 $\begin{array}{c} A \\ and \\ Asianet \\ News \\ channel \\ to \end{array}$ derail the electoral fortunes of BJP's Rajeev Chandrasekhar who is contesting as a candidate from the Thiruvananthapuram Lok Sabha constituency fell flat on Tuesday as Kerala High Court dismissed a public interest litigation petition filed by the Congress challenging the returning officer' decision to accept the nomination papers of the BJP candidate.

The petitioner had contended that Rajeev Chandrasekhar, a union minister of state, had filed false affidavits along with his nomination paper and these were accepted by the Returning Officer. Their grievance was that the union minister, one of the billionaires in the country, had suppressed details of his taxable income and hence his nomination paper should not be accepted

A Bench of Justices VG Arun and S Manu accepted the argument of the Election Commission of India (ECI) that once the nomination of a candidate is accepted by the returning officer, the remedy file an election petition before the High Court and not a PIL. "As rightly contended by for counsel Election Commission of India, the remedy of the petitioner, if aggrieved by the acceptance of the affidavit filed by one of the same in an election petition," the Court said in its order. Avani Bansal, the petitioner, argued that though she had lodged a complaint with the Returning Officer pointing out the discrepancies in Raieev Chandrasekhar's affidavits, there was no "reasoned decision" rendered by the returning officer on that complaint.

"Where is the statutory provision that says that a reasoned order must be given for the aggrieved person is to by the returning officer on complaints given to them," Court asked the the petitioners and ordered the rejection of the petition.

Sources close to the minister told The Pioneer that Asianet News, a channel owned by the former was giving him the candidates is to challenge sleepless nights by telecasting anti-Narendra Modi reports and stories. "Only anti-Modi reports are being aired by the said news channel giving an impression that Rajeev Chandrasekhar is han in glove with the staff. If he dares to take action against the editorial staff, all of them would strike work and the channel would go off the air.

The editorial staff members are hardcore CPI(M) fanatics and one of them is a plant by the Church itself," said the source.

Rajeev Chandrasekhar gets a breather Thrissur Pooram, mother of festivals, leave a trail of pathos KUMAR CHELLAPPAN KOCHI concludes colorful music. But 2024 sweet

The decision of the Kerala Government to call off Thrissur Pooram, rated as mother of all festivals, has upset the followers of Sanatana Dharma and believers of temple rituals. The 19 April festival was called off by the police without furnishing any reason despite the fact the event was held without any disturbance.

Nandakishore, cine artist and R K Damodaran, poet, termed the police action as an indication of things to come in future targeting the Hindu festivals. Nandakishore said that there was a concern among devotees that the display of Lord Rama's and the Ayodhya Temple pictures in the decorative umbrellas would have upset some political parties and religions and this could be the reason for the decision to cancel the Pooram. Following intervention by Suresh Gopi, the BJP candidate contesting from Thrissur Lok Sabha constituency and the Mission, an Chinmava apolitical organization, the police was forced to backtrack from its decision after hours of stand of. The customary fireworks, which marks the conclusion of the year's Pooram was held 24 hours later on Saturday, a hitherto unheard development. The CPI(M) which was caught with its pants down condemned the "communal BIP" and Prime Minister Narendra Modi for Friday night's confusion though it did not elaborate on the role played by the Prime Minister. K Muraleedaran, the Congress candidate fighting against Suresh Gopi, alleged that the commotion was yet another proof of the BJP-CPI(M) joint venture to defeat the Congress candidate.

Meanwhile. Harikiran Muraleedharan, a young advocate in Thrissur filed a petition with Ombudsman, Travancore Kochi Devaswam Board, against the Kerala Police for using footwears in the Lord Mahadeva Temple by the Kerala Police. "This was in violation of the High Court order DBP-83/2003 banning wearing footwears inside temple premises and hence an action of contempt of court," said Harikiran in his petition. He wanted strict action against this high handed behavior of City Police Commissioner Ankit Ashokan and his team of cops for hurting the religious sentiments of the believers. "Every year the Pooram with memories of light, sound and Pooram concluded with a the rhythm with which more sense of pathos," said than 500 percussionists create Nandakishore.
