1. PREFACE:

Pursuant to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“SEBI Regulations”), Newgen Software Technologies Limited (“Newgen Software” or “the Company”) is required to put in place a framework for prohibition of Insider trading in Securities of the Company and to strengthen the legal framework thereof. Accordingly, with this view, the Board of Directors of the Company (“Board”) has framed the following:

2) Code of Conduct to Regulate and monitor trading in the securities of the Company by its Designated Persons and their immediate relatives and Connected Persons towards achieving compliance with this SEBI Regulations.

and shall collectively be referred as the “Code”.

2. OBJECTIVES:

The Code for Fair Disclosure is aimed at defining the Company’s responsibility to follow principles of timely and adequate disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information which would impact the price of the Company’s Securities, maintaining uniformity, transparency and fairness in dealings with all stakeholders and ensuring adherence to applicable laws and regulations. The Code for Trading is also aimed to enable the Company to regulate, monitor and report trading by Insiders towards achieving compliance with the Regulations, adopting the standards set out in provisions of the Regulations. The objective of the Code is not to discourage Employees or Designated Persons from buying or selling shares, but to:

- Ensure that the Employees or Designated Persons including Insiders do not take advantage on unpublished price sensitive inside information which is received by them during the regular course of their duties;
- Employees or Designated Persons do not indulge in ‘fraudulent’ or ‘manipulative’ transactions;
- Encourage long-term investments by Employees or Designated Persons and shareholders;
- Ensure proper safeguards to Newgen Software Technologies Limited.

3. DEFINITION:

Pursuant to the SEBI Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words, expressions and derivations there of shall have the meanings assigned to them as under:

3.1 “Compliance Officer” means the Company Secretary of the Company or any other Person Designated by the Board of Directors as Compliance Officer from time to time;
3.2 “Connected Person” means –

A. any person who is or has during the six months prior to the concerned act been associated with the Company, directly or indirectly, in any capacity including by reason of frequent communication with its officers or by being in any contractual, fiduciary or employment relationship or by being a Director, officer or an employee of the Company or holds any position, including a professional or business relationship between himself and the Company, whether temporary or permanent, that allows such Person, directly or indirectly, access to unpublished price sensitive information or is reasonably expected to allow such access;

B. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the persons falling within the following categories shall be deemed to be Connected Persons unless the contrary is established, -

a. an immediate relative of Connected Persons specified in clause 3.2(A); or
b. a subsidiary Company or associate Company or holding Company; or
c. banker of the Company; or
d. a concern, firm, trust, Hindu undivided family, Company or association of Persons wherein a Director of the Company or his immediate relative, has more than ten per cent. of the holding or interest;

Explanation: It is intended that a connected person is one who has a connection with the company that is expected to put him in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Immediate relatives and other categories of persons specified above are also presumed to be connected persons, but such a presumption is a deeming legal fiction and is rebuttable. This definition is also intended to bring into its ambit persons who may not seemingly occupy any position in the company but are in regular touch with the company and its officers and are involved in the know of the company’s operations. It is intended to bring within its ambit those who would have access to or could access unpublished price sensitive information about any company or class of companies by virtue of any connection that would put them in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

3.3. “Designated Persons” The Board of Directors shall in consultation with the compliance officer specify the designated persons to be covered by the code of conduct on the basis of their role and function in the organization and the access that such role and function would provide to unpublished price sensitive information in addition to seniority and professional designation and shall include:

a. Every Promoter of the Company;
b. Every Director of the Company;
c. Every Key Managerial Personnel of the Company including but not limited to Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary of the Company;
d. Employees upto two level below the Chief Executive Officer/ Managing Director/ Chief Operating Officer of the Company and its material subsidiaries irrespective of their functional role in the Company or ability to have access to unpublished price sensitive information;
e. Any support staff of the Company such as Legal staff, Finance staff, IT staff or Secretarial staff who have access to unpublished price sensitive information;
f. Other employees of the Company Designated on the basis of their functional role or access to unpublished price sensitive information in the Company by the Board of directors;
g. Other Employees of material subsidiaries of the Company Designated on the basis of their functional role or access to unpublished price sensitive information in the organization by their Board of directors;

3.4 “Free Period or Trading Window” means the period when trading in the Securities of the Company is permitted and it is not a window closure period;

3.5 “Generally available information” means information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis;

3.6 “Immediate relative” means spouse of a person, and includes parent, sibling, and child of such Person or of the spouse, any of whom is either dependent financially on such Person, or consults such Person in taking decisions relating to trading in Securities;

3.7 “Insider” means any Person who is:
   A. Connected Person; or
   B. in possession of or having access to unpublished price sensitive information;
   Provided further that any Person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “Insider” for the purposes of these regulations;

   Explanation: It is intended that anyone in possession of or having access to unpublished price sensitive information should be considered an “Insider” regardless of how one came in possession of or had access to such information.

3.8 “Insider Trading” means when Insiders use unpublished price sensitive information to arrive trading in Securities of the Company;

3.9 “Key Managerial Person in relation to Company” means:
   (i) the Chief Executive Officer or the Managing Director;
   (ii) the Company Secretary;
   (iii) the Whole-time Director;
   (iv) the Chief Financial Officer;
   (v) such other officer, not more than one level below the directors who is in whole-time employment, Designated as key managerial Personnel by the Board;

3.10 “Legitimate Purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an Insider with Partners, Collaborators/ Lenders, Customers, Suppliers, Merchant Banker, Legal Advisors,
Auditors, Partners or other advisors or consultants provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations;

3.11 “Need to know basis” means that unpublished price sensitive information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information;

3.12 “Promoter” shall have the meaning assigned to it under the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 or any modification thereof;

3.13 “Promoter Group” shall have the meaning assigned to it under the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 or any modification thereof;

3.14 “Securities” shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956);

3.15 “Trading” means and includes subscribing, buying, selling, dealing, or agreeing to subscribe, buy, sell, deal in any Securities of the Company, and "trade" shall be construed accordingly;

Explanation: It is intended to widely define the term “trading” to include dealing. Such a construction is intended to curb the activities based on unpublished price sensitive information which are strictly not buying, selling or subscribing, such as pledging etc when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

3.16 “Trading day” means a day on which the concerned stock exchanges are open for trading where the Securities of the Company are listed;

3.17 "Unpublished price sensitive information" also referred as "UPSI" means any information, relating to the Company or its Securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the Securities and shall, ordinarily, include but not restricted to, information relating to or effecting the following:-

i. financial results;
ii. dividends;
iii. change in capital structure;
iv. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, de-listings, disposals, expansion of business and such other material transactions;
v. changes in key managerial personnel; and

Explanation: It is intended that information relating to Company or Securities, that is not generally available would be unpublished price sensitive information if it is likely to materially affect the price upon coming into the public domain. The types of matters that would ordinarily give rise to unpublished price sensitive information have been listed above to give illustrative guidance of unpublished price sensitive information.

All the words and expressions used in this Policy, unless defined hereafter, shall have meaning respectively assigned to them under the SEBI Regulation(s) and in the absence of its definition or explanation therein, as per the Companies Act, 2013 (“Act”) and the Rules, Notifications and Circulars made/issued there under, as amended, from time to time.

4. APPLICABILITY OF THIS CODE:

This Code is applicable to:

a) all the Employees, Designated Employees and Directors of the Company and of the material Subsidiary Companies.

b) Insiders, Promoters, Promoters group, Connected Persons in relation to the Company.

This Code is also applicable on the immediate relatives of all the aforesaid Persons. All the Persons as aforesaid are required to read this Code and comply with its provisions to the extent applicable to them respectively.

d) The Compliance Officer shall maintain the list of the Designated Persons and changes thereto time to time. The Compliance Officer is authorized to require the Designated Person to provide details, as necessary or required under the SEBI regulations and the Code.

e) The Compliance Officer shall assist all the Designated Person, Employees and Connected Person in addressing any queries regarding the SEBI Regulations and the Code.

f) Any other roles as specified under the Code and/or as may be delegated / authorized by the Board of Directors time to time.
6. PRINCIPLE OF FAIR DISCLOSURE FOR THE PURPOSE OF CODE OF PRACTICES & PROCEDURES FOR FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION:

6.1 To ensure timely and adequate disclosure of price sensitive information, the following principles shall be followed by the Company:

   a) The Company will endeavor to make prompt public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”) that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.

   b) The Company will ensure uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure. Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer are severally authorized to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of UPSI.

   c) Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer are severally authorized to make prompt dissemination of UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available.

   d) The Compliance Officer shall, subject to non-disclosure obligations, promptly respond to any queries, news, reports or requests for verification of market rumors by stock exchanges or any other regulatory authority. He shall, in consultation with Chairman & Managing Director and/or Chief Financial Officer, decide whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumors and then making the disclosure. The Compliance Officer shall also provide appropriate assistance and fair response to the regulatory authorities including the stock exchanges for verification of news reports and market rumors. Such disclosures/replies to market rumors shall be signed by the Company Secretary or Chief Financial Officer A copy of such disclosure/reply may also be put on the website of the Company.

   e) The Company will handle all UPSI on a need-to-know basis and legitimate purposes.

6.2 Sharing of information with Analysts and Research Personnel:

   The Company will ensure that information shared with Analysts and Research Personnel is not unpublished price sensitive information. The following guidelines shall be followed by the official of the Company while dealing with analysts and institutional investors:

   a) Information available in public domain only to be provided. The Company shall not provide any UPSI to the Analyst/Research Persons/Large investors like institutions. The scope of discussions at any such meetings with analysts/research Persons/large investors shall be confined to the matters arising out of the Corporate Presentation put on the Company’s website and the information generally available in the public domain or matters outside the purview of UPSI. If any information which is not generally available but considered as UPSI is given to the analyst etc. the Person sharing such information shall immediately inform the Compliance Officer who shall take steps to make the information public at the earliest and other steps as may be considered appropriate.

b The Company may hold the conference call with the analysts/shareholders/public post declaration of financial results every quarter/ or happening of a major event. Whenever the Company organizes conference call with analysts etc., it shall post relevant information about such conference call having been organized on its website and shall also post the transcript/audio file of the call after every such meet.

c The Company shall not answer analysts’ questions during aforesaid call that raise issues outside the intended scope of discussion. Unanticipated questions, answers which may involve disclosure of material price sensitive information, shall be taken on notice and a considered response given later. If the answer includes material price sensitive information, a public announcement shall be made before responding. The answers given at a later date to any such unanticipated questions shall be appended to the transcript/recording of the said conference disclosed on the website of the Company.

6.3 Prohibition on Communicating or Procuring Unpublished Price Sensitive Information:

a No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the Company or Securities listed, to any Person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes and performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The above provision is intended to cast an obligation on all Insiders who are essentially Persons in possession of unpublished price sensitive information to handle such information with care and to deal with the information with them when transacting their business strictly on a need-to-know basis.

b No Person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or Securities listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes and performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The above provision is intended to impose a prohibition on unlawfully procuring possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Inducement and procurement of unpublished price sensitive information not in furtherance of one’s legitimate duties and discharge of obligations would be illegal under this provision.

c To prevent the misuse of confidential information, the Company shall adopt necessary norms for appropriate "Chinese Wall" procedures and process. The term "Chinese Wall" refers to separation of those areas of the organization which routinely have access to confidential information considered "inside areas" from other areas or departments considered "public areas". In terms of “Chinese Wall”, any employee in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to anyone in public area. In exceptional circumstances, employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of
"need to know" criteria, under legitimate purposes. Pursuant to Chinese Wall procedure and to ensure the protection of information and information processing systems from unauthorized logical and physical access, Internal policy on User Access Management, Policy on Visitor along with other necessary or incidental Policies shall be adopted by the Company. Company shall adhere to ISO/IEC 27001 and other international standards, as require and necessary for the Company, on Information Security and certification on the same are to be obtained time to time from relevant Accreditation Bodies.

6.4 Communication of unpublished price sensitive information:

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Clauses 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3 of the Code, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;

b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

Provided that the Board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of aforesaid Clause 6.4(a) and (b) and shall not otherwise trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6.5 Digital Database

A structured digital database shall be maintained by the Company containing the names of such Persons or entities as the case may be with whom any UPSI is shared under along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall be maintained with adequate internal control and check such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tempering of the database.

7. TRADING WHEN IN POSSESSION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION:

a. No Insider shall trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
Explanation – When a Person who has traded in Securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession. The reasons for which Insider trades or the purposes to which he/she applies the proceeds of the transactions are not intended to be relevant for determining whether a Person has violated the regulation. He traded when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information is what would need to be demonstrated at the outset to bring a charge. Once this is established, it would be open to the Insider to prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances mentioned in the proviso hereunder, failing which he would have violated the prohibition.

Provided that the Insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:

i. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach any regulation and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under clause 6.4 of this Code.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the Insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchanges within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

ii. The transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between Persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 of SEBI Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained either person of under clause 6.4 of this Code.

iii. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

iv. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

v. in the case of non-individual Insiders: –
   a. the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

   b. appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated, and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

vi. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in the Code.

8. TRADING PLANS:

8.1 An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan. Such trading plan shall:

i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

v. set out either the value of trades to be affected or the number of Securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be affected; and

vi. not entail trading in Securities for market abuse.

8.2 All Trading plan shall address and present to the Compliance Officer of the Company.

8.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the SEBI Regulations, and this Code and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings/declaration as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. Appropriate authority to approve the Trading plan would be as per the following matrix.

declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

c The Compliance Officer shall grant the approval or reject the application within Two Trading Days from the date of the receiving Complete & Final application along with all required undertakings and documents. Application with incorrect or partial details or without undertaking or without required annexures/ documents shall not be treated as complete and final application. Compliance Officer may consult with the Chairman & Managing Director of the Company for granting or rejecting pre-clearance approval. In case the pre-clearance approval request is received from the Chairman & Managing Director of the Company, the Compliance Officer may consult with the Chairman of the Audit Committee for granting or rejecting pre-clearance approval.

d The approval and rejection shall be in the form prescribed in Annexure 7. The Compliance Officer at his sole discretion may revise or modify the format of Annexure 7 as he may deem fit and necessary for approval or rejection.

e In case of rejection of the Pre-Clearance by Compliance Officer, the Person may approach the Chairman of the Audit Committee for an appeal. The Chairman of the Audit Committee may consult with other Independent Directors before accepting or rejecting appeal.

f Compliance Officer shall not approve any pre-clearance application during Trading Window Closure Period.

g Such Designated Person shall execute the order for which pre-clearance has been obtained within Seven Trading Days of such approval. The details of the transaction shall be communicated to the Compliance Officer within two Trading Days thereof.

h In case, the Person is unable to execute the order within Seven Trading Days after the approval, a fresh application for pre-clearance (as mentioned above) shall be made. The Designated Person and Immediate Relatives are also required to report on the decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance, recording of reasons for such decisions to the Compliance Officer. The aforesaid report shall be in the prescribed form as annexure 8.

i Any Designated Person (including trade of his/her immediate relatives) who trades in the Securities without complying with the pre-clearance procedure as envisaged in this Code or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in the SEBI Regulations and this Code.

j It may be noted that the trades executed as per the approved trading plans shall not be subject to pre-clearance approval.

11.3 Minimum Holding Period:

a Designated Person (including their immediate relative) who buys or sells any number of shares of the Company, shall not enter into any contra trade during the next six months period, which is the minimum holding period, following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the SEBI Regulations and the Code.

b Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. It may be noted that should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to Investor Protection and Education Fund set up by the SEBI.

c It may be noted that acquisition of shares on Exercise of Options/units under Newgen ESOP Schemes and other Schemes shall not be considered Trading. The Designated Person can exercise their options as vested even if he/she has sold shares during previous six months period. However, sale of shares acquired on exercise of stock options/units is considered as trading of shares.

12. FORMULATION OF STANDARD PROCEDURE AND MECHANISM FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING:

12.2 Policies and procedures for inquiry in case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information is annexed with this Code as Annexure 2.

12.3 A process for how and when people are brought ‘inside’ on sensitive transactions is annexed with this code as Annexure 3. This process also includes duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

12.4 The Chairman & Managing Director of the Company shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in the code and SEBI Regulations to prevent Insider trading. The internal control shall include the following:

a all employees who have access to unpublished price sensitive information are identified as ‘DesignatedPerson ’;

b all the unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified, and its confidentiality shall be maintained as per the requirements of these regulations;

c adequate restrictions shall be placed on communication or procurement of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information as required by these regulations;

d lists of all employees and other Persons with whom Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is shared shall be maintained and confidentiality agreements shall be signed, or notice shall be served to all such employees and Persons;

e all other relevant requirements specified under these regulations shall be complied with;

f periodic process review to evaluate effectiveness of such internal controls.

12.5 The Audit Committee of the Company shall review compliance with the provisions of these regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

13. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION FOR INSIDER TRADING:

a Every Designated Person, Directors, Promoter Group and Insider shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Regulations and this Code including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her immediate relatives.

b Every person who violate this Code shall, in addition to any other penal action that may be taken pursuant to law, also be subject to disciplinary action by the Audit Committee after giving reasonable opportunity to them to show-cause. The disciplinary action by the Company may include salary freeze, suspension, and ineligibility for future participation in ESOP or termination of employment including fine or any other penal action as may deem fit by the Audit Committee.

c Action taken by the Company for violation of the Regulations and the Code against any such aforesaid Persons will not preclude SEBI from taking any action for violation of the Regulations or any other applicable laws/rules/regulations.

d Under the provisions of the SEBI Act, any Insider who indulges in Insider trading in contravention of the Regulations, is liable to a penalty which shall not be less than ten lakh rupees but which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or three times the amount of profits made out of Insider trading, whichever is higher or any other penalty as may be prescribed by the SEBI time to time.

e In case it is observed by the Compliance Officer or by the Chairman & Managing of the Board that there has been a violation of the Regulations by any Designated Person/other Employees, he shall forthwith inform the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company about the violation. Necessary action will be initiated on obtaining suitable directions from the Audit Committee. The Compliance Officer shall inform SEBI about such violation along with details of action taken by the Audit Committee.

f The Designated Person against whom information has been furnished by the Company/Compliance Officer to SEBI for violations of the Regulations/Code, shall provide all information and render necessary co-operation as may be required by the Company/Compliance Officer or SEBI in this connection.
14. PROTECTION TO EMPLOYEES FILING VOLUNTARY INFORMATION DISCLOSURE FORM:

14.1 Any employee, who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form ("VIDF") in terms of Chapter IIIA of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI and irrespective of whether the employee is eligible for a reward in terms of Chapter IIIA of the aforesaid SEBI Regulations, shall not be discriminated, discharged, terminated, demoted, suspended, threatened, or harassed, directly and indirectly, for any of the following reasons:

a. filing a VIDF;

b. testifying, participating, or otherwise assisting or aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by SEBI; or

c. breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement which are solely for preventing such employee from cooperating with SEBI in any manner.

Explanation - For the purpose of this clause, “Employee” means an individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and is a director, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.

14.2 No action will be taken against anyone who makes an allegation in good faith, reasonably believing it to be true, even if the allegation is not subsequently confirmed by the investigation. Any other Employee/business associate assisting in the said investigation initiated pursuant to the terms of aforesaid Chapter IIIA of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019 shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle blower.

14.3: It is not mandatory for the employee to notify the Company of any Voluntary Information Disclosure Form filed with the SEBI or to seek its prior permission or consent or guidance of any person, if any, engaged by the Company before or after such filing.

14.4 Any term in an employment agreement or this Code shall be void in so far as it purports to preclude any employee from submitting to the SEBI information relating to the violation of the securities laws that has occurred, is occurring or has a reasonable belief that it would occur.

15. CLARIFICATION AND ENQUIRIES:

The Compliance Officer may be contacted for any assistance as to the interpretation and application of this Code.
16. AMENDMENT:

Any or all provisions of the Codes would be subject to revision/amendment in accordance with the guidelines on the subject as may be issued by the SEBI and other Government Regulatory Authorities, from time to time.

17. GENERAL:

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and of the Act or SEBI Regulation or any other statutory enactments, rules, the provisions of such Act or Listing Regulation or statutory enactments, rules shall prevail over this Policy.

POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF LEGITIMATE PURPOSES

1 INTRODUCTION:

This Policy is formulated in compliance to the provisions of Regulation 3(2A) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter, "Regulations"). This Policy should be read as a part of Newgen’s Code of Practices & Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

Any word used in this Policy but not defined herein shall have the same meaning as described to it in the aforesaid Code, Companies Act, 2013 or Rules made thereunder, Securities & Exchange Board of India Act or Rules and Regulations made thereunder, SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 or any other relevant legislation/law applicable to the Company, as amended from time to time.

2 UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION:

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information also referred as "UPSI" means any information, relating to the Company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities and shall, ordinarily, include but not restricted to, information relating to the following:-

i. financial results;
ii. dividends;
iii. change in capital structure;
iv. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, de-listings, disposals, expansion of business and such other material transactions;
v. changes in key managerial personnel; and

Explanation: It is intended that information relating to a company or securities, that is not generally available would be unpublished price sensitive information if it is likely to materially affect the price upon coming into the public domain. The types of matters that would ordinarily give rise to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information have been listed above to give illustrative guidance of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

3 DETERMINATION OF LEGITIMATE PURPOSE:

"Legitimate purpose" shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information ("UPSI") in the ordinary course of business by an insider with:

- partners,
- collaborators,
- lenders,
- customers, suppliers,
- merchant bankers, legal advisors,
- auditors,
insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the Regulations.

4 WHAT SHALL CONSTITUTE "LEGITIMATE PURPOSE":

a What shall constitute "legitimate purpose” and what shall not constitute "legitimate purpose” will be based on the business-related needs of the Company. In general, legitimate purpose shall, inter-alia, include the following purposes:

- Audit Purpose;
- Contractual Obligation;
- Legal Obligation;
- Any other specific purpose based on the business-related needs of the Company; and
- Other administrative purposes.

b The purpose of providing information for a legitimate purpose must be compatible with a declared and specified purpose and should not be contrary to law, morals or any Newgen’s policy.

c The information recipient must be clearly instructed to obtain the Company's written consent in case the information provided to such recipient is used by such recipient for another purpose other than the initial legitimate purpose for which the Company had provided the UPSI. If the Company concludes that, the secondary purpose is a "legitimate purpose”, the Company may grant consent for the same to the users of the information. The information provided for the legitimate purpose must not be excessive in relation to the declared purpose. It must be ensured that providing such information is necessary for its intended purpose.

5 PRINCIPLES:

a Any person in receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose” shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of SEBI Regulations and such person is also required to ensure the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shared with him/her.

b All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

c No Insider and Designated Person shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, to any person including other Insiders, except under Legitimate Purpose.

d No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relating to the Company or securities listed.
Provided that nothing contained above clause c and d shall be applicable when an Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations; or pursuant to appropriate confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements being executed; or in the event the Board of Directors directs or cause the public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information in the best interest of the Company and the information that constitutes unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being affected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

6 A STRUCTURED DIGITAL DATABASE:

A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the names of such persons or entities, as the case may be, with whom information is shared for legitimate purposes along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.

7 DISCIPLINARY ACTION:

The Audit Committee, subject to approval of the Board of Directors, may take appropriate action against any person who violates the provisions of this Policy by sharing UPSI with other person other than legitimate purpose. Such leakage of UPSI shall be dealt with as prescribed in Policies and Procedures adopted by the Board for Inquiry in case of Leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

8 POWER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

The Board shall have the power to amend any of the provisions of this Policy, substitute any of the provisions with a new provision and also replace this Policy entirely with a new Policy. The decision of the Board of Directors of the Company with regard to any or all matters relating to this Policy shall be final and binding on all concerned.
