'Light lamp in name of voting'

FP NEWS SERVICE
Pithampur (Mhow)

Under the leadership of collector and district election officer Priyank Mishra, a torch march was carried out from Maharana Pratap Bus Stand to Vaishnav Cambridge School as part of an awareness campaign to encourage voters to vote in the Pithampur Industrial Area on Tuesday.

MPIDC executive director Praful Sinha, district panchayat CEO and SVEEP nodal officer Shringar Srivastava, officers, employees, students, workers of factories in Pithampur and a large number of citizens were present.

Collector Mishra said that using your franchise is also a service to the country. Vote without fear and temptation. Vote not only for your future but also to inspire people you know.

He said that in the last assembly elections, on an average only about 40 per cent votes were cast in the polling stations of Pithampur area. The Commission's focus was on increasing the voting percentage in all those areas where lower votes were cast and a torch rally was organised to make voters aware about voting.

After the conclusion of the torch rally, the collector administered the oath to all the voters present to exercise their franchise. This Diwali everyone was requested to light a lamp in the name of voting. A street play was performed here. Winners of various competitions on voter awareness were awarded.

Kharge accepted Congress is Kaurav Sena, says Shivraj

Priyanka has spread a farrago of lies about Indore, the cleanest city in the country: CM

OUR STAFF REPORTER
city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge has sharply reacted to calling Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, ED, CBI and Income-tax Department as the Pandavas in the current battle of ballots.

Taking a jibe at Kharge's reaction, Chouhan said at a public meeting on Wednesday that Kharge had accepted his party as the Kaurav Sena. Whereas the Pandavas fight for justice, the Kauravas do it for selfish motive, Chouhan said.

There was one Dhritarashtra in the Mahabharata, but the Congress has two - Digvijaya Singh and Kamal Nath - who want to transfer power to their sons, Chouhan said.

Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan waves to crowd at a programme held in support of BJP candidates on Wednesday

Indore is the cleanest city in the country, but Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi spread a farrago of lies about the city, he said, adding that, the people of Indore will not tolerate it.

The Congress is a party of betrayers who, immediately after coming to power, stopped all welfare projects, Chouhan further said.

any Ladlies nor any Behnas, he said.

Because of Dhanteras, the money was transferred to the accounts of the beneficiaries of the Ladli Behna Yojna on November 7, he said. "I will sleep happily only when I can deposit Rs 3,000 to the accounts of my Ladli Behnas," he said.

According to him, the Behnas, whose names were left, will be added to the Ladli Behna Yojna, after the formation of government.

Chhindwara seats prestige issue for Nath

He has been camping in district and campaigned there three days back

OUR STAFF REPORTER
city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

MPCC president Kamal Nath campaigned in Chhindwara only on the last two days before the 2018 election.

He campaigned in other parts of the state for rest of the time, but the party won all the seven seats in the district. Five seats in Chhindwara and two in Pandhurna district have become a prestige issue for Nath who wants to bring all the seats to the Congress's kit as he did in the last election.

This is the reason why Nath has been camping in Chhindwara for the past four days. A few days ago, Nath campaigned for the party candidates in Chhindwara for four days. Nath will come to Bhopal on November 9 and return to his home district on November 10, and come back to the state capital after Diwali.

Son of Nath, Nakul Nath, has set up his camp in Chhindwara. Before the election dates were declared, he organised religious events of Pradeep Mishra and Dharendra Shastri. The main reason for Nath's being in Chhindwara is that the BJP pulled out all the stops to win the seats in the district.

The BJP government curved out another district - Pandhurna from Chhindwara - before the election.

The BJP's plan was to create an impact on the two seats in Pandhurna and on those in Saunsar district.

Apart from that, many Union and state ministers are visiting Chhindwara.

For that reason, Nath is sparing no effort to keep the area under his control. Besides the Vidhan Sabha election, Nath is worried about the Lok Sabha polls next year.

In 2019, Nakul Nath won by a margin of 38,000 votes, so Nath wants to keep his son's position strong in this Lok Sabha constituency.

The Congress leaders, however, said Nath was campaigning in other areas.

Because Chhindwara is his native place, he halts there at night, they said.

Saint Mary's School celebrates Diwali

FP NEWS SERVICE
Mhow

Saint Mary's Higher Secondary School, Mhow celebrated Diwali, on Wednesday with festive gusto.

The students presented the scene of Lord Rama defeating Ravan and coming back to Ayodhya. The students also gave a meaningful message about killing all the evil existing in society.

The school wore a festive look with decorated diyas and rangoli. An inter-house competition of rangoli making was organised for the students. The stunning designs of rangoli made by the students allured and fascinated the spectators. Principal Sr Messina delivered a speech on the significance of the festival by stating that we should spread happiness and bring light to the lives of others. She conveyed good wishes to the staff, the students and their families.

She also congratulated the students of Class VI and the teachers for staging the meaningful, beautiful and illuminating assembly. The festival of light ended with a beautiful dance performance. The programme was conducted by Jyoti, Chanchal and Mayuri along with the students of class VI.
