Chennai Comic Con opens with high-energy Cosplay, Gaming

Chennai, Feb 9: The 2nd edition of Maruti Suzuki Arena Chennai Comic Con powered by Crunchyroll returned for a two-day extravaganza starting on 8th February. The event witnessed global and national artists along with cosplay enthusiasts and fans gathering at the Chennai Trade Centre, Nandambakkam.

One of the major highlights of day one was a special book launched about the legacy of U.V.E. Swaminatha Iyer - the saviour of Sangam literature, by Savio Mascarenhas; followed by special sessions on-stage with Brazilian artists Eduardo Ferigato and Marcelo Costa sharing about their journey on becoming comic book artists and more. With exciting sessions from Crunchyroll to Maruti Suzuki, Alpha Comics and Amar Chitra Katha among others, the stage was set from the get go for the most exciting pop-culture weekend of the year. Furthermore, it was followed by the Chennai based local comedians Vivek Muralidharan and Vikram Arul Vidyapathi and an electrifying beatbox performance by the collective Desible who left every visitor in awe.

Experience zones were jam-packed with crowds flocking to the booths by Marvel Studios' Captain America: Brave New World, DC Studios' Superman, Universal Pictures' Jurassic World Rebirth and DreamWorks Animation's How To Train Your Dragon. The attendees experienced immersive gaming zones by Nodwin Gaming Arena such as the Valorant zone by Riot Games India, a PlayStation zone, Skull and Bones experience booth and more.

The Day two promises an even more exciting lineup including a special session with New York Times best-selling artist Kyle Higgins and celebrated illustrator Kelly McMahon. The stage performances expected are Hysterical Comedy Collaborative and Kannan Caricaturist followed by Ankush Jain with B-boy Crazy Bright, standup comedy acts by Pilot Gomma - Aircrash and Rohan Joshi and Sahil Shah.

Audiences can catch the action as Chennai's finest cosplayers battle it out to represent the city at the Indian Championship of Cosplay 2025! Chennai Comic Con to conclude on February 9, 2025.

AARC conducts workshop to drive circularity in waste management

Chennai, Feb 9: As India advances its Swachh Bharat Mission to new heights, the focus on robust waste management practices has become more critical than ever. Recognizing the need for collective action, the Action Alliance for Recycling of Beverage

Cartons (AARC) is set to host its National Workshop cum Exhibition on Waste Management: Beyond Compliance, Towards Circularity on 18th February 2025 at Taj Wellington Mews, Chennai, Tamil Nadu.

Speaking about the event, M Cassio Simoes,

Chairman of AARC, and Managing Director - Tetra Pak, South Asia said, "At AARC, we believe that a sustainable future can only be built through collaboration and innovation. This workshop will not only tackle the challenges in waste management but also serve as a roadmap for businesses, policymakers, and stakeholders to collaborate in shaping a more comprehensive and sustainable model for the future. We are excited to introduce a space where industry leaders and experts can exchange ideas and fast-track the transition towards responsible and efficient waste management solutions with focus on beverage cartons".

Dabur expands oral care initiative with free dental camps

Chennai, Feb 9: Dabur, a leader in Ayurvedic oral care, has taken a major step towards improving dental health in South India by launching free dental camps in collaboration with the Indian Dental Association (IDA). This initiative was announced at the 75th Indian Dental Conference 2025, themed Transforming Dentistry: Innovate, Collaborate, Excel.

South India is a crucial market for Dabur, with Dabur Red Paste being the No. 1 oral care brand in Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh, and holding a strong presence in Karnataka and Telangana. Recognising the importance of regional needs, Dabur continues to expand its footprint while staying rooted in its commitment to oral health and community welfare.

At the Indian Dental Conference 2025, Dabur has set up an interactive experience zone where attendees will learn how Ayurveda and modern clinical science can work together for better oral health. Through its collaboration with IDA, Dabur is actively engaging with local dentists to show how Ayurveda can help with common oral health issues.

Speaking at the event, Binit Kumar, AGM, Marketing, Dabur India Ltd emphasised the company's vision for expanding its oral care business in South India. "We are proud that the Indian Dental Association has endorsed Dabur Red Paste as India's No. 1 Ayurvedic Toothpaste, backed by seven clinically proven benefits. This recognition reflects the trust and love consumers have for our brand. Moving forward, we aim to strengthen our partnership with the dental community and encourage the use of clinically proven Ayurveda in oral care."
