Disclose electoral bond data till Sep 30: SC to EC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 2 November

The Supreme Court on Thursday directed the Election Commission of India (ECI) to produce before it in sealed cover the "up to date" data of funds received by political parties through electoral bonds till September 30, 2023.

A five-judge constitution Bench headed by Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud referred to the April 12, 2019, interim direction passed by the apex court directing political parties to furnish the details of funds received by them through electoral bonds to the poll panel in a sealed cover.

The Bench, comprising Justices Sanjiv Khanna, B R Gavai, J B Pardiwala and Manoj Misra, said the April 2019 order was not restrictive to the date on which it was pronounced, and if there was any ambiguity, it was necessary for the poll panel to seek a clarification from the top court.

While hearing arguments on a batch of petitions challenging the validity of the electoral bonds scheme for funding political parties, the Bench observed the ECI should have the up to date data.

"In any event, we now direct that the EC shall produce up to date data until September 30, 2023, in terms of the interim direction which was issued on April 12, 2019," the Bench ordered.

It said the exercise be carried out within two weeks and data handed over to the registrar (judicial) of the apex court in a sealed cover. The Bench reserved its verdict on the petitions, including those filed by Congress leader Jaya Thakur, the Communist Party of India (Marxist) and NGO Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR), after hearing arguments for three days.

During the hearing, the Bench asked

YOU SHOULD HAVE GOT THE DATA WHEN YOU WERE COMING TO THE COURT... THAT DAY WE HAD EMPHASISED AND ALL OF US HAD EXPRESSED THE VIEW AND WE EXPECTED YOU TO COME BACK WITH THE DATA

THE BENCH TOLD THE EC'S COUNSEL

DIRECTIVES

> A five-judge Bench referred to the 2019 interim direction directing political parties to furnish details of funds received by them through electoral bonds

> The exercise is to be carried out within two weeks and data handed over to the registrar (judicial) of the apex court in a sealed cover

> The Bench asked the EC's counsel about the quantum of electoral bonds that have been subscribed the EC's counsel about the quantum of electoral bonds which have been subscribed. The EC's counsel said he had some data in terms of the April 2019 order in a sealed cover and he can place that before the court. "Is the data up to date, at least till March 2023?" the bench asked.

The counsel referred to the April 2019 order of the apex court and said the details were till 2019 only. "You have to continue to collect the data," the bench said, adding, the EC never came back to the court for clarification if there was any doubt regarding the earlier directive.

"You should have got the data when you were coming to the court... That day we had emphasised and all of us had expressed the view and we expected you to come back with the data," the bench told the EC's counsel. The counsel said he can provide the data and the EC can seek details from all political parties.

The Bench said it would not ask State Bank of India to reveal the identity of the donors at this stage but it would like to know about the quantum of bonds subscribed. "What is time frame in which data has to be given every year? Is it every financial year? What is the deadline?" the Bench asked.

The counsel informed the court the data was to be given six months after a financial year got over.

"You ought to have the data. You will have the total quantum of electoral bonds and what is the bifurcation between different political parties," it told the EC's counsel, who said the poll panel will have to collate that. "File the data as of March 31, 2023 and submit it to us. You can even give us the data till September 30, 2023," the bench told the lawyer.

In its April 2019 order, the top court, which had not stayed the Centre's Electoral Bond Scheme, 2018, made it clear it would accord an in-depth hearing to the pleas as the Centre and the EC have raised "weighty issues" having "tremendous bearing on the sanctity of the electoral process in the country".

AAP, BJP in war of words after Kejriwal skips ED summons

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 2 November

A war of words erupted between the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and the ruling Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) on Thursday as Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal skipped the Enforcement Directorate's summons in a case linked to the alleged excise policy scam saying it was "illegal and politically motivated".

The BJP flayed Kejriwal for "running away" from the ED summons and said he does not want to face the truth, while the AAP hit back saying that the summons was "politically motivated".

The BJP's Delhi unit also staged a protest at the Rajghat demanding Kejriwal's resignation over the alleged excise policy scam.

"Kejriwal ran away from the ED's summons. He does not want to face the truth.... It won't be an exaggeration to say that the Delhi liquor scam king has accepted that he was involved in liquor scam and corruption," BJP National Spokesperson Sambit Patra told a press conference here.

AP leader Saurabh Bharadwaj said: "Today, the Delhi chief minister was asked to appear before the ED. He wrote to the ED, saying the summons does not make it clear in which capacity he is being called - as a witness or as a suspect, in his capacity as an individual, chief minister or AAP national convener."

ED raids Delhi minister in money laundering probe

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Thursday raided the premises of Delhi cabinet minister and AAP leader Raaj Kumar Anand and some others as part of a money laundering probe, official sources said. A dozen premises, including that of the minister in the Civil Lines area of the national capital, were being searched since 7:30 am, they said. The probe against Anand is being undertaken as per provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act.

Moitra storms out of ethics panel meet citing 'indecent questions'

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 2 November

Opposition members of the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee on Thursday stormed out of its meeting along with TMC MP Mahua Moitra as they accused its Chairperson Vinod Kumar Sonkar of asking her "indecent personal" questions, a charge he said was motivated to shield the parliamentarian from queries into her "unethical conduct".

Moitra also wrote to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla alleging that she was subjected to the "proverbial vastraharan" by the chairperson of the Ethics Committee during the hearing.

Moitra, who pleaded innocence to bribery allegations, termed Sonkar's questions to her "filthy" following the walkout while he defended the queries, saying they were related to businessman Darshan Hiranandani's affidavit in which he admitted to giving her bribes and using her parliamentary login ID to ask

Mahua Moitra appeared before the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee in New Delhi on Thursday and pleaded innocence to bribery allegations

Angry words and accusations flew thick and fast at the over four-hour-long meeting of the panel which might now

Nitish blames Congress for INDIA coalition losing steam

Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar (pictured) on Thursday blamed the Congress' preoccupation with Assembly polls in five states for the INDIA coalition's inability to build on the momentum it had gained in recent months.

The JD(U) leader's remarks came at a rally held by the Communist Party of India which was evocatively themed Bhaajpa hatao Desh bachao (dislodge the BJP from power, save the country).

Speaking in the presence of senior leaders such as CPI General Secretary D Raja, Kumar recalled that parties opposed to the current dispensation had come together to form the new coalition.
