SC grants bail to Sisodia, says speedy trial denied

Former deputy CM of Delhi granted bail in both CBI and ED cases

BHAVINI MISHRA
New Delhi, 9 August

The Supreme Court on Friday granted bail to former Delhi deputy chief minister and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) leader Manish Sisodia in both the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and Enforcement Directorate (ED) cases, considering the delay in start of trial in the liquor policy case.

"Appeal allowed. The Delhi High Court order is quashed and set aside. He is granted bail in both ED and CBI cases," the court ordered. The court said Sisodia had been deprived of the right to speedy trial.

"We find that on account of long incarceration running around 17 months and trial having not commenced, the appellant (Sisodia) has been deprived of the right to speedy trial," the court observed.

The court held that investigating agencies cannot oppose bail citing the seriousness of the offence if they cannot ensure a speedy trial.

"It is high time that the trial courts and high courts recognise that the principle of bail is a rule and jail is an exception," the court said.

The court said the right to speedy trial is a facet of liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution.

"Sisodia has been deprived of the right to speedy trial. Right to speedy trial is a sacrosanct right. Recently, in the Javed Gulam Nabi Shaikh case, we dealt with this angle and we noted that when court, state or agency cannot protect the right to speedy trial, then bail cannot be opposed saying that crime is serious. Article 21 applies irrespective of the nature of the crime," the Bench of Justices BR Gavai and KV Viswanathan said.

Sisodia is required to furnish bail bonds for a sum of ₹10 lakh with two sureties of the like amount and has to surrender his passport and report to the police station as bail conditions, the court said.

WHAT THE TOP COURT SAID

- Trial courts and high courts must recognise that "bail is rule and jail is exception"
- The right to speedy trial is a facet of liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution
- Sisodia required to furnish bail bonds for a sum of ₹10 lakh, to surrender his passport and report to the police station as bail conditions
- Triple test for grant of bail under PMLA will not apply to the present bail plea since it is based on delay in trial

Why Sisodia can't be a minister again

Manish Sisodia cannot be appointed a minister since Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal is currently in jail in the same matter. As long as Kejriwal is in jail, no new minister or deputy chief minister can be appointed. The Delhi chief minister has to move a proposal to his secretariat for the Lieutenant Governor's (LG's) approval to include Sisodia in the council of ministers and to be appointed as the deputy chief minister. Sisodia will likely be just a member of the legislative assembly.

He should also not influence the witnesses or tamper with the evidence, it said.

The court further observed that, over a period of time, the trial courts and the high courts have forgotten a very well-settled principle of law that bail is not to be withheld as a punishment.

"From our experience, we can say that it appears that the trial courts and the high courts attempt to play safe in matters of grant of bail. The principle is that bail is a rule and refusal is an exception, at times, followed in breach," the order said.

It noted that in the ED as well as the CBI matter, 493 witnesses have been named and involves thousands of pages of documents and over 100,000 pages of digitised documents.

It added, "It is thus clear that there is not even the remotest possibility of the trial being concluded in the near future.

In our view, keeping the appellant behind bars for an unlimited period of time in the hope of speedy completion of trial would deprive his fundamental right to liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution."

IN THE COURT

'Can't jeopardise careers': Petition to postpone NEET-PG exam dismissed

The Supreme Court on Friday rejected a plea seeking postponement of the NEET-PG examination, scheduled for August 11, which claimed that candidates have been allocated cities that are highly inconvenient for them to reach. A bench comprising Chief Justice of India DY Chandrachud and Justices JB Pardiwala and Manoj Misra said it can't put the careers of two hundred thousand students in jeopardy for five students.

"How can we postpone such an exam. Nowadays people just come asking to postpone the exam. We are not academic experts. As a matter of principle, we will not reschedule the exam. There are two hundred thousand students and four hundred thousand parents who will weep over the weekend if we postpone it. We can't put the careers of so many candidates in jeopardy. We do not know who is behind these petitions," the bench said. The exam was initially to be held on June 23. It was postponed by the Union Health Ministry as a "precautionary measure" in the wake of alleged irregularities in certain other competitive exams.

Apex court stays Mumbai college's hijab ban, asks why tilak, bindi exempt

The Supreme Court on Friday stayed a Mumbai college's decision banning 'hijab, burqa, cap and naqab' on the campus and said girl students must have the freedom to choose what they wear. A bench of Justices Sanjiv Khanna and Sanjay Kumar came down heavily on the Chembur Trombay Education Society, which runs the 'NG Acharya and DK Marathe College' for issuing such a circular and asked whether it would ban 'bindi' and 'tilak' also.

During the hearing, Justice Kumar asked senior advocate Madhavi Divan, appearing for the society, how was the college empowering the girl students by issuing such a circular.

"How are you empowering the women by telling them what to wear? I think it's less said the better. Where is the freedom of choice for the women? Where is freedom of choice of what to wear to the girl students?," said Justice Kumar.

The bench granted liberty to the educational society and the college to approach the court in case of any misuse of the order.

Committed to conducting polls in J&K at the earliest: CEC

Rajiv Kumar says elections won't be postponed on account of terror attacks

ARCHIS MOHAN
New Delhi, 9 August

Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Rajiv Kumar on Friday said the Election Commission (EC) is committed to conducting Assembly polls in Jammu and Kashmir (J&K), and that it will not postpone the elections on account of terror attacks, any kind of violence and nefarious designs of forces that do not want polls to be held in the Union Territory (UT).

Addressing a press conference in Jammu on the third day of the three Election Commissioners' three-day visit to J&K, Kumar said the EC would conduct polls in the UT at the earliest and not allow any internal or external forces to derail the electoral process. He said the administration was capable of meeting security challenges and added that the time was "ripe" for conducting Assembly elections as the EC was keen to build on the success of holding the Lok Sabha polls, which saw record turnouts in the UT.

The three Election Commissioners were visiting the UT to review poll preparedness. Assembly polls were last held in J&K in 2014.

To a question that pointed to the Supreme Court's directions to the Centre to conclude the election process by September 30 this year, Kumar said the EC will heed the deadline.

Assembly polls were due to be held in early 2019 following the dissolution of the legislative body of the erstwhile state in 2018. However, after the bifurcation of J&K into UTs of J&K and Ladakh in August 2019, the Assembly polls could not be held because the delimitation exercise was incomplete. The delimitation process was eventually completed in December 2022. Also, the polls had to wait for the passage of the J&K Reorganisation Act, which was done in December 2023, EC officials said.

Kumar said the EC would announce the poll schedule once the final
