Attempts made to browbeat judiciary: Cal HC judge says issuing rule of contempt

KOLKATA, JAN 12/--/ Issuing a rule of contempt against some advocates and other persons who allegedly blocked his courtroom and locked it from outside and also over derogatory posters near his residence, Justice Rajasekhra Mantha of the Calcutta High Court has said that the acts amount to interference in the administration of justice.

Protests were held by a section of lawyers outside Justice Mantha's courtroom on January 9 over certain orders passed by him. Holding that there is interference in the administration of justice by a section of advocates and some persons, Justice Mantha said, "Attempts have been made to browbeat, intimidate, instil fear in this Court, from discharging its functions, by making false, misleading and baseless allegations in the said posters."

Issuing a suo motu rule of contempt against the said advocates and the persons concerned, Justice Mantha observed that such acts amount to interference in the administration of justice.

"There has been a clear attempt to interfere with the justice delivery system of this Constitutional Court by the said section of the Advocates and persons, by locking up the courtroom from outside and preventing access to the courtroom to lawyers, litigants and court staff," he said in the order.

Justice Mantha noted that apart from locking up his courtroom, defamatory posters were affixed around his residence at Jodhpur Park in south Kolkata and around the precincts of the high court. In his order, the judge said that the allegation of illegal occupation of the residence by the judge is incorrect and untrue.

"The said allegation is reckless, false, untrue and incorrect since the conveyance for the purchase of the residential accommodation at the 1st floor 231, Jodhpur Park, Kolkata 700068 is duly registered with the concerned Registrar of Assurances at Kolkata," he said. Justice Mantha said that a clear attempt has been made by the said advocates and the said persons to lower the dignity of this court in the eyes of the public at large.

"In view of the above, this court issues a suo motu rule of contempt against the said advocates and the concerned persons," he ordered. He observed that the conduct of the advocates and the said persons in locking up the courtroom from outside and the publication of the said posters "tend to shake and has shaken the confidence of the community in the justice delivery system."

Justice Mantha said that the Registrar General of this Court can identify the names and particulars of the said advocates and persons from CCTV footage of the date and time outside his courtroom.

"This is a matter of grave importance concerning the dignity of this Court. Hence, let this Rule/Order be placed before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice for constitution of an appropriate bench, to hear the matter," he said in the January 10 order. Demanding that Justice Mantha's determination be changed, meaning that he be assigned matters on other subjects, some lawyers had held protests on January 9 outside his courtroom. The small section of lawyers on Monday demonstrated over some orders passed by Justice Mantha, including one passed in December last year that gave protection to the Leader of Opposition in the West Bengal Assembly and BJP MLA Suwendu Adhikari directing the state police not to register any more FIRs against him without the high court's permission.

Justice Mantha had also stayed all the FIRs referred to in a petition by Adhikari, wherein he claimed that 26 FIRs had been registered against him in different police stations of the state to prevent him from performing his function as a people's representative at the instance of the ruling dispensation in the state. KOLKATA, JAN 12/--/ Colourful rallies were taken out across West Bengal and prayer sessions held at various centres of Ramakrishna Mission (RKM) to mark the 161st birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda on Thursday.

At his birth place in north Kolkata, restored by RKM a few years ago, people were seen making a beeline to enter the museum housed inside to pay floral obeisance. Several clubs and social organisations took out rallies and arranged cultural events on the occasion in different parts of Bengal. Men and women, donning traditional attire, walked the streets of Kolkata alongside colourful tableaux that displayed pictures of the spiritual genius.

Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee paid tribute to the great monk on Facebook. Sharing an image of Vivekananda with photos of Belur Math, Banerjee wrote one of his quotes to pay him tribute.

"God can be found in those who serve humanity, in different forms manifested before us," she wrote in Bengali. Leader of Opposition Suwendu Adhikari posted a video of his visit to Swamiji's ancestral home and described Vivekananda as "the spiritual awakener of Modern India and a timeless youth icon who is revered the world over".

Vivekananda's 161st birth anniversary observed with fanfare in Bengal

Swami Vivekananda on his Birth day at his House North Kolkata on Thursday--Shyamaal Maitra

"Vivekananda's teachings on Education, Nationalism and Spirituality would always remain relevant and inspire the Youth of India," he wrote on Twitter. The ruling TMC pledged to uphold Vivekananda's teachings and follow his ideals.

"We remember the great spiritual leader and thinker

Swami Vivekananda on his birth anniversary. We pledge to uphold his teachings and walk on the path of service to the humankind," the party tweeted. Giving a political twist to the occasion, Adhikari later said that the TMC-run government has "failed to fulfil Swamiji's vision to empower the youth".

"Youth of Bengal are forced to leave the state for job. There are no employment opportunities for them. The education system is in a shambles. This is not the Bengal Swamiji had dreamed about," he told reporters. Sharply reacting to his assertion, West Bengal minister and TMC leader Sashi Panja stated that the BJP is "spreading toxicity on a pious day".

"We don't want to stoop so low and indulge in political mudslinging on such an occasion. What the BJP has claimed about our employment scenario is wrong. (PTI)

TMC worker shot dead in Purba Bardhaman

KOLKATA, JAN 12/--/A Trinamool Congress activist was shot dead allegedly by two unidentified bike-borne assailants at Ketugram in Purba Bardhaman district Thursday morning, ahead of panchayat polls in West Bengal. A police officer said Dulal Sheikh, an active TMC worker in the area, was shot at point-blank range when he was sipping tea at a stall in Amgaria Bazar. Sheikh (50) was rushed to a nearby health centre where he was declared brought dead, he said.

"My father had been threatened with dire consequences by some people who belong to a rival faction of TMC in the area. He was involved in the supply of sand and building materials," Sheikh's son said. TMC state vice president Joy Prakash Majumdar said "Ahead of the panchayat polls, BJP and CPI(M) are hatching a conspiracy to eliminate influential TMC members in different areas. It has to be investigated to find out whether Sheikh was a victim of any such plan."

BJP state spokesperson Samik Bhattacharya said, "TMC factions are involved in brutal attacks against each other. They are turning West Bengal into killing fields."

CPI(M) central committee member Sujan Chakraborty said, "TMC workers and leaders are now fighting over spoils from activities like sand mining, smuggling and supply of building materials. Such incidents will rise with polls drawing near." (PTI)

India great example of how financial inclusion can work: German envoy

KOLKATA, JAN 12/--/India is a great example of how to bring about financial inclusion and it needs to share this experience with the world at large, a German diplomat, who was a part of the delegation at a recent G20 meeting in Kolkata, said. He also said that India has taken over the G20 presidency from Indonesia at a crucial time for world development.

"India is a great example of how financial inclusion can work. Over the last 10-odd years, you have made tremendous progress, and are much further advanced when it comes to electronic payment methods than, say, Germany foreexample," Manfred Auster, the Consul General of Germany in Kolkata, told PTI. Auster was a part of the delegation at the first Global Partnership for Financial Inclusion meeting of the G20, which was held from January 9-11.

"In India, you pay everything with Unified Payments Interface (UPI), every small vendor will accept it. But in Germany, we still use quite a lot of cash. Financial inclusion is important as common people, especially women, can participate in the economy."

"Bring your experience in this field to the world at large, make the know-how available to other countries, which have not had that opportunity to advance in terms of financial inclusion," the envoy said. Auster said

India's G20 motto of 'One Earth, One Family, One Future' captures the spirit of the world. India assumed the presidency of the influential bloc G20 at its annual summit in Bali in November last year.

"The country has taken over presidency from Indonesia at a crucial time for world development. Its motto definitely makes sense when we are faced with so many crises ranging from climate change to the Russian war against Ukraine," Auster added. G20 leaders are understood to have discussed a wide range of issues on digital financial inclusion, remittances and availability of finance for SMEs during the three-day meeting in Kolkata. (PTI)

Odisha govt doctors threaten stir from February 1

BHUBANESWAR, JAN 12/--/The Odisha Medical Service Association (OMSA) has warned of a stir from February 1 to protest against the state government's alleged "dilly-dallying" approach in implementing a promotion scheme for doctors. OMSA president Dr Narayan Rout and general secretary Dr Biswajit Samal said doctors across the state have all along supported the administration and taken great risks during the COVID-19 pandemic. Their "genuine demand" for implementation of the Dynamic Assured Career Progression (DACP) has not been met thus frustrating the aspirations of hundreds of doctors working in the government sector. States like Bihar have implemented the scheme after the Centre introduced it in 2006, Dr Rout said. The DACP assures a time-bound promotion for doctors. As part of the stir, the OMSA members will first wear black badges on February 1 and then go on a relay strike before deciding to proceed on a strike work agitation, Dr Rout said.

"We are optimistic that the government will consider our genuine demands which also include regularisation of ad-hoc doctors," he said. The OMSA in a press note said despite several rounds of talks with the state government, no step has been taken so far to fulfil the demands. The association is also demanding the withdrawal of the policy making it mandatory for a doctor to work in the unorganised KBK (Kalahandi-Balangir-Koraput) region for a specified period before his/her retirement. ## Level playing field needed for people with disabilities: Jerry White

KOLKATA, JAN 12/--/ Nobel laureate Jerry White said that there is a need for creating a level-playing field for people with disabilities, particularly in the business space.

Speaking at a session organised by the Merchant Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI) here on Wednesday, White, co-recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1997 said that he had lost a leg in a landmine when he was in Israel in 1984 while studying Judaism. White, a Roman Catholic, said "there is a need to change policies and systems to create a level playing field for people with disabilities". He also said there is also a need to think about diversity for expansion of the thinking faculty of people."

"I was a student of theology, and studied various religions, including Islam. I wanted to expand my thinking. But the place where I was staying in the US, there was no scope to think of diversity as there were no Hindus, no Jews and no Islam. But there is a need to think of diversity", he stated. Whitesaid "being a landmine survivor, I had formed the Landmine Survivors Network. I learnt then that landmines killed more people than biological, chemical or nuclear weapons".

What is also needed is the value-centric leadership that infuses to do the right thing.

"Although I was a vocal critic of the US foreign policy, I was a political appointee during the Obama administration at a senior level. There is need to celebrate inclusiveness in every sphere", he said. White also spent his time on nuclear nonproliferation and helped several landmine victims to get jobs. (PTI)
