● ONGOING ACTION IN PANDORA PAPERS INVESTIGATION

ED probe touches Indian owners of offshore firms

RITU SARIN
New Delhi, February 4RECORDING OF STATEMENTS to seizure of assets; summons to searches of premises; getting details from I-T department and RBI — and detection of money laundering violations. These are the key aspects of the Enforcement Directorate's ongoing action in the Pandora Papers investigation that shows probes have been "initiated" for almost all Indian owners of offshore firms named in the 2021 investigation by The Indian Express.They include Anil Ambani to Sachin Tendulkar, Niira Radia to Gautam Singhania, according to the current status of the probes, The Indian Express has learnt. The Pandora Papers refers to a trove of 11.9 million secret documents from 14 offshore service providers that gave details of ownership of 29,000 offshore entities used by the super-rich to manage their global money flows.The data was obtained by the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists (ICJI) and shared with 150 media partners — The Indian Express investigated the Indian names. The Centre announced the setting up of a Multi-Agency Group to spearhead the probe. Subsequently, the I-T department is known to have sent directives to a majority of Indian nationals; the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) until 2022, sent requests to foreign jurisdictions for 482 people named in the reports.

In several cases, the ED sent "Egmont requests" — notes to the Egmont Group, the umbrella organisation of financial intelligence units of 167 jurisdictions, to glean more information about the offshore entities. An investigation reveals the following updates: On the probe against some of the key names in the Pandora Papers.

Anil Ambani

Anil Ambani, Sachin Tendulkar, Niira Radia and Gautam Singhania are among those being probed

Anil Ambani, chairman of ADA Group, and his representatives own at least 18 offshore companies in Jersey, British Virgin Islands and Cyprus. Set up between 2007 and 2010, seven of these companies borrowed and invested at least $1.3 billion. Service providers who managed these firms said their loans from banks were "guaranteed by Reliance/Anil Ambani in order to make investments", Ambani's lawyer had then said all disclosures had been made in compliance with Indian law.

Probe update: ED has sought details on all reported entities; three Indian firms have been issued directives and Egmont requests have been sent to FIU-BVI, Cyprus and Jersey. Summons were sent to Anil Ambani and his wife Tina Ambani under FEMA provisions and their statements have been recorded at ED's Mumbai office.Sachin Tendulkar members were beneficial owners of a BVI company — Saas International. The first reference to the company goes back to 2007 with it being wound up in 2016 soon after the publication of the Panama Papers. When liquidated, the shares of the company were bought back by the shareholders, Tendulkar, his wife Anjali Tendulkar and her father. Pandora records showed the family listed as PEPs (politically exposed person) since Tendulkar was also an ex-MP. Officials from Tendulkar's office had then called the BVI investments "legitimate".
Tendulkar and his family

Probe update: Invoking FEMA, ED sent a communication for ITR details of the cricket star. Directives were sent to the CEO of the company and his CA asking for information. An Egmont request has been sent to FIU of the BVI. Further investigations are in progress.Gautam Singhania chairman and MD, Raymond, acquired two companies in the BVI in 2008. One is Deras Worldwide, where he is the beneficial owner, with the purpose of acquisition shown as "to hold an account with UBS, Zurich". The other is Lyndonville Holdings, where Singhania and his father Vijaypat Singhania are shown as shareholders. This company was liquidated in 2016.

Probe update: After initiation of a FEMA probe, an Egmont request was sent to the BVI and reply received; queries were also sent to the RBI. I-T has been asked if any cases under the Black Money Act are pending against any member of the Singhania family. At least three summons have been sent to Singhania and his father, Vijaypat Singhania. The father recorded his statement on April 27, 2023, in which he denied any association with Deras. In response to a second summons, the statement of Singhania was recorded on June 1, 2023. His travel details have also been sought from the Bureau of Immigration.Niira Radia

Radia incorporated about a dozen offshore entities, five of these showed her as the master client with her Delhi address. Records had a slew of hefty financial transactions (including the purchase of a $251,500 watch in Dubai via one of the BVI firms) with emails showing that she was a "do not contact" client. She had said she did not recognise these firms and had no shareholding in them.

Probe update: Citing FEMA, ED asked Radia to provide details of the offshore firms and recorded her statement. Searches were conducted at her home under the PMLA Act. Data seized has been sent for analysis and fresh summons were issued. The statement of Radia's sister, Karuna Menon, recorded.*(For full report, see www.indianexpress.com)*COLOURED IN INSPIRATION.

WAS ENVILOUS OF SISTER, HAD DEBT: POLICE

Donning burqa, woman burgles mother's house, steals gold worth Rs 15 L

ARNABJIT SURI
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 4

ON JANUARY 30, Kamlesh, 65, a resident of Sewak Park in Uttam Nagar, approached the police to lodge a case of burglary at her residence. Apart from gold coins, several necklaces and gold earrings worth Rs 15 lakh, along with Rs 25,000 in cash, was reportedly stolen.

While scanning CCTV footage, police found that a burqa-clad woman, with a yellow bag in hand, had entered the house between 2pm and 2.30pm on the said date. On further investigation, police found that the woman was none other than Shweta, Kamlesh's elder daughter. Police said the 31-year-old had committed the theft because she was envious of her younger sister Monica, as she believed her mother was partial towards her, and decided to make off with the jewellery set aside for her wedding, which was scheduled in a few days.

Police said Shweta was also in some debt, including Rs 90,000 that she had borrowed from her mother, and carried out the theft to repay the amount. Police said Shweta's mother had been pressuring her to return the loan, albeit in small installments of Rs 5,000 to 10,000. Shweta was arrested from her Mohan Garden home on Saturday.

On how the police cracked the case, DCP (Dwarka) Ankit Singh said, "The team analysed the crime scene as soon as the theft was reported and found that there was no forced entry into the house. Neither the lock at the main door nor the cupboard where the jewellery was kept was found broken." He further said, "The team analysed CCTV footage of the spot in and found that a woman in black burqa had entered the house. Eventually, after questioning different family members, we reached Shweta, the elder daughter of the complainant." The officer said during questioning, Shweta revealed that she resented her younger sister due to her mother's fondness towards her. "Besides, she had some debt which she had to repay due to which she hatched this plan to steal from her own house," said the officer.

Changed clothes at Metro station toilet

Elaborating on how Shweta carried out her plan, the DCP said she was about to shift from her Mohan Garden home to Sewak Park due to which her mother had been visiting her place for the last couple of days. As soon as she would enter, Kamlesh would keep her house keys at a spot in

Boy 'throws' puppy off Greater Noida high-rise; FIR registered

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NOIDA, FEBRUARY 4

GAITAM BUDDHA Nagar police Saturday registered an FIR against a boy for allegedly throwing a puppy from a high-rise in Greater Noida West onto the road, resulting in the animal's death.

Police took action based on a complaint by a volunteer from an NGO, People for Animals (PFA), which is run by BJP MP Maneka Gandhi.

A purported video clip of the incident also went viral on social media, where the boy was seen picking up a puppy, which was crying and trying to escape, from the bushes and allegedly throwing it on the road from a height.

"We received a message on WhatsApp in which a child [was allegedly seen throwing] a puppy from a height and running away... under the supervision of a man. More children are being instigated by making a reel of this video and sharing it on the society's WhatsApp group and other social media platforms," DCP (Northwest) Jitendra Kumar Meena said the police received a call regarding the fire during the intervening night of Sunday.
