Urgent Govt Action to Support Telecom Industry Sought

Later, at the earnings call, he expanded on the discussions with New Delhi, saying the Indian government has been urged to take "urgent action" to support the continuation of a three-party sector plus one public sector player market, which included the lowering of licence fees and taxes, besides the setting of a floor price for spectrum. The government has so far refused to provide any relief on those dues, unless directed by the Supreme Court, whose order last October widening the definition of AGR had led to 15 telcos facing over ₹1.47 lakh crore in dues on account of basis of AGR. Vodafone Idea was the worst hit, followed by Bharti Airtel, which has to pay about ₹5,500 crore, and Tata Televisions, which has nearly ₹4,000 crore dues. All three had filed review petitions, which was rejected mid-January. This prompted the three to file a modification petition, urging the court to allow negotiations with the Department of Telecommunications (DoT) on the modalities and timelines for payment. The court is yet to hear the application. "There's been considerable engagement from the government and we await the outcome of the modification application filed with the Supreme Court in the AGR case in the coming weeks," said Renu. Cash-strapped Vodafone Idea, currently holds 11.15% in Indus Towers and may raise ₹4,000-4,500 crore by selling its stake in the merged Indus Towers. Bharti Inf-Infra entity. But the delay in government approval has pushed back the closure of the merger.
