Dear Sir,

I am writing to bring to your notice a matter of concern regarding the condition of the public toilets located in the Wadiwadi area. The toilets are in a very poor state, with broken seats, dirty water, and lack of proper hygiene. The situation is unacceptable and poses a health risk to the public.

I request you to take immediate action to improve the condition of these toilets. They are vital for public health and should be maintained properly.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

I am writing to request your urgent intervention regarding the water supply in our area. The water supply has been disrupted for the past few days, causing significant inconvenience to the residents. We have tried contacting the water authorities, but our calls have not been attended.

We request you to take immediate action to restore the water supply and ensure that it is not disrupted again. We understand the challenges faced by the water department, but the situation is critical and requires immediate attention.

Thank you for your prompt action in this matter.

Yours sincerely,
