BJP: Name ‘Bharat’ marks country’s ‘civilisational march’

New Delhi: BJP has attacked the NDA government, saying, “Alliance won’t be Deceived by Petty Politics.”

Times Now/Newser

Arvind Kejriwal was among the four leaders who had approached the Supreme Court against the re-announcement of the name of the country from ‘India’ to ‘Bharat’. The petition was on the government’s decision to remove the country’s name ‘India’ and replace it with ‘Bharat’ in the fields of legal and public documents.

The court had dismissed the plea. The BJP has been批倣ing the government’s decision to use the name ‘Bharat’ instead of ‘India’ for several years. The party had earlier also challenged the use of the name ‘Bharat’ in the country’s official documents, including the Constitution. The party had argued that the name ‘Bharat’ is not the correct name of the country and that the name ‘India’ is the correct name. The Supreme Court had earlier dismissed the party’s petition on this issue.
