TCS to set up service hub

Some staff from Standard Life will be transferred to TCS

OUR BUREAU

Mumbai November 12

Tata Consultancy Services will set up a technology and operations service hub in Edinburgh as part of a deal with Phoenix Group, Europe’s largest life and pensions consolidator. A number of employees from Phoenix Group's Standard Life will be transferred to TCS over the three years as part of the agreement. TCS did not disclose how many employees will take on board or the financial details of the overall deal.

Phoenix Group had acquired Standard Life Assurance in 2018. Standard Life Assurance is a long-established expert in workplace pensions, long-term savings and wealth management, with over 1 million active customers as of September 2019.

For and on behalf of the Board
