Essar Steel reports ₹4,229 crore Ebitda during insolvency period

PRESSURE: New Delhi, May 19

DEBT-BIDDEN ESSAR STEEL, burdened with ₹43,000 crore debt and two years in bankruptcy court, has posted a profit of ₹4,229 crore in the March quarter of this year, its annual report showed.

The company, which is in the process of being sold off to its creditors, had posted a loss of ₹16,006 crore in the March quarter of the previous year. Essar Steel Limited has emerged from the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) resolution process in February 2019 and has been functioning as a going concern.

As per the company’s annual report, it has reported a net loss of ₹4,014 crore and a net loss of ₹7,484 crore for the financial years 2018-19 and 2017-18, respectively. However, the company is not required to be audited because of the ongoing insolvency process.

The company’s Revenue from Operations stood at ₹19,934 crore for the March quarter as against ₹18,679 crore in the same quarter of the previous year.
