Indian military getting future ready: Army chief

FPJ BUREAU / Bengaluru

India is developing highly sophisticated and accurate indigenous systems for fighting future wars, Chief of Army Staff General Manoj Pandey said on Tuesday. "With the kind of ecosystem we have and the capability civil defence industries have, we would be able to fight future wars with complete indigenous systems in eight to 10 years," he said on the sidelines of Aero India 2023.

The indigenous systems would integrate artificial intelligence and machine learning processes into the weaponry, Pandey said.

The army aims to empower infantry by increasing situational awareness, providing better surveillance systems and small arms weapon systems, and enhancing fighting capabilities at the night. "When it comes to the armoured corps, we're looking at future-ready tanks with better protection systems. For the corps of artillery, the army wants mountain guns to engage long-range targets with precision," the army chief explained.

Pandey said Russia-Ukraine conflict "has brought out the fact that it is important to be self-reliant in niche technologies to fight future wars". Meanwhile, the UK said it is committed to making its biggest capability transfer in history as part of the UK-India plan to co-create a jet engine to Indian specifications. "This is not like other platforms where India would have to seek permissions to export either," Alex Chalk, UK minister for defence procurement, said at the Aero India show.

Currently five nations have this (jet engine) technology. "India will be the sixth and it will be a sovereign make-in-India capability. The UK already has a headstart on it and spent two years in intensive work, including the concept phase," Chalk said. India is an important pillar of rules-based order and to achieve that it needs military capability, he said. "That is the context for this significant step we are taking in India. The Rolls Royce deal would be a pivotal moment in UK-India relationship. Rolls Royce's civil capability in India can be used to help accelerate the progress on the military side. If the Rolls Royce deal goes ahead, the sky's the limit in terms of future jet engine technology," he said.

With UK's participation and India's move to be self-reliant, India's defence exports are primed to more than treble from the current $1.5 billion to $5 billion by 2024-25.

ADANI ISSUE

Why is govt running from JPC probe: Cong

AGENCIES / New Delhi

The Centre is "running away" from a JPC probe into the Adani-Hindenburg issue, the Congress alleged on Tuesday and said the government should allow the investigation if has nothing to hide. The Congress' attack on the government came after Union Home Minister Amit Shah's reported remarks that there is nothing for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) to hide or be afraid of in the matter. Addressing a press conference at the AICC headquarters here, Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh said he has written to Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das and Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) chief Madhabi Puri Buch for an impartial probe into allegations against the Adani Group. Reacting to Shah's reported remarks, Ramesh said, "If they do not have anything to hide, why are they running away from a Joint Parliamentary Committee (probe)." "They do not even allow us to raise the demand of JPC in Parliament. When our leaders, including party president Mallikarjun Kharge ji, raised the demand for JPC, their remarks were expunged," Ramesh said.

ALLEGATIONS POINT FINGER AT CENTRE: STALIN

CHENNAI: The allegations against the Adani group are direct accusations against the BJP government and hence a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) probe should be ordered by the Centre and the matter must be debated in Parliament, DMK president and Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin said here on Tuesday. The questions posed by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi in the Parliament on the issue are pertinent and it is shocking that Prime Minister Narendra Modi did not even utter a word as his answer, he said. Expunging remarks made in Parliament cannot erase the matter from the people's hearts, he said.

He believes that the Congress will win 40-50 seats. "The Congress party may not get the majority, unless there is a miracle," he said.

The MP from Bhuvanagiri said Bharat Rashtira Samithi will have to join hands with the Congress to form the government.

Tipra Motha may form govt

Ambassa: In case of a deadlock with no alliance or party able to gain majority in the elections to the Tripura assembly, the Tipra Motha may stake claim to form government, its president Bijoy Kumar Hrangkhawli said. The party is also willing to give outside support to any party or alliance (either the BJP or the Congress-Left combine) to form government, if it agrees that it will concede to Tipra Motha's demand for creation of a separate tribal state.

Tata Sons Chairman N Chandrabosekar announced that Air India will acquire 250 aircraft, including 40 wide-body planes, from Airbus. Addressing an online event at which the purchase of Airbus aircraft was announced, Modi said the "landmark deal" reflects the deepening ties between India and France, as well as the successes and aspirations of India's civil aviation sector. "Our civil aviation sector is an integral part of India's development. Strengthening the civil aviation sector is an important aspect of our national infrastructure policy," he said.

In the last eight years, the number of airports has gone up from 74 to 147, Modi pointed out. Through the scheme UDAN, remote parts of the country are also being connected through air connectivity, which is giving a boost to the economic and social development of the people, he said.

In the near future, India would become the third biggest market in the world in the aviation sector, he said. In the next 15 years, over 2,000 aircraft would be required, he added. Many new opportunities are opening up in aerospace manufacturing under India's 'Make in India - Make for the World' vision, the prime minister said.

ADANI ISSUE

Why is govt running from JPC probe: Cong

AGENCIES / New Delhi

The Centre is "running away" from a JPC probe into the Adani-Hindenburg issue, the Congress alleged on Tuesday and said the government should allow the investigation if has nothing to hide. The Congress' attack on the government came after Union Home Minister Amit Shah's reported remarks that there is nothing for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) to hide or be afraid of in the matter. Addressing a press conference at the AICC headquarters here, Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh said he has written to Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das and Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) chief Madhabi Puri Buch for an impartial probe into allegations against the Adani Group. Reacting to Shah's reported remarks, Ramesh said, "If they do not have anything to hide, why are they running away from a Joint Parliamentary Committee (probe)." "They do not even allow us to raise the demand of JPC in Parliament. When our leaders, including party president Mallikarjun Kharge ji, raised the demand for JPC, their remarks were expunged," Ramesh said.

ALLEGATIONS POINT FINGER AT CENTRE: STALIN

CHENNAI: The allegations against the Adani group are direct accusations against the BJP government and hence a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) probe should be ordered by the Centre and the matter must be debated in Parliament, DMK president and Tamil Nadu Chief Minister M K Stalin said here on Tuesday. The questions posed by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi in the Parliament on the issue are pertinent and it is shocking that Prime Minister Narendra Modi did not even utter a word as his answer, he said. Expunging remarks made in Parliament cannot erase the matter from the people's hearts, he said.

Terrorism an evil affecting life and liberty of people, says Kerala HC

It affects the growth of the nation in all respects. In fact, no religion propagates terrorism or hatred

AGENCIES Kochi

Terrorism is an evil affecting the life and liberty of people and the growth of the nation in all respects, Kerala High Court said while refusing to suspend the sentence of three persons convicted of attempting to travel to Syria to join ISIS. No religion propagates terrorism or hatred but some fanatics or religious fundamentalists have distorted the views of religion for spreading messages of terrorism and hatred, the court said. A bench of Justice Alexander Thomas and Justice Sophy Thomas refused to suspend the sentence and grant bail to the trio — Midlaj, Abdul Razak and Hamza — considering the gravity of the offence prima facie proved against them even though they have undergone a major portion of their sentence.

"Terrorism is an evil affecting the life and liberty of people. It affects the growth of the nation in all respects. In fact, no religion propagates terrorism or hatred. "But, unfortunately, some fanatics or religious fundamentalists have distorted the views of religion, for spreading messages of terrorism and hatred, without realising the amount of damage it is doing to the society as well as to the country as a whole," the high court said.

The court said in its order that innocent youth attracted by the call of terror organisations fall prey to violence and anti-national activities, destroying the tranquility in society, unmindful of the freedom, liberty and safety of their fellow beings, and the integrity of the nation.
