New Delhi: Addressing a heavily guarded public meeting in east Delhi's Trilokpuri amid chants of Jai Shri Ram, defence minister Rajnath Singh on Tuesday claimed that BJP had never indulged in politics of caste, religion, sect or creed and only believed in injustice and humanitarianism.

By passing Citizenship Amendment Act, Singh claimed that BJP had the wishes of Mahatma Gandhi. "India was divided on the basis of religion in 1947 and many of our leaders were against it, but some people were in a hurry to get power. Mahatma Gandhi, at that time, had told Nehru and Congress leaders that if the minorities in Pakistan faced suffering and injustice, they should get respect and, if required, citizenship in India. We have fulfilled his wishes," Singh said.

Singh said even if a Muslim came from Pakistan, CAA would allow him to get an Indian citizenship. "The Opposition is spreading misinformation. I gave citizenship to Adnan Sami with my own pen by passing CAA," Singh said.

Singh said both Hindus and Muslims in the world can take your citizenship away. If anyone even points a finger at you, our entire government and police will stand shoulder to shoulder with you," he said.

HC seeks govt, traffic police response on plea by auto drivers

New Delhi: Delhi high court on Tuesday sought a response from the AAP government, the traffic police and the Election Commission, on a plea challenging Rs 10,000 challan issued to an auto driver for displaying "I love Kejriwal" message on his vehicle.

BJP taking revenge on poor: Kejriwal

In reaction to Delhi Police issuing Rs 10,000 challan to an autorickshaw driver for displaying "I love Kejriwal" message on his vehicle, chief minister Arvind Kejriwal on Tuesday accused BJP of taking "revenge" on the poor in Delhi. After the news spread, Kejriwal took to Twitter to hit out at BJP. He urged BJP to stop such actions against them.

The government and police told the court that they needed time to find out the exact details why the challan was issued and assured the court that they would file a status report.

Meanwhile, the Election Commission said the action was probably taken for the violation of the model code of conduct during which period political advertisements are prohibited. However, the petitioner's lawyer contended that it was not a political advertisement, and even if it was, it would not be prohibited as it was displayed at the petitioner's expense and not by the party. He added that code of conduct does not talk of political advertisement out of an individual's own funds.

The lawyer claimed that political advertisements were permitted on the rear, right and left sides of public service vehicles, including autos, under guidelines issued by Delhi government in 2018. According to the petition, the petitioner had displayed "I love Kejriwal" and "stfr Kejriwal" messages on his vehicle. The court sought replies from each of the department before March 3.
