Tata iQ Selects TCS Jile™ to Drive Agile Transformation

Tata Consultancy Services' Agile DevOps product, Jile, to Accelerate Tata iQ's Product Development and Enable Digital Transformation

MUMBAI, September 18, 2018: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) a leading global IT services, consulting, and business solutions organization, today announced that Tata Insights and Quants (Tata iQ), a division of Tata Industries Limited, has selected Jile™ as its enterprise Agile platform.

Jile is a first of its kind Agile DevOps product-on-cloud that helps plan, deliver and track agile programs within the enterprise. Built by Agile teams and for Agile teams, the platform transforms software application development and execution which requires scalable Agile approaches, empowering companies in their digital transformation journeys to become Business 4.0 enterprises.

"Jile, with its intuitive product feature planning capabilities, makes it easier for our teams to embark on our Agile journey. With Jile, we were able to develop and launch our company website, www.tataiq.com, on-time," said Vijaya Deepti, CEO, Tata iQ. Tata iQ's partnership with Jile will not only enable efficient management of their analytics and digital engagements, but will also assist in Agile transformation of the enabling functions.

"Agile is one of the key pillars in TCS' Business 4.0 framework. Jile has the vision to empower organizations in their digital transformation by making Agile adoption significantly easier with step-by-step simplified process definition, execution and management," said Vijayalakshmi Gopal, Business Head, Jile, TCS. "Jile will scale to enable Tata iQ in providing a superior digital experience to its customers, besides planning and rapidly releasing new features and products to the market."
