n, man held for murder to fake death

insurance money.

Similar to the Tarun Jinaraj case, Malek started a family, his wife and two children having no inkling about his criminal past. His run came to an end on Tuesday when he was arrested in Nikol by a team from the city crime branch.

The case goes back to 2004 when Anil's father Vijaypal, his brother Abhya and Anil, then in his 20s, hatched a conspiracy to fraudulently claim insurance money. As part of the plan, they purchased a new hatchback car and LIC's Jeevan Mitra policy for Rs 20 lakh in Anil's name. As per a clause in the policy, the insurance payout would be four times in the event of the policy holder dying in an accident.

The Malek family along with two accomplices Mahipal Gadaria and Rakesh Khattik, began hunting for a vulnerable target. In July 2006, Anil, Gadaria and Khattik spotted a beggar near Agra toll booth and decided to make him the insurance bait. The three took the beggar to a hotel where they laced his food with sedatives. After the beggar passed out, they put him in the driver's seat and pushed the car into electric pole which led to the vehicle catching fire. To make the body unidentifiable, the three poured petrol on it and set it alight.

The car's registration number led Agra police inquiring into this case of accidental death to Vijaypal who, playing his part in the conspiracy, identified body as Anil's, and cremated it in his native village Bhatta Parsaul in UP's Dankaur block.
