WITH CIVILIANS STILL STRANDED NEAR FRONT LINES

Israel battles militants in Gaza's main cities

Palestinians face severe shortages of food, water and other basic goods amid war

RAFAH: Israeli forces battled Palestinian militants in Gaza's two largest cities on Monday, with civilians still sheltering along the front lines even after massive waves of displacement across the besieged territory. Israel has pledged to keep fighting until it removes Hamas from power, dismantles its military capabilities and returns all of the scores of hostages still held by Palestinian militants after being captured during the October 7 surprise attack into Israel that ignited the war. The US has provided unwavering diplomatic and military support for the campaign, even as it has urged Israel to minimise civilian casualties and further mass displacement. The war has killed thousands of Palestinian civilians and driven nearly 85 per cent of the territory's 2.3 million people from their homes. Residents said there was heavy fighting in and around the southern city of Khan Younis, where Israeli ground forces opened a new line of attack last week, and battles were still underway in parts of Gaza City and the built-up Jabaliya refugee camp in northern Gaza, where large areas have been reduced to rubble. "The situation is extremely difficult," said Hussein al-Sayyed, who is staying with relatives in Khan Younis after fleeing Gaza City earlier in the war. "I have children and I don't know where to go. No place is safe." He and his three daughters are staying in a three-story home with around 70 others, most of whom have fled from the north, and said they have been rationing food for days. "Over many days, I have eaten just one meal a day to save food for the girls. They are still young," he said. Another Khan Younis resident, Radwa Abu Frayeh, witnessed heavy Israeli strikes around the European Hospital, where the UN humanitarian office says tens of thousands of people have sought shelter. She said a strike hit a home close to hers late Sunday. "The building shook," she said. "We thought it was the end and we would die." With very little aid allowed in, Palestinians face severe shortages of food, water and other basic goods. Some observers openly worry that Palestinians will be forced out of Gaza altogether in a repeat of the mass exodus from what is now Israel during the 1948 war surrounding its creation. "Expect public order to completely break down soon, and an even worse situation could unfold including epidemic diseases and increased pressure for mass displacement into Egypt," UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres told a forum in Qatar, a key intermediary, on Sunday. Eylon Levy, an Israeli government spokesman, called allegations that Israeli intends mass displacement from Gaza "outrageous and false". But other Israeli officials have discussed such a scenario, raising alarm in Egypt and other friendly Arab countries that refuse to accept any refugees. At the same time, it's not clear when or if Palestinians would be allowed to return to Gaza City and much of the north home to some 1.2 million before the war where entire neighbourhoods have been flattened. The fighting in and around Khan Younis threatens to bring similar destruction to the south, and has already pushed tens of thousands toward the town of Rafah and other areas along the border with Egypt. It has also hindered the delivery of humanitarian aid to most of Gaza, putting even more pressure on people to head south. Israel says it tries to avoid harming civilians and blames their deaths on Hamas, saying it endangers residents by fighting in dense areas and positioning military infrastructure including weapons, tunnels and rocket launchers in or near civilian buildings. The military said Sunday that troops killed armed men as they left a clinic, and that forces operating in Jabaliya found a truck full of long-range rockets near a school. AGENCIES

Russia targets Kyiv with ballistic missiles

KYIV: Russia fired eight ballistic missiles at Kyiv early on Monday, all of which were shot down, Ukraine's Air Force said. The thwarted attack still left one person injured by shrapnel and three more suffered severe stress reactions, officials said. A series of loud explosions rang out in Ukraine's capital just after 4 a.m., as the city was under its nightly curfew, followed by air raid sirens. Interior Minister Ihor Klymenko said that in Darnytskyi district of eastern Kyiv the debris of an intercepted missile fell without catching fire, and elsewhere in the capital the explosive wave damaged the windows of a house. The attack also left 120 households in the city without electricity, Ukraine's Ministry of Energy said. Last winter Russian troops were deliberately targeting Ukrainian energy system causing power outages and blackouts across the country. Over the weekend the UK Ministry of Defence noted that Russia last week used its heavy bomber fleet for the first time since September. It predicted the start of a more concerted campaign aimed at degrading Ukraine's energy infrastructure as winter sets in. AGENCIES

Russia to hold presidential vote in occupied Ukraine

MOSCOW: Russian election authorities on Monday said balloting in next year's presidential election will be conducted in four partially occupied Ukrainian regions that Moscow illegally annexed in 2022 following its invasion. The Central Election Commission adopted the decree to proceed with the vote in the Russian-controlled parts of the Donetsk, Luhansk, Kherson and Zaporizhzhia regions. Balloting will also take place in the Crimean Peninsula, which Russia illegally annexed from Ukraine in 2014. Lawmakers in Russia on Thursday set the 2024 presidential election for March 17. ## 'Singapore hospitals monitoring COVID-19 situation closely'

SINGAPORE: Singapore hospitals are monitoring the COVID-19 situation in the country closely and are ready to increase their capacity if needed following a recent wave of infections, hospital authorities said on Monday. Singapore has seen an increase in COVID-19 infections over the past two weeks. According to the Ministry of Health (MOH), the estimated number of COVID-19 cases in the week of November 26 to December 2 rose to 32,035, compared with 22,094 cases in the previous week. While MOH noted that the numbers of hospitalisations and intensive care unit (ICU) cases are not as high as they were during the pandemic, and there is no indication that the variants circulating locally are more transmissible or cause more severe disease, the rise in cases has added to the workload at hospitals, which are already busy. The National University Health System (NUHS) said in a statement that it is monitoring the situation together with its three hospitals -- the National University Hospital, Ng Teng Fong General Hospital, and Alexandra Hospital. "We continue to remain vigilant and maintain surge capacity in our inpatient facilities, including our intensive care and isolation facilities," Channel News Asia quoted a NUHS spokesperson as saying. गया था और राज्य में राजनीतिक अनिश्चितता तथा अशांति पैदा करने के एकमात्र उद्देश्य से उनके खिलाफ झूठे आरोप लगाए गए थे।

ईडी ने सोरेन को 14 अगस्त को अपना पहला समन भेजा था।

प्रवर्तन निदेशालय की जांच इस आरोप को लेकर चल रही है कि माफिया द्वारा भूमि के मालिकाना हक को अवैध रूप से बदलने का एक बड़ा गिरोह झारखंड में सक्रिय था।

एजेंसी ने इस मामले में 14 लोगों को गिरफ्तार किया है, जिनमें 2011 बैच के भारतीय प्रशासनिक सेवा (आईएएस) अधिकारी छवि रंजन भी शामिल हैं। रंजन पहले राज्य समाज कल्याण विभाग के निदेशक और रांची के उपायुक्त के रूप में कार्यरत थे।

पुलिस ने न तो इस घटनाक्रम की पुष्टि की है और न ही इसका खंडन किया है। अगस्त 2019 में विवादामेंद अनुच्छेद 370 को निरस्त करने के केंद्र के फैसले की
