government hospital where the doctors declared the three labourers dead and sent their bodies for post-mortem.

The labourers alleged that the deaths were caused because they were working without any "helmet or safety equipment". The accused have been charged under sections 304 (culpable homicide) and 114 (abettor present when the offence is committed) of the IPC.

CM: Govt scheme benefits shouldn't just reach villages of ministers and leaders

GOPAL KATESHIYA

VINCHHIYA (RAJKOT), FFBRUARY 16

CHIEF MINISTER Bhupendra Patel on Friday said that it is his government's resolve to extend benefits of government schemes to villages or towns of ministers and party leaders but also to villages where the common people live.

Addressing a public meeting after laying the foundation stone of the Asalpur-Adhiya feeder line of the Saurashtra Narmada Avataran Irrigation (SAUNI) Yojana at Vinchhiya village in Rajkot, Patel said it is obvious that expectations of residents of villages and towns from where ministers and leaders of political parties hail remain high.

He referred to Water Resources and Water Supply Minister Kunvarji Bavaliya's statement at the event, in which, while enlisting the development projects undertaken at Jasdan and Vinchhiya talukas in Rajkot, he also mentioned that Narmada water will reach BJP state vice-president Bharat Boghra's village Kamlapur.

"Kunvarjibhai enlisted for you the numerous projects taken up here. This area is his constituency. Because he is a minister, we all tend to think that we will get some additional benefits. He even announced from here (dais) that Dr Bharatbhai's village will benefit from the schemes. But it is our resolve that they (benefits) should reach not only villages of leaders who are seated on the stage but also to the villages of you all, you common men," Patel said.

He added, "Do draw our attention to your needs and we shall act on them for sure."

A section of the 73-km-long proposed Asalpur-Adhiya feeder-line of SAUNI Yojana will pass through Kamlapur in Jasdan taluka, before tailing into Adhiya dam on the border of Jasdan and Rajkot talukas.

The Rs 181-crore pipeline will also pass through the Janada village in Vinchhiya. Bavaliya hails from Janada village. Under Jasdan Assembly constituency, he represents Vinchhiya and Jasdan talukas and parts of Chotila taluka in Surendranagar.

The SAUNI Yojana will divert one million acre feet of floodwater of Narmada to the water-starved Saurashtra through the Narmada dam project's canals and then pump it to 115 major dams of Saurashtra through an extensive network of giant pipelines.

Known as Panchal Pradesh, Vinchhiya, Jasdan and Chotila talukas are among the most backward in Saurashtra and due to its hilly terrain, irrigation facilities are very limited. However, the feeder line, which will be commissioned within two years, will fill four minor irrigation schemes and 12 ponds – including the ones in Bavaliya's and Boghra's villages – with Narmada water and augment irrigation facilities for 5,676 acre of agricultural land in the three talukas.

"The project will also augment drinking water availability to more than 45,000 people living in 23 villages in these three talukas," Patel said.

In his address, Bavaliya said, "The CM has also kindly consented to fill with Narmada water all those check dams and ponds that are up to 3 km away from any pipeline of SAUNI."

At the same function, Patellaid the foundation stone of augmenting Vinchhiya and Bhadla group water supply schemes, worth Rs 139 crore. He further dedicated to the public a new building of industrial training institute in Vinchhiya, a bus stand of Gujarat State Road Transport Corporation in Atkot village near Jasdan and a river bridge at Bhadli village on Jasdan-Gadhada highway.

Moreover, the CM handed over titles of 133 plots of land to members of denotified tribes in five villages of Vinchhiya to help them construct houses. He also distributed aid worth Rs 28.94 lakh among 214 divyangs.

1.6 L Divyang entrepreneurs received Rs 1,101 crore in loans since 2014: Union Minister

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 16

AT LEAST 1.6 lakh Divyang beneficiaries have been provided Rs 1,101 crore in loans since 2014 to empower and make them self-reliant, Union Minister Virendra Kumar said Friday.

The loan amount has nearly tripled since Prime Minister Narendra Modi took the reins at the Centre in 2014, as the previous governments had disbursed Rs 462 crore to 90,000 persons with disabilities (PwDs), the minister for social justice and empowerment said.

The Modi government is committed to making Divyangs self-reliant and empowered to enable them to support their families and contribute to the nation's aim to become developed by 2047, he said.

"Since 2014, 1.60 lakh Divyang beneficiaries received around Rs 1,101 crore in loans, which is nearly three times the Rs 462 crore that was disbursed to 90,000 beneficiaries before 2014," Kumar said at the launch of the 10-day Divya Kala Mela organised by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment.

Around 100 Divyang entrepreneurs and artisans from 20 states are participating in the 15th edition of Divyang Kala Mela, inaugurated by Gujarat Governor Acharya Devvrat in Ahmedabad.

"The government has provided various facilities and opportunities for skill development for Divyangs. Divya Kala Mela was launched to provide a platform for their products and connect them to traders," Kumar said.
