Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: Provisional attachment order issued by Enforcement Directorate.

We refer to a provisional attachment order issued by the Enforcement Directorate (authority) received today, 7th December, 2022.

It pertains to an inquiry conducted by the authority regarding allotment of certain plots being developed pursuant to a joint development arrangement with certain landowners/licensees in Gurugram, in the year 2008. The Company has been appropriately disclosing about this matter from time to time in the financial results/statements. During the period of inquiry, the Company has cooperated with the authorities to the fullest extent.

According to the provisional attachment order, the authority has provisionally attached certain lands in Kerala valued at Rs. 201.60 crores (Rupees Two hundred one crore and sixty lakhs only). It may be kindly noted that the Company currently has no plans to develop these lands. Hence, the said provisional attachment has no short or medium term impact on the Company's operations. The Company believes that there has been no wrongdoing from its side and hence, is confident of obtaining a favourable outcome through appropriate legal recourse.

The Company has always been compliant with all applicable laws and regulations and continues to do so. The Company remains committed to its operational matters and corresponding stakeholders.

Kindly take the aforesaid information on record in compliance of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), Regulations 2015.

Yours sincerely,

FOR SOBHA LIMITED
