BJP pitches Scindia in tough constituencies

Party candidates & workers from Tarana & Ghatiya to attend Modi's rally in Shajapur

FP NEWS SERVICE Ujjain

Union Minister and BJP star campaigner Jyotiraditya Scindia has taken the reins of the Ujjain North assembly constituency in the last phase of electioneering.

PM Narendra Modi will focus on creating a soft atmosphere by holding an election rally through the Shajapur seat of the division. BJP candidates and party workers from Tarana and Ghatiya assembly constituencies of Ujjain district have been invited to join Modi's rally.

festival period, it has been decided to cancel the road show and hold a public meeting.

Scindia will hold meetings in Tarana and Mahidpur on Friday. There will be a big meeting in Tarana.

If party sources are to be believed, there is a close contest in Tarana and Mahidpur also. Such reports have also reached the central organisation. For this reason, Scindia will insist on changing the direction of the wind at both places.

He will leave for Ujjain from Tarana at around 5:40 pm and will reach Ujjain at 6 pm. After the general meeting, he will leave for Indore via Harfatak Over-bridge.

BJP has also focused its attention on Shajapur district. Shajapur, Shajapur and Hukam Singh Karda is giving tough competition to BJP candidate Arun Bhimavard from Shajapur.

According to sources, Modi will come and hold the meeting between 1.30 to 2 pm on November 14. The administration has made preparations for this. The helpalid will be built near Bapu Ki Kutiyia, Ujjain district BJP president Bahadur Singh Borad will be in the city for about an hour. It is said that earlier there was a plan to organise Scindia's roadshow in Ujjain North. The route had also been decided, but in view of the

Miscreant stabs youth, family members

FP NEWS SERVICE Ujjain

In a strange incident, a miscreant forced a youth to drink liquor, entered his house and stabbed him. The youth's family members were also injured due to their intervention during the attack and were admitted to the District Hospital for treatment.

According to Congress sources, RaGa will spend the last four days of campaigning in Madhya Pradesh. He can be seen holding election meetings and roadshows.

Meanwhile, Congress candidates from many districts have sent demands to Delhi and the Pradesh Congress Committee for roadshows or meetings of Priyanka Vadra and RaGa in their areas.

There is a possibility that RaGa's election may be held in Ujjain along with Indore.

EC's initiative to ensure migrant labourers' voting

FP NEWS SERVICE Ujjain

Many labourers and employees from Jabhua, Petlawad and Rajasthan worked in private institutions and other places in Ujjain. They had been working here for a long time, hence their voter IDs were made, but during the Corona epidemic, these workers returned to their native places.

As per available details, due to the large number of migrants, the Election Commission's attention has gone to these labourers and after taking information from the labour department about those who were registered there and their original residence based on voter ID, the Election Commission has taken information about the labourers who have migrated to Rajasthan and other places.

A letter has been written to the Rajasthan government and other districts of the state. In this letter, the Election Commission has asked to send workers to Ujjain in their native places on November 17. Similarly, a letter has also been sent to the district magistrate of Jabhua and Alirajpur in this regard.

Woman commits suicide

Ujjain: A beauty parlour operator committed suicide by hanging herself here on Wednesday evening.

Nanakheda police said that the woman, Reena, wife of Hemant Shrivastava, was living in a rented house with her 8-year-old son in the Indore Hills Colony. She reportedly got separated from her husband. She used to run a beauty parlour at home. Her daughter had gone to school at the time of the incident. No suicide note has been found from the incident site. Police said that the reason behind the suicide would be clear from the statement of the family members.

Oxford Junior College celebrates silver jubilee

FP NEWS SERVICE Ujjain

Guests and hosts felicitate Param Veer Chakra winner Captain Yogendra Singh Yadav during the silver jubilee programme of Oxford Junior College

Oxford Junior College organised its two-day silver jubilee celebrations and annual fest on the school premises. The chief guest of the programme was the country's youngest Param Veer Chakra winner Captain Yogendra Singh Yadav (Kargil war hero), known as 'Tiger Hill' and vice-chancellor of Vikram University, Prof. Akhilesh Pandey. Other guests included Haren Trivedi (the youngest 'Tiger Hill' and the youngest Swarang (the youngest Swargar in the country).

In his address, Captain Yadav called upon the parents and students to look at their actions from the perspective of what impact they will have on society and the country. He said how despite being hit by 17 bullets, he along with his comrades captured the strategically important Tiger Hill and led India to victory in the war. He asked the students to focus on strength of mind and body to inspire them to never give up.

Prof. Pandey emphasised awakening the sense of awareness and seriousness towards the goal among the children. Haren Trivedi along with his partner 'Tinku Toofani' created a powerful show of humour and satire. Little magician Swarang stunned and mesmerised the audience with his tricks.

Excellent presentations were given by the school children on patriotic, religious, cultural and social subjects. School committee chairman Sunil Khatri and secretary Dilip Dhanwar said that apart from cultural programmes, science, social science and painting exhibitions were also included in this event.

4 arrested for stealing railway property

FP NEWS SERVICE Mhow

Theft of railway properties has become rampant at Balwada station, the only meter gauge line of Ratlam division which was closed on January 31 for gauge conversion on the Mhow-Onkarswar section.

As the railway property for the project had been lying abandoned for long, miscreants took advantage and stole open scrap material from there. When the miscreants assembled again at the spot with the same intention, the Railway Protection Force (RPF), who laid a trap following a tip-off, arrested those criminals.

The four accused in the case, Sunil Narwara, Rakeshwar and Gopal, are all residents of nearby localities. The police also took the recovery, Sanju Suraj
