Odisha steel units want iron ore exports curbed

PUNE, August 28

A SECOND SHOCK that hit the Indian steel industry was the announcement by the Odisha government on Thursday that it was revoking the iron ore export licence of all the non-state iron ore mining companies in Odisha. The announcement came on the heels of the Steel Ministry's ban on iron ore exports to maintain supplies to domestic steel mills.

The split production 175 MTPA output is 20% of the industry's total production. The production is expected to be brought down to 160 MTPA in the next one month. The government said it was acting to protect the state's financial health. It also said it was acting in the interest of the state.

The steel industry is facing a crisis due to the Chinese importers' preference for lower price and high-quality iron ore from Brazil and India. The government said it was acting to protect the state's financial health. It also said it was acting in the interest of the state.
