'Only JPC prong' out the truth

OUR BUREAU

New Delhi, February 14

Attacking the Comptroller and Auditor General's (CAG) report on the Rafale deal, the Congress said it was "useless", adding that the Centre tried to make the truth by asking the CAG to hide the commercial details of the deal.

Former finance minister N. Chandrababu Naidu reiterated on Thursday that only a Joint Parliamentary Committee can hold a detailed probe into the deal.

"What does that numbers on the tables mean?" he asked, making fun of the symbols the CAG used to hide the figures involved in the deal.

'CAG is no God'

When asked if the Congress was attacking the institution, he said the CAG is not God and added that the PAC will look into the report.

He said the CAG allowed itself to become a joke and the honourable government in future will restore the prestige and credibility of the institution.
