Healthcare Triangle Announces $3 Million Cloud DevOps Managed Services Agreement

Company's HITRUST-certified Cloud DevOps Managed Services enables new customer to quickly adopt and deploy cloud solutions in a secure, compliant, and scalable manner

PLEASANTON, Calif., March X, 2023 – Healthcare Triangle, Inc. (Nasdaq: HCTI) (“HCTI” or the “Company”), a leading provider of cloud and digital transformation, managed services, and data analytics solutions for the healthcare and life sciences industry, today announced a new $3 million agreement to provide Cloud DevOps Managed Services for a leading life sciences customer, reinforcing the Company’s position as a top player in the Cloud DevOps Managed Services business.

The customer, a forward-thinking oncology company leading the charge against cancer with next-generation medications and treatments, was seeking a partner to build and automate their enterprise cloud platform and create a DevOps operations platform to help them achieve their business goals. The customer sought to streamline their operations through a DevOps approach, selecting Healthcare Triangle’s automation and standardization solutions backed by extensive expertise and experience in DevOps.

Healthcare Triangle is laser focused on delivering next generation HITRUST certified Cloud DevOps Managed Services that enable customers to quickly adopt and deploy cloud solutions in a secure, compliant, and scalable manner. HCTI is benefiting from significant traction in this market as life sciences companies move to the cloud to improve efficiency and agility while reducing costs.

"We are very pleased to announce another large win in managed services for the life sciences segment," said Roy Sookhoo, COO of Healthcare Triangle. "Our superior industry knowledge, unique value proposition of combining deep domain expertise – including cloud technology, data analytics capabilities, and managed services – with world-class delivery capabilities is resonating with customers who are looking for transformational solutions. Healthcare Triangle’s solution not only addresses the customer's current needs, but also provided a roadmap for their future growth."
