Ram Temple ‘Bhoomi Puja’ A Golden Occasion, Follows Years Of Struggle: Rawat

Dehradun: Uttarakhand Chief Minister Trivendra SinghRawat on Wednesday said the Bhoomi Puja for the Ram Temple in Ayodhya has been a “golden occasion” that has come after years of struggle, fulfilling dreams of Hindus across the world. The Chief Minister was addressing a gathering of thousands who thronged the Ram temple site to witness the historic event.

He said the Bhoomi Puja is not just a religious event but also an event of economic importance, as it will help in the development of the region. He said that the construction of the Ram temple will not only benefit the local community but also the entire country.

The Chief Minister also said that the Bhoomi Puja is a great example of unity among Hindus, who have come together from all parts of the country to perform this religious event.

It is to be noted that the Bhoomi Puja was performed in Ayodhya on Wednesday, marking the beginning of construction work on the Ram temple.

Webinar On 'Agroforestry And Livelihood Generation'

Dehradun: Agroforestry is an important aspect of rural economy and has great potential to generate employment for rural youth especially through commercial utilization of agroforestry products in the form of wood, leaves, fruits, oilseeds, and other products. Keeping this in view, Extension Division of Forest Research Institute, Dehradun organized a webinar on ‘Agroforestry and Livelihood generation’ which was attended by stakeholders like Forest Department, different research institutes under ICAR, students of Colleges and Management Institutes, teachers of DAE and CSIR, and various experts from Govt. and Non-Govt. agencies.

The webinar was inaugurated by Dr. Ashok Bhardwaj, Deputy Director, FRI, Dehradun and was moderated by Dr. Rekha Gangwar, Head, Extension Division.
