GROWTH (%) -Standalone YTD Sep FY20

Financial Results – Standalone Q2 FY20

- Decorative business had a stable quarterly performance though partially affected by late monsoon
- General Industrial / Automotive business continued to suffer in the quarter on account of persistent weakness in the automotive sector
- Protective coatings business delivered another quarter of robust top line growth
- Material cost as a percentage to sales was lower on account of price increases in FY 19 and declining raw material trends. There were three consecutive price decreases in some solvent based paints so as to pass on the reduction in crude based raw material prices to the consumer.
