EXPRESSING DISSATISFACTION that India's rich are looking down on holding weddings in their own country and prefer going to other countries for destination weddings, Prime Minister Narendra Modi Friday appealed to the youth to start a 'Wed in India' movement similar to 'Make in India'.

Uttarakhand Global Investors Summit 2023 at the Forest Research Institute (FRI) Dehradun. Modi urged industrialists and investors to focus on the potential of the middle-class.

Modi also launched Uttarakhand government's 'House of Himalava' brand and pointed out to the investors that the state has a lot of untapped potential from which they can benefit. This year, the summit's theme is 'Peace to Prosperity'. Even though the guests might not like what he is saying about weddings, he said the country needs a wedding revolution through the 'Wed in India'

"I want to say this to the millionaires and billionaires." he said. "It is believed and said (in our society) that when there is a marriage, God has made that pair. I cannot understand if God is making the pair, why are the couples not starting the journey of their life from the feet of God and going to a foreign country. I want the youths of the country to start the Wed in India' movement like

Make sure that at least one destination wedding in your family in the next five years takes place in Uttarakhand, Even if just 5,000 marriages take place in Uttarakhand every year, a new infrastructure will develop here, making it a major wedding destination for the world. India has enough strength to make it happen if we decide," Modi added.

SREENIVAS JANYALA HYDERABAD, DECEMBER 8

CONTROVERSIAL BIP MLA T Raia Singh has started his new stint in the Assembly with a row. Elected for the third time from Goshamahal seat, Raja Singh has said he won't be taking oath on Saturday, in protest against AIMIM leader Akbaruddin Owaisi being appointed as the Protem Speaker to conduct the proceedings.

"I am not going to take the oath if Akbaruddin is sitting in the Speaker's chair. Akbar is the product of Oasim Razvi, the head of the Nizam's Razakar army, which massacred Telangana people," Raja Singh told The Indian Express. Incidentally, the seven other BIP MLAs elected this time have not raised any such objection, and are set to take oath Saturday.

Governor Tamilisai Soundararjan picked Akbaruddin as the Protem Speaker for being the senior-most legislator in the House, chair: Raja Singh from Chandrayangutta.

Raja Singh's protest is anyway only symbolic as Akbaruddin is to hold the post only for Saturday, with the Speaker to be picked after that, A Protem Speaker is usually appointed to administer the oath of office to newly elected MLAs in the first sitting of the Assembly after an election, and presides over the voting and election of the new Speaker.

The new Speaker is likely to be Gaddam Prasad Kumar, whom the ruling Telangana Congress has nominated. The BIP's tally in the Telangana Assembly has gone up from 1 in 2018 (Raja Singhwas the sole winner at the time), to 8, with its vote share doubling from 6.90% to 14%. Raja Singh, 45, had spent 76 days in prison in 2022 after the Telangana Police invoked the Preventive Detention Act against him for repeated offences, particularly for allegedly stoking communal tensions in the city with a controversial video.
