Between The Lines: Fearless Kuldip Nayyar, Journalism's conscience

COOPI KAPOOR New Delhi, August 23

KULDIP NAYYAR WORE so many hats in his eventful life that the tired old cliché, 'a dozen of Indian journalism', does not really fit. As a newsman, he scooped some of the biggest breaks in political journalism in his time and gained a reputation for chronicling political events in the country over half a century, providing extraordinary insight and insider information in his popular column, appropriately called 'Between the Lines'.

Nayyar had a way with people, never pulled rank and never resorted to publicity stunts from people in government or top government officials. Consequently, he had many spectacular scoops to his credit. Reporting for United News of India (UNI) in Lucknow, he was the first to get the news of Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's death while he was in the hospital in Lucknow.

After an interview with Pakistani Prime Minister, Chaudhry Khwaja Nazimuddin, he was the first to get the news of the Prime Minister's death while he was in the hospital in Lucknow. He was also the first to report the news of the resignation of Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru. He was also the first to report the news of the resignation of Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru. He was also the first to report the news of the resignation of Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru.

Even governments not in tune with his views often turned to him for advice on relations with Pakistan, since he remained in close touch with politicians, the intelligent media and people of all persuasions, many of whom he knew intimately. He was the one who then Prime Minister, Atal Bihari Vajpayee, rode in the historic inaugural journey between Amritsar and Lahore in 1999.

Consequently, he had many spectacular scoops to his credit.
