₹3,760-cr viability gap finance for battery energy storage systems

CABINET NOD. Financial support up to 40% of the 'initial outlay' will be provided to firms setting up units

Our Bureau
New Delhi

The Union Cabinet on Wednesday approved the scheme for viability gap funding (VGF) of ₹3,760 crore for the development of battery energy storage systems (BESS). "The approved scheme envisages development of 4,000 megawatt hour (MWh) of BESS projects by 2030-31 with a financial support of up to 40 per cent of the capital cost as budgetary support in the form of VGF," the government said. A watershed moment in the long list of pro-environment measures taken by the government, the move is expected to bring down the cost of battery storage systems increasing their viability, it added.

Designed to harness the potential of renewable energy (RE) sources such as solar and wind power, the scheme aims to provide clean, reliable, and affordable electricity to the citizens.

INITIAL OUTLAY
Out of the total project outlay of ₹9,400 crore, the government will provide 40 per cent,

ENERGY BOOST. Anurag Singh Thakur, Union Minister for Information & Broadcasting, addressing a press conference in New Delhi. KAMAL NARANG

of ₹3,760 crore, as VGF and the remaining will have to be invested by the participating company. By offering VGF support, the scheme targets achieving a levelised cost of storage (LCoS) ranging from ₹5.50-6.60 per kilowatt-hour (kWh), making stored renewable energy a viable option for managing peak power demand across the country. The VGF shall be disbursed in five tranches linked with the various stages of implementation of BESS projects, it added. To ensure that the benefits of the scheme reach the consumers, a minimum of 85 per cent of the BESS project capacity will be made available to distribution companies (Discoms). This will not only enhance the integration of renewable energy into the electricity grid but also minimise wastage while optimising the utilisation of transmission networks. Consequently, this will reduce the need for costly infrastructure upgrades. The selection of BESS developers for VGF grants will be carried out through a transparent competitive bidding process, promoting a level playing field for both public and private sector entities. This approach will foster healthy competition and encourage the growth of a robust ecosystem for BESS, attracting significant investments and generating opportunities for associated industries.

INDUSTRY WELCOMES VGF
Welcoming the development Log9 Materials Co-founder & Director Pankaj Sharma said, "Since battery storage technologies are in nascent stages. VGF would play a critical role in bridging the development cost that battery manufacturers need during technology development stages. This will also come in handy for pre-commercial battery projects to reach commercial stage.

Moreover, this funding from the government has the benefit of bringing non-dilutive capital to battery tech companies thus lowering the pressure of fund raise during the early technology development stage of various battery tech start-ups. Overall, a good move from the government and India is showing its clear intent to develop and promote indigenisation of battery tech in the country, he added.

Kartik Ganapathy, Founding Partner of INDUSLAW, said by declaring that the scheme will have a transparent competitive bidding process and mandating that a minimum of 85 per cent of the BESS project capacity will be made available to Discoms, the twin objectives of fostering innovation and investment, as well as benefiting the public at large are sought to be achieved.

"There are certainly some minutiae to be ironed out, including a spot energy market, carbon credits, and the working of the electricity duty and cross-subsidy surcharge (particularly when input power is utilised for charging the energy storage system, to call out a few. The scheme could be made more lucrative by waiving stamp duty and registration fees on land acquisition designated for the installation of energy storage systems.

"A PLI programme to promote indigenous manufacturing could also facilitate not only technology and innovation, but also create employment opportunities, further advancing the agenda of development," he added.

₹1,165-crore funding for industrial development in HP, Uttarakhand

Our Bureau
New Delhi

The Union Cabinet on Wednesday approved funds of ₹1,164.53 crore for Industrial Development Scheme (IDS), 2017 for Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand. This is for additional fund requirement to meet committed liabilities under the scheme up to 2028-29.

"It is anticipated to generate direct employment opportunities for about 48,607 people by 774 registered units," the official statement added.

FINANCIAL OUTLAY

Under this scheme announced in 2018, the total financial outlay of ₹131.90 crore was allocated. The statement said that this allocated fund has been exhausted during the financial year 2021-22.

"Further, the requirement of an additional fund to meet the committed liabilities up to 2028-29 is ₹1,164.53 crore. For allocation of this additional financial outlay, approval of the Cabinet was solicited under Industrial Development Scheme, 2017," it added.

Under this scheme, all eligible and existing industrial units on their substantial expansion in the manufacturing and service sector located anywhere in Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand will be provided Central Capital Investment Incentive for Access to Credit (CCIAC) at 30 per cent of the investment in plant and machinery with an upper limit of ₹5 crore.

INSURANCE PREMIUM

All eligible new and existing industrial units on their substantial expansion located in the two States are also eligible for "reimbursement of 100 per cent insurance premium" on insurance of building and plant & machinery for a maximum period of 5 years from the date of commencement of commercial production/operation.

In the past two months, Himachal Pradesh has faced widespread destruction of infrastructure due to torrential rains. Over 13,000 homes have been either fully or partially damaged. As per State government estimates, 400 people have died due to rain-related disaster.

RoDTEP may be extended to chemical, steel, pharma

Amiti Sen
New Delhi

The popular export benefit scheme - Remission of Duty and Taxes on Exported Products (RoDTEP) - is likely to be extended to the chemicals, pharmaceuticals and steel sectors beyond September 30 for at least six months, sources have said.

But the Finance Ministry is unlikely to bring SEZ/EOU exports and Advance Authorisation scheme exports under the ambit of the scheme despite representations from the Commerce Department.

"As exports have been declining this fiscal across sectors, there is a need for extending all possible assistance to exporters. Also, the amount of remission would be relatively low as exports are low. So, the benefits can be extended to chemicals, steel and pharmaceuticals for another six months at least," a person tracking the matter told businessline.

RODTEP SCHEME

The RoDTEP scheme refunds exporters the embedded duties/taxes that are not rebated under other schemes. These include VAT on fuel used in transportation, mandi tax and duty on electricity used during manufacturing.

When the RoDTEP scheme was announced in January 2021, as a replacement for the WTO-incompatible MEIS scheme, it covered 8,731 items from most export sectors with the exception of organic and inorganic chemicals, pharmaceuticals and iron & steel.

Later the government decided to extend the benefits also to the three excluded sectors, but just from December 2022 till September 30, 2023.

"The idea is to offer RoDTEP benefits to the iron & steel, chemicals and pharmaceuticals sectors on a piece-meal basis based on funds availability," the source said.

Exports from SEZ/EOU and Advance Authorisation exports, that the Commerce Department had been pushing for coverage under the scheme, is, however, likely to be kept out.

"The Finance Ministry is not too keen to take on new sectors for coverage under the RoDTEP scheme as it does not want to increase its financial burden. But the Commerce Department is doing its bit to convince," the official said.

India's criticism of Russia for Ukraine war in G20 Summit communique is 'not enough': EU, G7

Amiti Sen
New Delhi

India's proposed text for the G20 Leaders' Summit joint communique in the ongoing negotiations so far is "not enough" in terms of criticism of Russia for its war on Ukraine, a senior EU official has said.

Russia and China are also opposed to the language on fossil fuel phasing down and emission reduction that were agreed to in Bali last year which made things more difficult, the official said at a media briefing on Wednesday.

"It has been very tough negotiations, especially on geopolitics, and it is going on. The text, as it is produced by India is not enough. The G7, the EU and its member countries feel it is not going far enough," the official said, referring to the Russian war on Ukraine and its repercussions on the world.

Heads of state from most G-20 nations, with some exceptions such as Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese President Xi Jinping, will be in Delhi on September 9-10 for the G20 Summit under India's Presidency. The areas being highlighted by the EU for the summit also include climate change, reforms of multilateral development banks

(MDBs) and AIs, he added. On whether a joint communique was possible at the Summit, the EU official said it was difficult to predict. "If we manage 19 against 1 that would not be bad in a way. We need reflection of our position and what is important for us, and we are well supported. It is more Russia that is isolated than G7," he said.

FOSSIL FUEL

On climate, the official said it would not be possible to go beyond what was agreed at the Bali Summit last year when it comes to phasing down fossil fuel or peaking of emission.

The debate on MDBs and debt management was still happening, he added.

Confident of striking a forward-looking FTA with India: Rishi Sunak

Press Trust of India
New Delhi

British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak on Wednesday said there was "still some way to go" for a free trade pact with India to be finalised, but appeared confident that the final outcome will be a "forward-looking" and

"modern" deal that would benefit both sides and facilitate shared ambition of doubling trade by 2030. In an exclusive interview to PTI, Sunak said the trade deal could help Indian exporters gain access to the British market, including India's 48 million small and medium enterprises.

"A modern, forward-looking free trade agreement can put us firmly on the path to our shared ambition of doubling UK-India trade by 2030," Sunak said.

"It's very exciting to have this opportunity to expand our trade relationship, and to be the first European country that India has negotiated a free trade deal with."

"A trade deal could help Indian exporters gain access to the UK market, including India's 48 million small and medium enterprises. We want a deal that slashes tariffs and red tape, helping Indian consumers and businesses get easier access to the UK goods they already enjoy," he said.

The British premier said good progress has been made in the negotiations and that there is still some way to go to finalise the pact.

India seeks more natural gas amid emergency measures to end blackouts

India is seeking additional volumes of natural gas and has asked utilities to expedite completion of power plant maintenance, as part of emergency steps to stop electricity outages, according to a government note seen by Reuters.

Grid Controller of India. The Central Electricity Authority, an advisory body to the federal Power Ministry, had said last year that India might have to add as much as 28 GW of coal-fired power in addition to the plants under construction to address surging power demand.

LACK OF RAINS

Below-normal rains have resulted in lower hydro-power generation which is likely to drop further after September-October with the withdrawal of monsoons, the note said.

"The maximum hydro generation achieved this year has been less than 40 GW against 45 GW last year," the note said.

"A similar trend is visible in wind generation also, which is higher from June to September."
