PM inaugurates Gati Shakti Cargo Terminal Project of Ramco Cements

Chennai, Mar 14: Prime Minister Shri. Narendra Modi virtually inaugurated the Gati Shakti Cargo Terminal project of Ramco Cements at Jayanthipuram village, Jaggaiahpet Mandal, NTR District, Andhra Pradesh.

With the inauguration of the project, Ramco Cements will be transporting crushed limestone from its mines in Budawada to its integrated cement plant in Jayanthipuram.

This project is the first of its kind in the country wherein a cement company will be transporting crushed limestone from its mines to the cement plant's wagon unloading area through railway wagons using electric locomotive, in an environment friendly manner.

The railway wagons with crushed limestone from the Budawada mines will travel a distance of 8.3 Kms to the Jayanthipuram plant unloading point. A distance of 4.9 Kms will be on the South Central Main Railway Line connecting Mellacheruvu to Jaggaiahpet stations, while 3.4 Kms will be on Ramco Cements' dedicated sidings.

Ramco Cements is glad to be a part of the Dedicated Freight Corridor under the Gati Shakti Mission of the Prime Minister.

Jindal supplies stainless steel for diagrid frame building in Chennai

Chennai, Mar 14: Jindal Stainless Limited (JSL), India's largest stainless steel manufacturer, has supplied stainless steel to India's first diagrid structure, which serves as the new head office building of the United India Insurance Company Ltd (UIIC) in Chennai.

The Union Minister for Finance and Corporate Affairs, Nirmala Sitharaman, recently launched the building from New Delhi.

Abhyuday Jindal, MD

The iconic building is made with stainless steel frames which are connected to the central core through lateral beams. Redefying conventional construction, there are no columns in this structure, and these stainless steel frames serve as the main load-bearing structure in the building.

A diagrid structural system is a framework made by the intersection of different materials like metals, concrete, or wooden beams. This landmark building standing on Mount Road, Chennai, boasts a distinctive double curvature profile with earthquake-resistant and energy-efficient features. Jindal Stainless supplied approximately 1000 tonnes of 316L grade high-quality stainless steel for the construction of this new UIIC building. The 62-meter-tall edifice adheres to the Indian Green Building Council standards with due design approval from the esteemed Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Madras and IIT Bombay.

Abhyuday Jindal, MD said, "Its aesthetic exteriors are buffeted by the load-bearing and disaster-proof attributes of stainless steel, which makes this structure resistant to corrosion and early ageing. As we progress towards the era of Amrit Kaal, this is the kind of advancement in infrastructure that we are bound to see."

The launch was also attended by Secretary, Department of Revenue (DoR), Ministry of Finance (MoF), Shri Sanjay Malhotra; Secretary, Department of Financial Services (DFS), MoF, Dr Vivek Joshi; Chairman, Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT); DoR, Shri Nitin Gupta; Chairman, Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC), Shri Sanjay Kumar Agarwal; Additional Secretary, DFS; Shri MP Tangirala; Chairman, State Bank of India (SBI), Shri Dinesh Khara; and senior officials of Ministry of Finance.

Prof. C.Muthamizhchelvan (centre), Vice Chancellor, SRM IST, unveiling the publicity poster of the annual 16th edition of Milan 2024 at a media interaction on Wednesday. He is flanked on his left by Dr. S.Ponnusamy, Registrar, Dr. Prince Kalyanasundaram, Deputy Director, Student Affairs, SRM IST, and Dr. Nisha Ashokan, Associate Director, Student Affairs.

Popular artists regale students at SRMIST's cultural extravaganza Milan

Chennai, Mar 14: Milan 2024, the 16th annual students' cultural festival of SRM Institute of Science and Technology, begins and feature live performances of some of the most popular artists, in addition to more than 150 student events, with a total prize amount of Rs. 12 lakh up for grabs.

The four-day cultural extravaganza will begin on Thursday, said Prof. C.Muthamizhchelvan, Vice Chancellor, SRM IST, at a media interaction on Wednesday morning. He said that while Aarush was the annual student technical festival, Milan was the institution's annual students' cultural festival. Milan was a team effort of the students, planned and organised by them belonging to various clubs and coordination committees. Such events, he said, would contribute to building team spirit, foster team work and inculcate leadership skills in students. Prof. Muthamizhchelvan added.

Students belonging to events, publicity, sponsorship, and discipline among other committees said Milan's theme this year was 'Streets' - a tribute to various countries' street life and culture. The creative team of the institution contributed extensively to re-creating the concept of street life in different countries. For instance, students had adorned the pathway from the main arch till Raja Raja Chozhan Statue with Chinese lanterns. Similarly, Madhubani paintings made by Nepalese students were also installed in a stretch, while Bommalaattam - a traditional art of Tamil Nadu also found place.

Andrea Jeremiah, Pradeep Kumar, Neeti Mohan to perform: Popular actor and singer Andrea Jeremiah, and singer Pradeep Kumar will perform on Thursday, while DJ shows by Ravorator, and techno music by Third Party, will be the highlights on Friday. There will be no live pro shows on the third day (Saturday), and on the concluding day on Sunday, there will be performances by Vaisagh and Rakhoo, Ahmed Meeran, in addition to a live performance by Neeti Mohan, noted playback singer.

The student organisers said they had been planning for several months while preparing for the annual cultural festival. They expected over 50,000 students from about 150 colleges all over India to take part in Milan 2024, including online events. In addition to various events being organised by the different clubs - Sports, Dance, Literary, Rotaract, Music, Dramatics, Fashion, Creative Arts, Gaming and Fun Games, among many others, Milan 2024 will also see events dedicated to women's empowerment, a science conference, events to highlight cultural and social diversity, apart from a blood donation camp.

The students said that immediately after Milan 2024, they would also host Butterflies, where the students would engage with students of primary classes in government schools in the region. A comprehensive health check-up camp and awareness programmes will form part of Butterflies.

Dr. S.Ponnusamy, Registrar, Dr. Prince Kalyanasundaram, Deputy Director, Student Affairs, SRM IST, and Dr. Nisha Ashokan, Associate Director, Student Affairs, were also present.

Appreciate launches global investing platform for Indians

Chennai, Mar 14: Appreciate, a SEBI and IFSCA registered fintech company, proudly announces its strategic collaboration with YES Securities and Samhita to offer a suite of investment and savings products for Indians across income groups on one platform - ranging from equity investments to savings account and fixed deposits.

Appreciate, founded by Subho Mouluk (CEO), Shlok Srivastav (COO), and Yogesh

Kansal (CMO), and headquartered in Mumbai, has recently launched a product to address the hurdles faced by Indian investors looking to invest in global markets. Appreciate breaks down barriers for investing outside India, from India - removing high remittance fees, hidden charges, and minimum investment amounts. Appreciate's partners include YES Securities - a leading full-service Indian broker - for cost-effective access to Indian securities, and Samhita - a leading social sector financial inclusion and livelihoods accelerator - to promote financial literacy, a key enabling step towards driving mass adoption of regular saving and investing habits.

Subho Mouluk, Founder and CEO of Appreciate, emphasized the platform's commitment to helping investors, saying, "This is huge savings and returns unlock where millions of people want to take the first step towards financial diversification but have always been deterred by high minimums, high fees, and a poor experience. We have solved bottlenecks others have failed to solve to make investing in U.S. stocks easy and low-cost. With Appreciate, even a kirana store owner in Vidarbha can open a free U.S. trading account, buy a fraction of any U.S. stock for as little as Re. 1 - and participate in the growth story of these companies."

AI-Powered healthcare innovation takes centre stage in Chennai

Chennai, mar 14: A recent event on AI in Healthcare held in Chennai saw the introduction of a new theme, AI-Driven Innovation in Healthcare, expanding the discourse well beyond the technology's role in EMR (Electronic Medical Record) adoption, physician productivity, operational efficiency, and fiscal sustainability.

Over the span of its journey so far, leading AI service, Augnito, has seen the congregation of over 300 healthcare and healthcare stakeholders, including doctors, Medical Directors, IT Heads, and other key decision-makers from the most prestigious organisations across the country. These conferences have provided an exclusive platform for industry leaders to network, converse, and innovate, paving the way for the future of healthcare transition and technologies. The conference aimed to delve into the untapped potential of AI in reshaping healthcare delivery and improving patient care. The opening keynote presentation was delivered by Ashokkan Somuveerappan, CIO of Apollo Hospitals, who gave enlightening insights into the Group's commitment to a comprehensive digital transformation, the promise of personalised care, and the adoption of augmented intelligence technologies across the spectrum.

Speaking after the event, Somuveerappan remarked, "While the design, development and deployment of cutting-edge technology solutions in the healthcare ecosystem is an exciting prospect, it's important to remember that we must keep ethics, compliance and security at the forefront of the discourse as well.

Platforms like Augnito, which convene industry leaders, are crucial for ensuring these products are developed inclusively and with a human-centred approach. Working with Augnito, we have witnessed the clear benefits of their voice AI solutions in our hospitals. This collaboration fills me with confidence that we're on the right track, and I'm eager to see what the future holds."
