RBI junks BoB move to send Anil Ambani firms to NCLT

SC verdict on AGR issues may come this week

The Supreme Court has accepted a petition seeking to set aside the order of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) disallowing the inclusion of Bharti Airtel, Vodafone Idea and IndiGo in the list of firms eligible for debt resolution proceedings under the Insolvency & Bankruptcy Code (IBC).

The court has also issued notice to the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) and certain other parties by way of a notice of motion seeking a status quo on the NCLT’s order.

However, the delay in debt resolution proceedings could hamper the restructuring plans of these companies and could lead to a further drop in their cash position.

The court has also directed the TRAI to provide a status report on the AGR issues and the measures being taken to resolve them.
