GIFT CITY
Deakin University starts admission process, 10.7 lakh per yr for masters

RITUSHARMA
AHMEDABAD, NOVEMBER 8

AUSTRALIA'S DEAKIN University, the first foreign university to set up an international campus at GIFT City in Gandhinagar, started seeking applications on Tuesday for its two postgraduate programmes – session starting July 2024 – at an annual fee of AUD 19,000 (around Rs 10.7 lakh).

This was announced during the second day of the visit by the Australian delegation to Gujarat, led by Education Minister Jason Clare.

Australia's University in Wollongong, meanwhile, announced that it will start seeking applications at its GIFT City branch for masters in computing (data analytics) from January next year for the July 2024 session. The university will open admission for its undergraduate programme in computing in 2025.

"Today marks a historic milestone in India's journey in the field of higher education, as we celebrate the announcement of two campuses, Deakin and University in Wollongong in GIFT City," Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan said.

He was speaking at the 'Arambh (The Beginning): Australian University Campuses in India' programme at Gift City. The Australian delegation, along with Pradhan, also visited the under-construction sites of both Deakin and Wollongong campuses.

The 25,000 sq ft campus of Deakin University is set to be inaugurated in January 2024, likely during the Vibrant Gujarat Summit. Applications for admission will be accepted till March 31.

"We will charge AUD 19,000, which is nearly Rs 10 lakh per annum. The cost of living will be around Rs 2.5 lakh per annum for students. That is roughly half the cost of what a student has to pay in the Australian campus," Deakin University Vice-Chancellor Prof Iain Martin said.

He added that from next year, the university will offer masters programmes in cyber security (professional) and business analytics.

BJP worker found dead, party demands CBI probe

KOLKATA, NOVEMBER 8

THE BODY of a 26-year-old BJP worker, who had contested panchayat elections earlier this year, was found hanging from a tree with his hands tied at his village, Nidhirampur, in Bankura district on Wednesday morning.

While the family of Subhadeep Mishra alias Dipu said that he had eloped with a married woman a week ago and had received threats, the BJP alleged that Trinamool Congress men killed their party worker.

"We have started an investigation into the matter. The body has been sent for postmortem," said a police officer.

PM slams Nitish over 'indecent' remarks: 'He has no shame, his partners are silent'

ANAND MOHAN J
BHOPAL, NOVEMBER 8

PRIME MINISTER Narendra Modi Wednesday criticised Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar's crude remarks on how education among women has helped control population, saying he "doesn't have any shame", and the country was humiliated in front of the world because of his comments. The CM, meanwhile, apologised for his remarks with folded hands.

Nitish was speaking during the tabling of the caste census report in the Bihar legislative assembly. During his address, the CM suggested that an educated woman is able to ensure sex doesn't necessarily end in pregnancy, which helps keep the population in check.

"If I have said certain things that have been inviting so much criticism... If what I said was wrong, I apologise. I take back my words. If my statement is being criticised, I apologise," Kumar said just before the beginning of the third day of the Assembly session.

On Wednesday, Modi addressed three rallies in Madhya Pradesh's Damoh, Guna and Morena.

In Guna, he said, "Those who read newspapers, those who watch TV, their attention must have gone to an incident yesterday... One of the big leaders of the INDI Alliance, who roams around with the flag of their alliance... that leader said indecent things in the assembly, where mothers and sisters were also present. No one can imagine it. He doesn't have any shame. Not only that, not a single leader of the alliance was ready to say a word against the terrible insult of mothers and sisters." "Those who have such an attitude towards mothers and sisters, can they ever do good for you? How low will you stoop? You are humiliating the country in front of the world. My mothers and sisters, I will not back down and will do whatever possible for your respect," Modi said.

Earlier, speaking in Damoh, Modi remarked on Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge's comments in Gwalior a day earlier. Kharge had termed Modi, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, ED, CBI and IT as the "Panch Pandavas".

Modi said that before 2014, the Prime Minister of the country was remote controlled by the Congress, and these days Kharge is controlled by a remote.

"The Congress president is... my good friend. But today his condition is such that he cannot do anything. Sometimes I see that our Congress president comes in his mood. Sometimes when this remote's battery is over or its connectivity is broken, some good things come out of his mouth. I read somewhere yesterday that he remembered the Pandavas. When the remote runs, he abuses Sanatan. So, when the remote stopped, he remembered the Pandavas yesterday. And he said that there are five Pandavas in BJP. We are proud that we are walking on the path of the five Pandavas. What could cause more pride than this?"

Kharge had also said in his speech: "But these are not the actual Pandavas, these are ones that need to be defeated."

Modi also claimed the Congress had an objection to his announcement pertaining to the five-year extension of food-grains to beneficiaries under the National Food Security Act, 2013. "They have been going to the Election Commission for two days. They will complain against Modi. How can he talk about giving free food to the poor? Who does Modi think he is? Brother, do whatever you want to do. The poor are mine. I do whatever I do for them. Whatever punishment I get, I will take it. But I will not stop working for the poor... Let the Congress do whatever they want. They keep doing their sins. I will keep doing my virtue," he said.

Impaled by iron rod at construction site, man saved after 15-hr surgery

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

A 32-YEAR-OLD man survived after he fell into a 3-5-foot deep pit at a construction site and was impaled by a thick iron rod that went through his abdomen. Police said it was successfully removed after surgery.

The incident took place on the Saharanpur highway construction site in Northeast Delhi's Shastri Park, Monday evening. The man, Sayeed Kamal Mustafa, was walking near the site when he accidentally slipped and fell into the pit where the highway pillars were being installed. "There were no pillars where he fell but he was impaled on an iron rod, which was placed in the pit as a foundation for the pillar," said an officer.

Construction workers made a PCR call at 7.21pm, and police sent several teams to the spot. "We cut the rod and carefully removed the man without moving him much. A lot of movement could have led to more injuries or blood loss," said the officer.

DCP (Northeast) Joy N Tirkey said, "After cutting part of the rod, the man was rushed to Lok Nayak hospital, with the rod inside his body. It was then removed through surgery. He is stable and we are trying to identify his family members."

According to Dr Suresh Kumar, Medical Director at Lok Nayak Hospital, the rod had pierced Kamal through his right buttock and came out of his abdomen. Doctors said none of his vital organs were damaged.

"He underwent a major 15-hour surgery and is now stable and in the ICU. It was a 4-foot long rod that hurt his intestine and stomach. A team of doctors saved vital organs including the gall bladder, liver, blood vessels, and nerves... it was a challenging task," said Dr Kumar, adding that Kamal will now need 7-10 days to fully recover from the wounds. Doctors said a CT scan was conducted to decide the process of the surgery and three kinds of surgeries were performed on Kamal – laparoscopic, open surgery and minimally invasive surgery.

Meanwhile, police have filed a case under IPC sections 336 (act endangering life) and 337 (causing hurt by act endangering life) but have not taken action against anyone yet.

Rape case against govt officer: Delhi court takes cognizance of chargesheet

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

A DELHI COURT on Wednesday took cognizance of a charge sheet filed against suspended city government officer Premoday Khakha and his wife Seema Rani in a case of alleged rape of a minor.

While Khakha is accused of raping the minor several times and impregnating her, his wife allegedly gave the girl medicine to terminate her pregnancy.

Special Judge (POCSO) Richa Parihar took cognizance of the charge sheet, saying there was prima facie sufficient material to proceed against the accused.

The judge also directed the prosecuting agency to supply copies of the charge sheet to the accused, both of whom are currently in judicial custody. The court will further hear the matter on December 5.

Khakha had allegedly raped the girl several times between November 2020 and January 2021. She was staying at the residence of the accused, a family friend, after her father passed away, the police had said.

SC refuses to vacate status quo on hiring of 'archakas' in Tamil Nadu temples

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday refused to vacate or modify the status quo ordered by it on the appointment of archakas (priests) in Tamil Nadu temples established as per agamic traditions.

Though the state contended that "the appointment of archakas falls under the secular part of the temple administration", a bench of Justices A S Bopanna and M M Sundresh refused to agree.

The Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Department (HR&CE) under the ruling DMK government had proposed to recruit archakas who had passed a one-year certificate course from training schools established under the department and who had taken further training.

This decision was challenged before the SC by an association of archakas. The organisation pointed out that "in respect of Saivite temples, only Sivachariyars/ Gurukkals/ Adi Saivars/ Battars alone can perform pooja.

Similarly in respect of Vaishnavite temples, only Vaikanasa or Pancharatra Battachariyars alone can perform pooja". It said "Agama is an extensive subject that requires years of intense training... under learned Gurus... to obtain proficiency" and is not something that can be garnered by a certificate course.

"...they obtain Deekshai or Samskara (initiation) from their Guru/Acharya, who is most often their respective fathers, at a very early age – between 5 and 7 years – and undergo rigorous Vedic education for a minimum period of three years. Thereafter, they are groomed to perform poojas and homams for another three to five years before taking over as archakas," the petitioner association pointed out, adding that even if a small mistake happens in per-

STRUGGLE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE GOES ON: DMK

Chennai: Reacting to the Supreme Court's refusal to vacate its order on the appointment of 'archakas' in Tamil Nadu, the ruling DMK on Wednesday said the "struggle to ensure social justice will continue". Coordinator of Tamil Nadu Government Trained Archakas' Association, V Ranganathan said "denying" non-Brahmins the right to perform poojas in 'Agama' temples in the name of Agamic tradition is injustice and perpetuation of 'Manusmriti'. The only solution will be to enact a special law in this regard, he said. PTI

Lokpal has sent complaint against Moitra for CBI probe, says Dubey

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

A DAY before the Lok Sabha Ethics Committee meets again to consider and finalise a draft report on cash-for-query allegations against All India Trinamool Congress MP Mahua Moitra, BJP MP Nishikant Dubey said on Wednesday that the Lokpal had forwarded his complaint against Moitra to the CBI for investigation.

"The Lokpal informed me that they have referred the complaint to the CBI, which is the Lokpal's investigating agency," Dubey said.

He made the statement even as Congress's Nalgonda MP and a member of the ethics committee Uttam Kumar Reddy wrote to the chairman of the panel, Vinod Sonkar of the BJP, to postpone the November 9 meeting as he has to file his nomination in Telangana on the same date. "I had received a communication that the Ethics committee meeting on Smt Mahua Moitra issue for consideration/adoption of report would be held on 07th November. "Suddenly and inexplicably the date (of ethics committee meeting) is changed to 09th November. As I am filing nomination for Telangana Assembly elections on 09th November, I request you to kindly postpone the meeting to any other date," Reddy said in his letter. Dubey posted on X on Wednesday that based on his complaint, the Lokpal "ordered a CBI inquiry against Moitra".

TMC MP Mahua Moitra; BJP MP Nishikant Dubey. File

However, there was no official confirmation about the anti-corruption body ordering a CBI probe into the matter.

The Ethics Committee has been inquiring Dubey's complaint with the Lok Sabha Speaker against Moitra that she "has been taking favours from businessman Darshan Hiranandani and compromising her Parliament login ID and password to post questions against business rival and billionaire Gautam Adani. Hiranandani had accepted the allegations.

Reacting to Dubey's claims, Moitra posted on X: "For media calling me – my answer: 1. CBI needs to first file FIR on 713,000 crore Adani coal scam. 2. National security issue is how dodgy FPI owned (inc Chinese & UAE) Adani firms buying Indian ports & airports with @HMOIndia clearance. Then CBI welcome to come, count my shoes," she wrote.

In another post, she said, "Very happy to know Modiji's Lok Pal exists – & been spurred into action by specially bred pit bulls. Also Godi Media – why not ask Lok Pal's office to release statement on referral. Bit humiliating for LP office to outsource such important announcements to canine farms, eh?"

"Lokpal abhi Zinda hai (Lokpal is still alive)," she added.

When summoned by the Ethics Committee, Moitra had stormed out of the meeting with other Opposition members, accusing Chairman Sonkar of asking objectionable questions, a charge he later rejected.

ED gets seven-day custody of former J&K minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, NOVEMBER 8

THE SPECIAL Judge Anti-Corruption (CBI cases), Bala Jyoti on Wednesday remanded former minister and chairman of Dogra Swabhimani Sanghathan Party Choudhary Lal Singh in seven-day ED custody instead of 14 days sought by the central agency in a money laundering case.

Singh, who was interrogated in Jammu on Saturday and Monday, was arrested by ED Tuesday, after the court declined to extend his anticipatory bail saying that the investigation agency must be given sufficient time to conduct analysed and effective probe in view of the nature and gravity of the allegations against the accused.

Pointing out that the application and the case diary file reveal that Singh was arrested on November 7 in a case registered under provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act and Section 120-B of the Ranbir Penal Code during March 2020, the judge said that as per medical certificate, the accused is physically fit.

Apex court says plea to stay HC's acquittal order unheard of

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 8

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday termed as "unheard of" the Rajasthan government's plea seeking stay of the high court verdict acquitting four men who were handed down death penalty by the trial court in the 2008 Jaipur serial blast case, and said it needs to see whether the judgement was "erroneous" and "perverse".

Jaipur was rocked by a series of blasts on May 13, 2008 when bombs went off one after another at Manak Chawk Khanda, Chandpole Gate, Badi Chaupad, Chhoti Chaupad, Tripolia Gate, Johri Bazar and Sangarani Gate. The explosions left 71 people dead and 185 injured.

A bench of Justices BR Gavai, PS Narasimha and Aravind Kumar told Attorney General R Venkataramani, appearing for the Rajasthan government, "Your prayer for stay of the acquittal order is unheard of. To consider your extraordinary prayer, we have to see that the judgement is prima facie erroneous and perverse."

The court told Venkataramani, who along with senior advocate Manish Singhvi appeared for the state government that when there is acquittal by any court the presumption of innocence of accused gets reinforced.

The top court also directed the state government to ensure the translation of depositions and other documents in English are incorporated in the case files
