BoB ‘Gold Loan Shoppe’ enlarged in south districts

V.V. Manian

I tried to pull out one of the reviews of films for The Mirror, where SPB sang a song like in Vasanthapoo Nilayam. I didn’t write a very favourable review but the songs had their options, SPB redeeming his 30th birthday and Theerthabhairadi (Bharathanath), then made a good impact on the Tamil film music only by Anirudh Ramamurthy from “The Hindus” always used to say about SPB: “Epokku pattum” with great admiration.

The soul-stirring golden voice of the versatile singer has hit millions of followers, cutting across age barriers and countries. Unfortunately, the great grand singing son of India has not inherited the name ‘the so-called’ National TV Channels.

This great loss is shattering. Not even a scroll for this great soul is in the court room. What a loss to their mothers.

There was a volcanic eruption in FB and other social media condemning these ‘national channels’ and many recalled the pre-AIADMK days. Vadayam Natarajan from “The Hindus” always used to say about SPB: “Epokku pattum” with great admiration.

Saptha Tamilnadu Ramamurthy also fondly called as SPB or Balu when respected, appreciated and an admired playback singer, music director and film producer. He has the hearts of millions with his unique melodious singing. He recorded more than 4200 songs including many brilliant devotional songs. His style of rendering the devotional songs is religiously adopted by devotees of Shiva on Pradosham days.

SPB’s National Film Awards across 4 languages. He is also the recipient of civilian awards like Padmashri (2010) and Padma Bhushan (2011) from the government of India.

SPB has the distinction of singing for over five decades for all the hit movies from 1980s. He enhanced the profile of heroes like MGR, Gemini, Mohan, Kamal, Rajin, Sathyaraj, Prabhu, Prabhudeva, Shankar, Karthik and also the legendary heroes of today. SPB is also an honest singer with clarity. Understated he recorded as many as 150 songs on a single day, all pleasing melodies.

Some of the songs that are beingMilking like “Pudukkudhi” from the movie Adhu Yevven with Seetharam. Muthu (1983) hit the roof with his instrumental metal and creativity in the song. The evergreen melody “Kalidasan Nammal” which is Carmin ragam based was released in broadcast style by SPB and Jayave. I keep singing this while driving on long routes.
