Options before RBI as inflation firms up, economy teeters

DBM REPORT
New Delhi/November 13

As India’s third largest resource hall for a slice of deep economic distress, the problems of the agriculture sector have an impact on food prices. The government, with state-owned companies providing below par support, has been grappling with executive compensation schemes that restrict growth for risk-taking. The Reserve Bank of India’s guidelines last week, specifying how private sector companies in India must design the compensation packages of their CEOs, whole-time directors and material risk-takers, are part of this effort. The latest set of rules represents a fleshing out of RBI’s broader guideline set in 2012.

Onion import norms relaxed till December 31

New Delhi/November 13

The government has relaxed an earlier restriction on the importation of onions as a safeguard against inflation. Under the previous norms, onions have been imported even though the national minimum price, which was fixed at Rs 25 per kg, is yet to be reached in the majority of the regions.

Razorpay and Moglix reward employees with ESOP buyback

New Delhi/November 13

Razorpay and Moglix are rewarding employees with ESOP buyback schemes. The Bengaluru-based startup, which provides payment gateway services, has announced an ESOP buyback scheme for its employees. The buyback price is set at Rs 600, while the offering is open to employees who have spent at least one year at the company. Razorpay employees who have spent at least three years at the company can also participate in the buyback.

Passive mutual funds set to beat active funds for second year

New Delhi/November 13

India’s passive index-tracking equity mutual funds are set to beat active stock-picking funds for the second straight year. According to Refinitiv Lipper data, India’s passive mutual funds have delivered an average return of 9.6% so far this year, much higher than active funds’ return of 4.6%.

New Delhi/November 13

Rewarding employees with ESOP buyback schemes is a common practice in the startup ecosystem, which reflects the changing perception of future demand. Hence, investing in employees with ESOP buyback schemes is a way of retaining talent and keeping them motivated.

A pilot demonstration for the BHIM Multi-Cash Interface for Merchant (BHIM MCI) has been set up in the U.K. The interface is designed to allow customers to pay in Indian rupees through a U.K. mobile phone number. The pilot was announced on November 13, as the BHIM MCI serves as a strategic step in the design and development of the BHIM UPI (Unified Payments Interface) for overseas transactions.

BHU: A safe haven for Indian students

Our Correspondent
New Delhi/November 13

India’s students seeking higher education abroad are increasingly choosing BHU (Banaras Hindu University) as their preferred choice. The university’s academic reputation, low fee structure and the diversification in the courses offered are some of the factors that attract students.

MM EDIT
Remuneration is not the sole driver of management behaviour at banks

Ever since the global financial crisis there has been an increase in unremuneration risk-taking by top executives in big banks which put the entire financial system and risk regulators have been grappling with executive compensation schemes that restrict growth for risk-taking. The Reserve Bank of India’s guidelines last week, specifying how private sector companies in India must design the compensation packages of their CEOs, whole-time directors and material risk-takers, are part of this effort.
