File affidavit on illegal immigrants: SC directs Centre and Assam govt

ANANTHAKRISHNANG NEW DELHI, DECEMBER 7

THE SUPREME Court on Thursday asked the Centre and Assam government to provide details on the "estimated inflow of illegal migrants" to Assam and other Northeastern states after March 25, 1971, and the status of border fencing.

While hearing petitions challenging the constitutional validity of Section 6A of the Citizenship Act, 1955, a five-judge Constitution bench, presided by Chief Justice of India D Y Chandrachud, directed the Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) to file the affidavit on or before December 12. The bench said. "While the arguments raising the constitutional chaßenge form the core of the controversy, submissions have been urged before this court in regard to the impact of illegal immigration into Assam both on the demographics and cultural fabric of state".

"The provisions of Section 6A of the Citizenship Act, 1955, can broadly be bifurcated in three March 26, 1971," the bench said. The bench, also comprising Justices Surya Kant, M M Sundresh, J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, added the provisions of Section 6A make it abundantly clear that the conferment of deemed citizenship does not extend to those who entered India after March 26, 1971. The bench said. "At this stage, we are of the considered view that it will be necessary for the court to have certain data-based disclosures by the Union Government in the Ministry of Home Affairs".

The bench also asked the Central and state governments to furnish data on the "number of persons to whom citizenship has been granted under the provisions of section 6A(2) namely with reference to the time period of persons who came into Assam between January 1, 1966, and March 25, 1971". The court directed the governments to provide details on "the estimated inflow of illegal migrants into India, including but not confined to the state of Assam after March 25, 1971".

In respect to those who are alleged to have entered India, including Assam after March 25, 1971, the court directed that details be provided on"(a) the total no of foreignerstribunals which have been set up by the union government, (b) the total number of cases which have been disposed of, (d) the total number of cases which are pending as of date, (e) the average time taken for disposal of cases, (f) the no of cases pending before Gauhati High Court". The bench also asked the govemment to appraise it about "the steps which have been taken by the Union govt at an administrative level to deal with illegal immigration into the territory of India from the northeastern states, narticularly the state of Assam".

BHOPAL, DECEMBER 7

Outgoing CM Shivrai Singh Chouhan, though, has taken a different route.

Yet to visit Delhi, he has, in his words, thrown himself back into campaigning mode - for 'Mission' 29', or the BIP's stated resolve to win all the 29 Lok Sabha seats in the state in 2024.

His starting point is unmissable too - MP Congress chief Kamal Nath's turf of Chhindwara, which was the lone Lok Sabha seat won by the Congress in 2019, and where all the 7 Assembly segments were won by the Congress this time.

Chouhan is telling party workers the BJP is fully behind them and promising beneficiaries of his government's winning Ladli Behna scheme that his next goal is to make them 'Lakhpati Behnas (millionaires)'. "This is my dream, my mission", he says - a message that should also travel to Delhi, given that the 64-year-old victorious CM has been kept hanging by the party over his new role.

Meanwhile, his rivals too are moving about their pieces on the power chess board. Post-results, Union minister Prahlad Patel and BJP national general secretary Kailash Vijayvargiya, both now MLAs and in contention for CM post, have been quiet on the Ladli Behna scheme, while talking of the Madhya Pradesh win in the same breath as the BJP's victories in Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh.

the campaign were an indicator that he, for sure, won't be tired out of the race - even if retirement comes. In more signs of the same, the serving CM has been busy from the get-go after the results.

On December 5, he welcomed a Ram Rath Yatra at his residence: attended two events of Ladli Behna beneficaries in Naya Bhopal, sharing lunch with them sitting on the ground; visited rain shelters in the city to take stock; and wrapped up the day with a family dinner at popular Bhopal eatery Manohar Dairy. The next day. Chouhan announced his 'Mission 29', telling the crowd how he had barely slept two-three hours a day, working 20 hours daily during the Assembly elections, and adding that they should put in the same effort to ensure

'Social evil': BJP MP seeks law against live-in relationships

LIZMATHEW NEW DELHI, DECEMBER 7

TERMING LIVE-IN relationships a "dangerous and harmful disease that is affecting society", a BJPMP from Haryana Thursday sought the government to "make a law to protect the Indian culture from becoming like the western one".

The BJP MP from Bhiwani-Mahendragarh, Dharambir Singh, said in the Lok Sabha that it has been a part of Indian culture to "seek the permission and support of parents for marriage in the family and it has helped in protecting relationships"

"A large section of society even to this day gives priority to marriages arranged by parents or relatives. The bride and the groom seek the consent of the parents and arranged marriages are based on a match of several common factors such as social and individual values and likes as well as family backgrounds... Marriage is con-as compared with America, which has a rate of about 40%," he said while raising the issue in the zero hour. Singh attributed the re-

"love marriages" "Therefore, it is my suggestion that the consent of mother and father of the bride and the groom be made mandatory in love marriages because in large parts of the country marriages do not happen in the same 'gotra' and due to love marriages, there are a lot of conflicts in the villages. Scores of families are destroyed in these conflicts...," the BJP MP said. Calling live-in relationships "a social evil", Singh said, "Such relationships are very common in western nations, but this evil is fast spreading in our society and the consequences are horrible.
