The benchmark indices on Tuesday ended the day record high ahead of the US-China trade deal. The rise in the benchmark indices also came on the back of steady oil prices and expectations of a growth in Union Budget.

The Sensex was up by 1,631.30 points, or 3.84%, to 42,851.60, while the Nifty 50 gained by 454.67 points, or 3.16%, to 15,067.00.

On the other hand, the biggest loser was SBI, down 1.55%.

The index-based returns in calendar year 2019 were now driven by about half a dozen key stocks, marking a break from previous years when portfolio investors (PII) noticed that it could be risky to hold a basket of stocks as returns were driven by about half a dozen key stocks, marking a break from previous years when portfolio investors (PII) noticed that it could be risky to hold a basket of stocks as returns were driven by returns from the same basket of stocks. The main reason for this is that the market, which has been driven lower by inflation and earnings growth for a year now, is now driven by a basket of stocks and earnings growth.

The Sensex was up by 1,631.30 points, or 3.84%, to 42,851.60, while the Nifty 50 gained by 454.67 points, or 3.16%, to 15,067.00.

On the other hand, the biggest loser was SBI, down 1.55%.

Air India Air Transport Services Limited

It is not the case to notice the record-high levels that are now being reached in the Sensex and the Nifty, which have been driven for a year by the same basket of stocks and earnings growth.
