Five wolf pups born in Ambardi die in 24 hrs

Rajkot: Five pups born to a female wolf at Ambardi safari park in Amreli district died within a day of their birth recently. The exact reason behind the deaths is being investigated by the forest department. The female wolf is one the six wolves that were brought to Ambardi from Sakkarbaug zoo in Junagadh six months ago. They were released in an open enclosure last week by state minister for forest, environment and climate change Mulu Bera

The six wolves had been successfully bred at Sakkarbaug zoo. They were released in the open enclosure to prepare them for their soft release. DCF (Gir east division) Rajdeep Jhala said, "A female wolf was pregnant and she gave birth to five pups three days back and all the three died within a day. The exact reason is under investigation but it is primarily believed that the female gave birth for the first time and she lacked experience in how to take care of the pups." The six wolves that were released in an open enclosure in Ambardi will be released in the wildlife step by step after the forest department prepares a ground for their soft release.

AMC to build Lotus Park near SG Road at cost of 20cr

Ahmedabad: The city civic body which approved the annual budget with a total financial provision of Rs 12,262.83 crore for 2024-25, announced that a lotus-shaped garden will be built in an area near SG Highway which will have flowering plants from across the country. The garden named 'Lotus Park, Garland of India' will be developed at an approximate cost of Rs 20 crore. The standing committee suggesting an increase of Rs 1,461.83 crore in the draft budget approved Rs 12,262.83 crore for 2024-25. The additional Rs 1,461.83 crore will be spent on new development works which do not include any new bridges or underpasses. The civic body has allocated Rs 1 crore for preparation of a feasibility report for construction of an underpass to reduce traffic on the road connecting Rajpath Club to Bopal in the western part of the city. "Ahmedabad citizens are very fond of flowers which has been proven by the success of the Flower Show organized every year. The proposed Lotus Park, Garland of India' will be shaped like a lotus, symbolising representation of all the flowering plants of various states of the country. Visitors will be able to enjoy all the flowers of India at one place," said Devang Dani, the chairman of Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation's standing committee. Dani said that Rs 45 crore has been allocated for building a new animal pound in Kathwara, Rs 20 crore for building an advanced food testing laboratory, Rs 15 crore for installing CCTV systems, Rs 50 crore for building urban houses. He said that Rs 20

Ahmedabad : Death of a four-year-old girl in Bhestan due to multiple dog bites on Monday has once again raised questions about the animal birth control (ABC) programme of Surat Municipal Corporation (SMC).

The ABC programme, continuing for the past 10 years, has seen total four children dead in Feb and March of 2023. Of these, three deaths were reported in the city and one in Palsana of Surat district.

An 18-year-old girl died in May 2023 due to rabies in Mora Bhagal area. Her parents informed doctors that she suffered a dog bite in leg around six months ago. She was taken for the initial anti-rabies vaccine and after the first dose remaining doses were not given.

SMC officials claimed that they have increased the Three held for damaging hospital property, IMA demands action

Ahmedabad: Three persons have been arrested for allegedly vandalizing a hospital in CTM on Monday after a woman's death. A complaint filed by a doctor at Ramol police station had named 15 people. The incident has prompted the office-bearers of the Indian Medical Association to write a letter to the state government, demanding stringent action against the accused. Dr Parth Shah, a resident of Navrangpura, has been running Rajni Gynecology Hospital in the CTM area for the past 12 years. On Feb 3, Suhana Altaf Saiyed, a resident of Ramol, was admitted to his hospital after she went into labour. The FIR states the sonography showed the fetus was dead and the same was communicated to the family. Around 9pm, she delivered the dead child without complications. Around 11am on February 4, she began bleeding after which the medical team informed her family that her uterus needs to be removed. The family reportedly did not allow it and asked for discharge against medical advice. She was moved to SVP Hospital but died during the treatment. On Monday, a man came to the hospital, his face covered with a handkerchief, and spilled a liquid at the reception area. The guards caught the person who was identified as Zakir Saiyed, Suhana's brother. Later the patient's husband, Altaf Saiyed, and others reportedly vandalized the hospital with sharp weapons and sticks. Ramol police inspector C R Rana said three persons have been arrested in connection with the incident. On Tuesday, the office-bearers of Indian Medical Association - Gujarat State Branch (IMA-GSB) wrote a letter to Harsh Sanghavi, MoS (home), demanding stringent action in the case. "In light of this distressing event, we urge the government to intervene urgently and decisively to ensure that justice is served. It is imperative that the culprits behind this horrific attack are apprehended without delay and brought to justice through the full extent of the law," the letter states. Dr Nita Thakre, ex-secretary of Ahmedabad Obstetrics and Gynaecological Society (AOGS), said violence is not the solution and will damage healthcare services in a big way. "Many times, doctors are believed to be the culprits when they are not responsible for whatever happened," she said. Dr Jayprakash Shah, director of Rajni Hospital, and ex-AOGS president, said that the condition in which the woman had come in was such that it could cause deadly complications like failure of clotting mechanisms. "In septicemia, the mortality rate is very high," he said. Senior gynecologists in the city said the relatives must understand that the doctors can only do what is medically possible and not give guarantee of life to all, and that without consent from the patient's family, it is not possible for a doctor to go ahead with a medical procedure.

ABC programme under lens after girl dies of dog bites capacity of sterilisation up to 70 dogs per day. However, the officials claim that sterilisation does not reflect immediately.

Despite the animal birth control programme running for around 10 years, the average rabies vaccination figures do not show a drop at the city's two leading government hospitals. At the New Civil Hospital and SMIMER, on an average daily 50 fresh patients came for rabies vaccination in 2023.

"We do not check dog bite data since it does not reflect the animal birth control effectiveness since the sterilised dogs are released back to the same spot from where it was caught. The ABC program has been running for 10 years now but the dog population increases rapidly," said a SMC official. On an average, daily three dog bite cases of third degree are reported in which the victim has a severe wound. In these cases, SMC's market department focuses on dog sterilisation in the area where these cases were found. From the area where the four-year-old girl died, due to dog bites SMC's team caught seven dogs last week and seven more dogs were caught on Tuesday. The girl was alone at home while her parents, labourers at a coal depot, went for work.

The girl was playing near her home and had gone to collect sugarcane from an open farm, when the dogs were suspected to have attacked her. She was found unconscious when her parents returned home in the evening. "The girl may have been attacked in the afternoon and she was unattended for a long time. She was taken to hospital in the late evening when she was declared dead," said a SMC officer.

Woman's accidental death turns out to be cold-blooded murder

Ahmedabad : The death of a 55-year-old woman in a truck accident on Jan 31 has turned out to be cold-blooded murder plotted and executed by her former neighbour in Morbi, who was obsessed with the belief that his life had become miserable due to some black magic performed by her. On Jan 31, the Morbi A-division police registered a case of accidental death after the woman Pankhu Dabhi was run over by a truck. However, after an investigation, the police arrested the truck driver Amrut Chauhan (63). While scanning the CCTV footage, police found it odd that the truck was parked near his old house even as he had shifted elsewhere. Cops also learned from the neighbours about the frequent skirmishes between Chauhan and Dabhi. They called Chauhan for questioning but he couldn't convince the cops as to why he had parked the truck near his old house. "Amid dire financial conditions, Chauhan wife's suffers from cancer and his daughter has also been living with him for four years due to marital discord. When they were neighbours, Dabhi and Chauhan often fought over the former's plan of additional construction of her house," said investigating officer HA Jadeja.
